Anna Ring Crowned 'Miss Jaycee'

Brown-haired Anna Mae Ring was crowned "Miss Jaycee of Wellsville" as the climax of a Labor Day program of the Junior Chamber of Commerce held Monday, including a community picnic, softball game, parade and other activities.

Several hundred persons watched the crowning ceremony conducted by Ralph Fusco, "Jaycee Day" chairman, during a free dance held last night in MacDonald School Gymnasium following a parade which featured 18 girls participating in the beauty contest riding in open convertibles.

ABOUT 1,000 attended the community picnic held in the afternoon at Hammond Park when the "key to the city" was presented to Wayne Rose, Jaycee president, by Mayor William Shoub.

The Jaycee Day was held in attempts to keep residents off the crowded highways during the Labor Day weekend.

Four winners were also named in a baby contest and the club presented four trophies to the Babe Ruth and Little champion baseball team in a ceremony at the picnic.

Miss Ring, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ring of Lincoln Ave., received a gold watch for winning the beauty contest after her selection by a panel of male judges. She is employed by Bondy's Family Shoes of East Liverpool.

All 19 Feared Dead In Crash Of U.S. Plane

GUAM (AP) — A Military Air Transport Service plane with 19 aboard crashed in the Pacific early today and an air-sea search team could find no survivor.

Debris and three bodies were picked up 30 miles west of Guam.

The C124 from Travis Air Force Base, Calif., was on a flight to Clark AFB in the Philippines. It had a crew of seven and carried cargo and 12 passengers.

Air Force officers estimated the plane crashed five minutes after leaving Guam on the last leg of its trip.

The search was continued after a Navy ship picked up two bodies and an Air Force helicopter found one.

Maj. John Walker, Air Force information officer, said the plane left the naval air station flight line here at 5:55 a.m. and crashed without radioing any intimation of trouble.

A Travis spokesman said the plane left there four or five days ago.

Paris Spurs Campaign Against Terrorism

PARIS (AP) — The government intensified its campaign against Algerian terrorism in France today, warning North Africans to stay off the streets between 9:30 p. m. and 5:30 a. m.

Police reported in the past week they have killed three North Africans identified as terrorists.

Algerian nationalists started a new wave of terrorism in France eight days ago to support the 4-year-old rebellion in Algeria.

65 Killed In Canada

TORONTO (AP)—Sixty-five persons were killed in accidents during Canada's three-day Labor Day weekend. The traffic toll was 44. Last year's over-all toll was 83.

Fishing Dispute Flares

British Anglers, Icelandic Coast Guard Fight On Boat

REYKJAVIK, Iceland (AP) — British fishermen and Icelandic coast guardsmen battled hand-to-hand aboard a British trawler in the no-fishing zone off Iceland's east coast today, the Iceland coast guard reported.

An official statement, broadcast by the government-owned radio, gave the Icelandic people a graphic account of the fight.

It said a rough battle ensued when an Iceland gunboat's crew attempted to seize the British trawler Northern Foam. The British frigate Eastbourne steamed to the trawler's side and took the Icelanders off, the radio said.

All this happened off the eastern tip of Iceland. It is the first reported violent contact in the nearly two-day-old fishing dispute between Iceland and Britain.

While the struggle at sea was going on, the trawler Northern Foam drifted in about four miles from the Icelandic coast, the radio said.

The British Embassy here said the Eastbourne was awaiting specific instructions what to do with the captured Icelandic coast guardsmen.

In the confusion at sea, the coast guard said, the British navy tried to return its captives "but the coast guard commander refused to take them back." The coast guard said the Eastbourne then steamed away.

(Royal naval headquarters in London reported no violence occurred in the incident.

Britain has refused to recognize Iceland's extension of its territorial waters to 12 miles off the coast. The new limit, which sets up a can on foreign fishermen inside the 12-mile line, took effect at midnight Sunday. The British trawler fleet immediately challenged the ban by moving to their traditional fishing grounds in the prohibited waters.

There was no shooting on the first day of Britain's defiance of the new limit, although the British managed to foil a boarding attempt yesterday by some fast maneuvering.

Foreign Minister Gudmunlur Gudmundsson said Iceland had protested to London the "use of force by the British navy" to prevent an Icelandic gunboat from arresting a British trawler.

In a broadcast to his north Atlantic island nation Monday night, Gudmundsson said he had ordered Iceland's ambassador in Paris to report the incident to NATO Secretary General Paul-Henri Spaak.

Private talks arranged by Spaak broke down in Paris last Friday after Iceland rejected a proposal to share foreigners' catch and extend its territorial waters only six miles to seaward. British Prime Minister Macmillan offered Sunday to resume these talks but added the dispute might be handed to the U.N. General Assembly meeting Sept. 16.

Chester Homes Lack Water During Repairs

Water service to homes in the western part of Chester was reduced this morning while a water works crew repaired a broken fire hydrant at Virginia Ave. and 3rd St.

The crew, using a special piece of equipment from the East Liverpool water department, was repairing the leaking hydrant under reduced water pressure. Several homes were without water temporarily while other hydrants were opened to lower the line pressure.

Race Rioting Continues In London Area

LONDON (AP) -- Race rioters rampaged through London's Notting Hill district Monday night for the third successive night.

It was early morning before police with big Alsatian dogs cleared the streets of the mob of more than 2,000 whites, most of them teen-agers.

The rioters systematically smashed windows of Negro homes. The embattled residents retaliated by hurling bottles from their roofs. One homemade gasoline bomb also was thrown down, but the fire was put out quickly.

One white man was stabbed in the shoulder. Scores of other persons had minor injuries.

Police arrested 34 persons, bringing to 57 the total arrested in London since racial disturbances broke out again Saturday night.

In the neighboring Paddington district, gangs o white youths wrecked a cafe frequented by Negroes.

Britain's racial friction stems from competition — for housing, jobs and girls--between native-born poor whites and the swelling tide of colored immigrants from the West Indies and other areas of the Commonwealth.

Nottingham also had weekend race violence. There a mob of 1,000 whites moved on the city's colored quarter Sunday night but police patrols drove them off. Five of the rioters were sentenced to three months in prison and 19 were fined.

Home Secretary Richard A. Butler was reported satisfied that the police could handle the situation. But he ordered a special report on the riots.

A social worker in Notting Hill said the rampaging teen-agers "are just looking for excitement."

23 Victims Reported In Ohio Wrecks

3 Drown, 7 Others Claimed In Mishaps Over Long Weekend

By The Associated Press

Millions of Ohioans bid goodbye to summer this weekend — and for 33 persons it was a last farewell.

Ohio wound up the long Labor Day weekend with one of the worst accident tolls in the nation. Between 6 p.m. Friday and midnight Monday, the Associated Press counted 23 persons killed in highway accidents, three drownings, and seven dead in other types of accidents.

The worst single accident occurred early Saturday when three men died in a headon auto collision near Dayton.

The only other multiple auto fatality also happened Saturday when two persons were killed in an auto-train collision at a Sandusky intersection.

Four traffic accidents involved pedestrians. They included a 30-year-old Clevelander struck down by a hit-skip motorist.

One of the most tragic accidents was the drowning of 2½-year-old Brenda Leatherman in Mohican State Park in northern Ohio. The girl's body was recovered Monday from an outdoor latrine into which she had fallen. Some 1,500 volunteers searched the park after Brenda wandered away from her parents during an outing Sunday.

Other fatalities included a father and son killed in the crash of their light plane near Bowling Green; two brothers drowned in a Brown County swimming hole; a 15-year-old boy shot in a hunting accident near McArthur, and a man struck by lightning while watching a parade in Independence.

The fatalities:

Friday night:

Paul Everly, 22, Summerfield, when his car left a county road near Caldwell, plunged down a hill and hit a tree.

Saturday:

Frank Mitchell, 40; Edwin Smith Jr., 27, and John L. Gullatt, 49, all of Dayton, when Mitchell's and Smith's cars collided on Ohio 4, two miles south of Dayton.

Willie Perry, 39, Rt. 1, Camden (Preble County), when his car went off a Butler County road just south of the Preble County line and hit a tree.

James Fleming, 33, and Robert Middleton, 27, both of Sandusky, when their car collided with a Baltimore & Ohio freight train in Sandusky.

Woodrow W. Aaronson, 19, a Marine stationed at Camp Lejeune, N.C., when his car hit a tree along Ohio 44, south of Chardon.

Sue Ann Crabtree, 12, Tiffin, when the auto in which she was riding collided with the rear of a truck on U.S. 23, northeast of Bowling Green.

Edward Martin, 20, and his brother, Thomas, 13, of Barre, Mass., drowned in a swimming hole near Higginsport (Brown County).

William Reeves, 36, Zaleski (Vinton County), in an auto collision 10 miles east of McArthur.

Paul Boughton, 43, Akron, crushed when the bulldozer he was operating overturned at a lake just off Ohio 303 and U.S. 21.

John Degood, 21, Marysville, when the car he was riding in struck a tree in Marysville.

Duwayne Gibson, 30, Cleveland, struck by a hit-skip driver in Cleveland.

Nationalists Say They Sank 11 Of Communist Boats

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — The Chinese Nationalists claimed their warships early today sank 11 Communist torpedo boats and probably a 12th trying to break up a convoy to embattled Quemoy Island.

It was the biggest naval action reported in the 11 days since the Communists stepped up their attack on the Nationalist-held offshore islands.

Earlier, the Nationalists announced their artillery on Quemoy in firing throughout Sunday night sank three Communist gunboats and eight motorized junks in a flotilla near Amoy, the Communist island port blockaded by the Nationalist islands.

Despite the naval success claimed by the Nationlists, the torpedo boat attack forced the troop carrier to return to the Pescadores Islands without unloading 370 troops destined for Quemoy. Only 30 of the reinforcements made it ashore.

While the naval engagement raged, Red shore batteries pounded Quemoy with renewed fury. The Communists fired 857 shells in an hour and a half and also dumped a 101-shell barrage on tiny Tatan islet 2½ miles south of Amoy.

The combined artillery and sea attack erupted after the quietest day in the Formosa Strait since the Reds began their heavy attack Aug. 23. The Communist shore guns fired only 457 shells Monday.

The Nationalist Defense Ministry said the Communists had fired about 125,000 shells at the islands in the first 10 days. To evacuate casualties and keep the islands' troop and supply strength up in the face of an invasion threat, the Nationalists have been running night convoys to Quemoy from the Pescadores Islands, 30 miles west of Formosa.

Little Rock's Board Delays School Start

Tension Eases But New Tests Loom In Virginia, Mississippi

By The Associated Press

Postponement of the opening of Central High School in Little Rock, Ark., until Sept. 15 eased tension in that center of the integration struggle as new tests loomed in Virginia and Mississippi today.

The Little Rock School Board voted 5-1 for the delay Monday night in a show of good faith with the U. S. Supreme Court.

Whether Negroes would be admitted Sept. 15 apparently depended on what the court decides after hearing oral arguments on the Little Rock case Sept. 11.

On the other hand, Gov. Orval E. Faubus has said he would close the 2,000-pupil school "if necessary for the peace of the community" should the court order integration resumed.

In Alexandria, Va., the legality of the amended version of Virginia's Pupil Placement Act may be tested in federal court during a hearing on a motion to order Arlington County to admit 30 Negro pupils into its white schools.

At Gulfport, Miss., Negro minister Clennon King planned to enroll his 6-year-old daughter in all-white North Central School.

In an apparently related incident, a black-faced effigy was found hanging from a flagpole on the federal building in downtown Gulfport. It was removed immediately.

At Raleigh, N.C., litigation over racial mixing in the public schools flared briefly.

Federal Dist. Judge Edwin M. Stanley refused to grant a court order for admission of Joseph Hiram Holt Jr., a 15-year-old Negro, to all-white Needham Broughton High School.

The judge said Holt and his parents had appealed to the courts before they had exhausted the administrative remedies provided them by North Carolina's pupil assignment law.

In Charlotte, N.C., racial agitator John Kasper was greeted with heckling and laughter when he appealed for recruits for his Citizens Council during a segregation speech on the courthouse steps.

MEXICO CITY (AP)—President Adolfo Ruiz Cortines has warned that any further student disorders or illegal strikes will be dealt with firmly.

The President said in his final State of the Union address to Congress Monday that the disturbances of the past two weeks were harming the country's economy.

He will be succeeded by Adolfo Lopez Mateos in December.

Meanwhile, University of Mexico students who stole or burned nearly 200 transportation buses from lines serving Mexico City in protest against a fare increase and poor service decided to return 12 more stolen buses as a gesture of good intentions.

Ruiz Cortines delayed the fare increase and agreed to appoint a special commission to study the issue.

The toll of violent death on America's highways during the extended Labor Day weekend fell short of record proportions.

But there was no comfort in the knowledge for relatives and friends of the more than 400 dead in summer's last surge of holiday traffic.

A sharp rise in deaths on the highways in the closing hours of the 78-hour holiday period shot the total close to the prediction made last week by the National Safety Council.

An estimated 30 million cars were on the highways Monday, the windup of summer's last long holiday.

The final count may surpass the estimate. But it did not appear likely it would reach the 1957 Labor Day holiday total of 445 or the record high toll for a Labor Day period of 461 in 1951.

However, the over-all accident death total may equal the count of 636 for last year's three-day Labor Day period, but below the record high for the holiday of 659 in 1951.

In the country's three major summer holiday periods—Memorial Day, Independence Day and Labor Day—more than 1,140 persons were killed in motor vehicle accidents. All the holidays extended over a period of 78 hours. The Labor Day count was from 6 p.m. (local time) last Friday to midnight Monday. The traffic toll for the Fourth of July holiday was 370; for the Memorial Day period it was 371.

Luncheon To Follow Trip For Newcomers

Twenty - eight new teachers in the East Liverpool and Beaver Local school systems started this morning on a tour of the district arranged by the public education committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

Eighteen teachers in East Liverpool and 10 from Beaver Local made the trip, which started about 11 from Westgate School, scene of a general instructors' meeting before the opening of classes tomorrow. The Beaver Local teachers were picked up at a meeting at the high school near Williamsport.

After the tour, a luncheon will be held at Peterson's Restaurant for 31 teachers and 10 Chamber members. William B. Cooper, Chamber president, will give the welcome. The Rev. M. Rudolph Miller of the First Presbyterian Church will give the invocation.

The tour was made in cars furnished by the East Liverpool Auto Dealers Association. Nine Chamber members accompanied the teachers to explain points of interest. The trip was to include a general view of East Liverpool from Pleasant Heights, a drive along the Chester - Newell Rd., a trip through the Thompson Park-Dixonville area and a drive through lower East End before returning downtown for lunch.

Twenty - eight new teachers in the East Liverpool and Beaver Local school systems started this morning on a tour of the district arranged by the public education committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

Eighteen teachers in East Liverpool and 10 from Beaver Local made the trip, which started about 11 from Westgate School, scene of a general instructors' meeting before the opening of classes tomorrow. The Beaver Local teachers were picked up at a meeting at the high school near Williamsport.

After the tour, a luncheon will be held at Peterson's Restaurant for 31 teachers and 10 Chamber members. William B. Cooper, Chamber president, will give the welcome. The Rev. M. Rudolph Miller of the First Presbyterian Church will give the invocation.

The tour was made in cars furnished by the East Liverpool Auto Dealers Association. Nine Chamber members accompanied the teachers to explain points of interest. The trip was to include a general view of East Liverpool from Pleasant Heights, a drive along the Chester - Newell Rd., a trip through the Thompson Park-Dixonville area and a drive through lower East End before returning downtown for lunch.

All 19 Feared Dead In Crash Of U.S. Plane

GUAM (AP) — A Military Air Transport Service plane with 19 aboard crashed in the Pacific early today and an air-sea search team could find no survivor.

Debris and three bodies were picked up 30 miles west of Guam.

The C124 from Travis Air Force Base, Calif., was on a flight to Clark AFB in the Philippines. It had a crew of seven and carried cargo and 12 passengers.

Air Force officers estimated the plane crashed five minutes after leaving Guam on the last leg of its trip.

The search was continued after a Navy ship picked up two bodies and an Air Force helicopter found one.

Maj. John Walker, Air Force information officer, said the plane left the naval air station flight line here at 5:55 a.m. and crashed without radioing any intimation of trouble.

A Travis spokesman said the plane left there four or five days ago.

Paris Spurs Campaign Against Terrorism

PARIS (AP) — The government intensified its campaign against Algerian terrorism in France today, warning North Africans to stay off the streets between 9:30 p. m. and 5:30 a. m.

Police reported in the past week they have killed three North Africans identified as terrorists.

Algerian nationalists started a new wave of terrorism in France eight days ago to support the 4-year-old rebellion in Algeria.

65 Killed In Canada

TORONTO (AP)—Sixty-five persons were killed in accidents during Canada's three-day Labor Day weekend. The traffic toll was 44. Last year's over-all toll was 83.

Fishing Dispute Flares

British Anglers, Icelandic Coast Guard Fight On Boat

REYKJAVIK, Iceland (AP) — British fishermen and Icelandic coast guardsmen battled hand-to-hand aboard a British trawler in the no-fishing zone off Iceland's east coast today, the Iceland coast guard reported.

An official statement, broadcoast by the government-owned radio, gave the Icelandic people a graphic account of the fight.

It said a rough battle ensued when an Iceland gunboat's crew attempted to seize the British trawler Northern Foam. The British frigate Eastbourne steamed to the trawler's side and took the Icelanders off, the radio said.

All this happened off the eastern tip of Iceland. It is the first reported violent contact in the nearly two-day-old fishing dispute between Iceland and Britain.

While the struggle at sea was going on, the trawler Northern Foam drifted in about four miles from the Icelandic coast, the radio said.

The British Embassy here said the Eastbourne was awaiting specific instructions what to do with the captured Icelandic coast guardsmen.

In the confusion at sea, the coast guard said, the British navy tried to return its captives "but the coast guard commander refused to take them back." The coast guard said the Eastbourne then steamed away.

(Royal naval headquarters in London reported no violence occurred in the incident.

Britain has refused to recognize Iceland's extension of its territorial waters to 12 miles off the coast. The new limit, which sets up a can on foreign fishermen inside the 12-mile line, took effect at midnight Sunday. The British trawler fleet immediately challenged the ban by moving to their traditional fishing grounds in the prohibited waters.

There was no shooting on the first day of Britain's defiance of the new limit, although the British managed to foil a boarding attempt yesterday by some fast maneuvering.

Foreign Minister Gudmunlur Gudmundsson said Iceland had protested to London the "use of force by the British navy" to prevent an Icelandic gunboat from arresting a British trawler.

In a broadcast to his north Atlantic island nation Monday night, Gudmundsson said he had ordered Iceland's ambassador in Paris to report the incident to NATO Secretary General Paul-Henri Spaak.

Private talks arranged by Spaak broke down in Paris last Friday after Iceland rejected a proposal to share foreigners' catch and extend its territorial waters only six miles to seaward. British Prime Minister Macmillan offered Sunday to resume these talks but added the dispute might be handed to the U.N. General Assembly meeting Sept. 16.

Chester Homes Lack Water During Repairs

Water service to homes in the western part of Chester was reduced this morning while a water works crew repaired a broken fire hydrant at Virginia Ave. and 3rd St.

The crew, using a special piece of equipment from the East Liverpool water department, was repairing the leaking hydrant under reduced water pressure. Several homes were without water temporarily while other hydrants were opened to lower the line pressure.

Race Rioting Continues In London Area

LONDON (AP) -- Race rioters rampaged through London's Notting Hill district Monday night for the third successive night.

It was early morning before police with big Alsatian dogs cleared the streets of the mob of more than 2,000 whites, most of them teen-agers.

The rioters systematically smashed windows of Negro homes. The embattled residents retaliated by hurling bottles from their roofs. One homemade gasoline bomb also was thrown down, but the fire was put out quickly.

One white man was stabbed in the shoulder. Scores of other persons had minor injuries.

Police arrested 34 persons, bringing to 57 the total arrested in London since racial disturbances broke out again Saturday night.

In the neighboring Paddington district, gangs o white youths wrecked a cafe frequented by Negroes.

Britain's racial friction stems from competition — for housing, jobs and girls—between native-born poor whites and the swelling tide of colored immigrants from the West Indies and other areas of the Commonwealth.

Nottingham also had weekend race violence. There a mob of 1,000 whites moved on the city's colored quarter Sunday night but police patrols drove them off. Five of the rioters were sentenced to three months in prison and 19 were fined.

Home Secretary Richard A. Butler was reported satisfied that the police could handle the situation. But he ordered a special report on the riots.

A social worker in Notting Hill said the rampaging teen-agers "are just looking for excitement."

Intercepted Convoy

AP Writer Gives Personal Account Of Reds' Attack

AP correspondent Forrest Edwards and AP photographer Fred Waters were among 18 foreign correspondents going to Quemoy when Communist torpedo boats intercepted their convoy early today. This is Edwards' account of the battle.

By FORREST EDWARDS

MAKUNG, Pescadores (AP) — Fred Waters and I were halfway down the landing nets, handing down our gear to the men in the small landing boat below, when the first shell broke near us at about 12:40 this morning.

The small boat broke away from our landing ship and Waters and I were left dangling there. We climbed back up on deck.

Eight foreign correspondents and six Chinese reporters and about 30 troops were already in our small boat and another one being loaded on the other side of our landing ship.

Our convoy consisted of our landing ship carrying 400 men to reinforce Quemoy and several escort patrol boats. We had dropped anchor six miles offshore to get into the small boats when the Communists attacked.

The Red torpedo boats kept up a running battle with our flotilla for an hour and 10 minutes. We took evasive action and tried to pick up the men in the small boats, but we could not find them in the darkness. Officers on our ship said they thought the small boats would be able to make it to shore.

(Nationalist headquarters on Formosa later reported that the boats with the correspondents and the troops had reached Quemoy safely.)

After maneuvering in circles during the hours of darkness, we returned to the Pescadores. There were no hits on our landing ship, an LSM (landing ship medium), but the Reds fired many rounds across our bow and aft.

This morning as we headed back to the Pescadores (about 80 miles southeast of Quemoy) we had a 20-minute submarine alert. For about an hour before the naval battle, we could see heavy Communist shelling of Quemoy from shore batteries.

This morning one of the Nationalist escort patrol boats was brought into the Pescadores under tow. It had been hit and damaged in the battle. I counted three wounded.

'Goose Pimple Day'

Weatherman Puts Chill On Outings For Labor Day

It wasn't so much Labor Day as Goose Pimple Day for swimmers at Tri-State District parks Monday as temperatures never got beyond the mid-60's for one of the coolest holidays in years. The mercury hit 92 last year.

The cool air and cloudy skies during the afternoon also cut attendance at most parks for the last holiday of summer. The forenoon was sunny but storm clouds appeared late in the afternoon although there was no rain.

N. T. Holbrook, superintendent of Tomlinson Run State Park at Pughtown, estimated yesterday's park attendance at 1,500, raising the weekend turnout to 5,000.

He estimated the year's attendance will reach 200,000 when the park closes Oct. 31. Attendance since Jan. 1 is estimated at 175,000, more than for the entire season in 1957.

The pool was scheduled to remain open until 9 last night but it closed at 5 p. m. with only 15 paid admissions during the day. "They jumped in, hurried back out and dressed," Holbrook said. The forenoon temperature was in the mid-50's.

Only 13 dared the chilly temperature and took a dip at Thompson Park pool, according to William Bell, park superintendent. But the park's picnic facilities were crowded, he said, with all pavilions and outdoor tables in use most of the day. The park will remain open until mid - October.

Rock Springs Park at Chester ended its season yesterday and R. L. Hand, superintendent, said attendance was down for the final day. There was a fair afternoon crowd, augmented by a picnic of 600 from Washington, Pa.

A synchronized water show by 40 Campfire Girls and others highlighted Labor Day at East Palestine City Park where attendance was limited by the cool weather.

About 125 youngsters attended a program of games and contests in the forenoon while 30 participated in contests at the park pool, which closed for the season.

Dam 8 at Newell recorded only 65 degrees as the day's high after a forenoon low of 57. This morning's low was a cooler 52. It will be a little warmer today with a high range of 68-72 forecast and tonight will be less cool — a low of 55-59.

Wednesday will be warmer with scattered showers likely by afternoon or evening.

3 Soldiers Die, Another Injured In 2-Car Crash

SANDUSKY, Ohio (AP)—Three soldiers, apparently returning to their home bases after leaving the National rifle and pistol matches at Camp Perry, were killed today in a two-car collision on Ohio 2.

The State Highway Patrol identified them as Pvt. Ronald M. Coolong of Ft. Riley, Kan.; Pvt. Linwood M. Andrews, 21, of Ft. Riley, and Pfc. Robert A. Lensky, 23, Ft. Sill, Okla.

Pvt. T. Scarpinato, 22, also of Ft. Riley, the driver of the car in which the soldiers were riding, was taken to Providence Hospital here in critical condition.

Patrolman John Milstead said hometowns of the victims were not learned immediately because their records had been packed at Camp Perry.

Also in critical condition at the hospital is Wilber R. Moyer, 24, formerly of Somerset, Pa., driver of the other auto. Moyer has been living in Sandusky, where he is a teacher.

Patrolman Milstead said the car in which the soldiers were riding was reported stolen Monday night from near Jax's Bar here. He said the car reportedly was owned by another soldier from Camp Perry.

2 Youths Unhurt In Auto Collision

Two district youths escaped injury in a traffic collision on Campground Rd. Monday night while a city area man was unhurt in the second of two road mishaps reported yesterday by the State Highway Patrol at Lisbon.

James Zelch, 17, of 1572 Pennsylvania Ave. lost control of his car on Campground Rd. about a mile west of Route 7 last night at 8:30, and veered left of center on a curve.

A car driven by James Hoppel, 19, of R. D. 2, behind Zelch, followed him left of center and hit the rear of his auto, the patrol said. Neither driver was injured but both were cited for driving left of center.

Lou Brace, 57, of Troy, Pa., R. D. 3 was cited for reckless operation yesterday after his car hit one driven by Fred S. Woodburn, 79, of R. D. 2 on Route 7 about 3 miles south of Rogers.

Officers said Woodburn was headed north making a left turn when Brace attempted to pass and struck Woodburn's auto. Neither was hurt, the patrol said.

6 Drivers Pay $269 In Fines And Forfeits

Airman Assessed On 3 Counts Among Cases Over Holiday

Six motorists arrested over the holiday weekend for traffic violations paid $269 in fines and forfeits today in Municipal Court, while a hearing was set Wednesday morning at 9 for another who entered a not guilty plea.

Airman Franklin Piggott, 22, of Woodlawn Ave. paid $33 in fines and costs on 3 charges piled up against him early Sunday and will face Juvenile Court on a fourth charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Piggott, who pleaded guilty to the three traffic offenses, was fined $5 and $6 costs on each. He was accused of crashing a traffic light at Dresden Ave. and Webber Way, ignoring a stop sign at Lincoln Ave. and Smith St and making an illegal turn at Washington and E. 5th Sts.

The contributing charge was filed against Piggott because a minor girl was found in his auto after his arrest at 3:46 a. m. Sunday. Judge George L. Brokaw arraigned him on the contributing charge and Piggott entered a not guilty plea.

Frank E. Oyster 58, of 648 Riley Ave. was fined $150 and costs when he pleaded guilty to a charge of being in physical control of an auto while intoxicated. He was arrested at 6:03 p. m. Saturday on Bradshaw Ave. Officers said he was found in his parked car with the motor running.

Two motorcyclists forfeited bonds of $16 each on charges of speeding on W. 8th St. Sunday night. They were identified as Harry Detchon, 31, of Salineville and Raymond Buxton, 32, of Scio.

Carl N. Moore of Detroit forfeited $7 for an illegal turn Saturday at E. 5th and Washington Sts. Thomas L. Heddey, 34, of Chester forfeited $16 on a charge of passing over a double yellow line on Dresden Ave. Sunday night.

Norris Koerber of Boyd St., Dixonville, forfeited a $31 bond on a reckless driving charge. He was cited at 12:05 a. m. Monday at St. Clair and Henry Aves., police said.

Scheduled for a hearing Wednesday is George T. Clark, 22, of 7th Ave., LaCroft, charged with operating an auto with improper license plates Sunday morning.

A hearing also is being arranged for James H. Hopper of the Smiths Ferry Rd., arrested at 11 p. m. Sunday on Shadyside Ave. by the State Highway Patrol on a charge of driving on the wrong side of the road.

Court's Recent Ruling Prevents Passports Bids

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department's security chief said today a recent Supreme Court decision prevents review of 435 passport applications for possible rejection on grounds of Communist taint.

As things now stand, Roderic L. O'Connor said, the department probably will have to okay passports for practically all of these persons to go abroad. However, he said, some applications may be rejected on other grounds.

"I'm certain that in all likelihood some of them are engaged in espionage, and I just don't think we ought to take that chance," O'Connor said.

O'Connor spoke in an interview after publication Monday of secret testimony before the House Foreign Affairs Committee in the closing days of the recent session.

President Eisenhower urgently requested a passport law after the Supreme Court in a June 16 decision ruled that Congress had not given the State Department authority to deny passports to persons because of Communist associations. The House passed a limited bill but the Senate took no action.

3 Women Given Terms In Youth's Delinquency

Three Salineville area women were sentenced to 10 days in the Columbiana County Jail by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin at Lisbon this morning for contributing to the delinquency of a 17-year-old Kentucky youth.

Judge Tobin suspended a year's sentence at the Women's Reformatory for Maxine Hicks and Dorothy Wallen of Salineville R. D. 1 and Mabel Tsesmilles of Salineville, but ordered them to the county jail and placed them on three years' probation.

They were cited Monday night after they took the youth into Salineville taverns and the Veterans of Foreign Wars post, authorities said.

The youth was ordered to the county jail for five days, and is to be returned to his parents at Mausie, Ky.

The charges were filed by Chris Pusey. They were taken into custody last night by Chief Deputy Sheriff James Miller and Salineville Police Chief Cleo Mellott.

Declares Sales Levy Due

Democrat Asks Collection Of Tax On O'Neill Picnics

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Merrill D. Brothers, Democratic nominee for Ohio Supreme Court judge, today requested collection of $6,000 in sales tax on O'Neill campaign picnic dinners.

A letter to Atty. Gen. William Saxbe said the sales tax was due on tickets to 11 campaign picnics staged by a committee sponsoring re - election of C. William O'Neill, GOP incumbent governor.

Letters also went to prosecutors of Franklin and Tuscarawas counties where two of the picnics were held.

Either the committee owes sales tax on the tickets or was guilty of violating the Corrupt Practices Act, Brothers asserted.

"If the tickets to the picnics were in fact purchases for the dinners at $2 each . . . then it would appear the state of Ohio may be entitled to 6, cents for each one sold, or a total of $6,000, using attendance figures given by the committee," Brothers said.

"On the other hand, if the tickets were not sold, but were given away, then there appears to have been a violation of the Corrupt Practices Act which prohibits a candidate or committee from giving away anything of value to voters."

Brothers, a Columbus attorney, said a committee will be formed during the Democratic state convention here this weekend to press for an investigation.

Brothers explained that the attorney general was asked to take action to collect the sales tax and that prosecutors were asked to call on grand juries to investigate possible violation of the Corrupt Practices Act.

Eaton Says Soviet Premier Seeks Ending Of Arms Race

MOSCOW (AP) — Cleveland industrialist Cyrus Eaton said after a long talk with Premier Khrushchev Monday that the Premier feels the arms race is an expensive operation that the Soviet Union wants to end.

Eaton, here as guest of the Soviet Ministry of Agriculture, said he discussed disarmament with Khrushchev in a 95-minute meeting in the Kremlin. The two met shortly after Khrushchev returned from a vacation at a Black Sea resort.

Eaton said the Soviet Premier told him that he felt the U.S. State Department was antagonistic toward the Soviet Union, but added that he would like to visit the United States.

Krushchev expressed concern, Eaton said, over foreign journalists who return to the West after short visits to the Soviet Union and report that the Russian people are friendly but that the Soviet government is antagonistic.

Eaton said Khrushchev told him he knows the American people want peace but he is not so sure about the U.S government.

Eaton replied that American industrialists — favorite targets of Soviet propaganda—do not want war. He said he told the Soviet Premier that industrialists do not want to pay higher taxes which would go for weapons.

Two Admit 100 Burglaries In Cleveland Area

CLEVELAND (AP)—Police said today two Texas men held in Denver, Colo., have admitted more than 100 house and apartment burglaries in the Cleveland area.

The pair was identified as Victor Ferdin, 31, of Laredo, and Raynaldo R. Charles, 33, of San Antonio. They have been charged with housebreaking and larceny in Cleveland Heights.

A war bond traced to a Cleveland Heights owner was found in the men's possession when they were arrested in Denver Aug. 22, police said. A television set stolen from a Cleveland Heights home was found in their car.

Lakewood and East Cleveland police are attempting to link the pair with several burglaries in those suburbs.

2 Lisbon Boys Admit Series Of Area Thefts

Two Lisbon area boys, arrested 6 minutes after they stole a fender skirt from an auto in East End Monday night, have admitted about a dozen other thefts throughout Columbiana County in which they stripped cars and robbed a junk yard and a strip mine, police reported.

William G. Moore, 18, of Box 45, Lisbon, and his 17-year-old companion from Lisbon R. D. 1 were arrested at 10:26 p. m. yesterday on the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd." at Ravine St., hauling in their auto a fender skirt stolen at 10:20 from a car parked outside the home of American Legion Post 374, police said.

Moore was given a 60-day term in County Jail today by Municipal Judge George L. Brokaw when he pleaded guilty to violation of a state law set up especially against theft of parts from an auto.

His 17 - year - old companion will be remanded to Juvenile Court.

After the arrest, Moore and his companion admitted to thefts from five parked autos in Salem Sunday and thefts of accessories from two cars in Lisbon, police said. They also admitted to taking parts from autos on the Davis Used Car Lot on Route 45; thefts from an Elkton strip mine and robbery of the Prizzant Junk Yard on Route 164, police said.

In their auto or cached at their homes were 16 hubcaps, 2 tires, tubes and wheels, several fender skirts and auto radio antennas, police said.

When imposing sentence, Judge Brokaw commented that he gave Moore a 60-day term to help county authorities hold the defendant while the series of thefts is cleared up.

"There has been a lot of this pilfering throughout the county and this will enable the police to hold you for investigation," he told Moore.

Police received a call at 10:20 Sunday night that two youths had just stolen a fender skirt from the parked 1957 auto of James P. Powers of Glenmoor. The youths fled in a green Chevrolet — a 1940 or 1942 model, the Legion officials reported.

At 10:26, Patrolman Paul Carter halted a car answering the description and found the boys with their loot, police said.

The Special Service Bureau directed the questioning that led to the boys admitting the theft series.

Police received a call at 10:20 Sunday night that two youths had just stolen a fender skirt from the parked 1957 auto of James P. Powers of Glenmoor. The youths fled in a green Chevrolet — a 1940 or 1942 model, the Legion officials reported.

At 10:26, Patrolman Paul Carter halted a car answering the description and found the boys with their loot, police said.

The Special Service Bureau directed the questioning that led to the boys admitting the theft series.

Weirton will report, the superintendent said.

Classes were also started at St. Aloysius Parochial School this morning as some 500 youngsters reported for a half-day session. The full schedule will begin tomorrow.

Supt. Ralph Betts and principals of city schools met this morning at Westgate School for a planning session, followed by a general meeting of the some 200 faculty members later in the morning at the school.

City teachers were to meet this afternoon at their respective buildings for final preparation for classes tomorrow.

A full day's schedule will be held Wednesday, with the same bus schedule and starting times as last year. High School and East Junior High classes will start at 8:40 a. m. Westgate Junior High at 8:35 and elementary schools at 9.

James Martin of Dresden Ave., recent graduate of the Nazarene College in Tennessee, will teach English and history at East Junior High, filling a faculty vacancy there, but a girls' physical education instructor still is needed, Supt. Betts said.

Bus schedules and starting times at the Beaver Local schools will also be the same as last year, bus pickups starting about 7:40 a.m. and classes starting at 8:30 or 8:45, depending upon the school, George VanHorne, executive head, reported.

The some 75 faculty members of the 7 buildings of the district met this morning for final planning for classes Wednesday when some 2,140 youngsters will start the new term.

Southern Local faculty members also met this morning to ready schools for classes Wednesday at Salineville, Fairview, No. 16, Highlandtown and Wayne Schools where a full day schedule will mark the first day. Salineville schools will start at 9 and the others at 8:30 a. m.

The remainder of the 2,100 students in the county rural system will resume school tomorrow morning.

The Kids Are On The Streets Again

With the beginning of another school year, the motorist finds his problems and his responsibility mounting in proportion to those students who use the streets on which he travels.

The mass of youngsters who will be pouring in and out of the various school buildings from now until next June can't always be expected to follow a normal pattern trafficwise. They have a lot of other things on their minds at this time of the year and frequently there's no room left for proper thinking when crossing the street.

And a lot of them are little ones going to school for the first time. Theirs is an entirely new world and they require even extra patience on behalf of the driver.

School guards will be stationed at critical crossings to help get the kids safely across the streets part of the time. Observe their "Stop" signs to the letter. They're performing a much-needed service that deserves the complete cooperation of every motorist.

Extra alertness is the need as district drivers once more come face to face with the school students.

It Would Be Completely Logical

Dag Hammarskjold, the secretary-general of the United Nations, likes to think of himself as an economic technician. He holds a doctorate in that field. His private career was in banking and state finance.

This training and interest could be the basis for a great 20th century service in his efforts to carry out the "all-Arab" solution to the problem posed by the fermenting nationalism of the Arab world. The nationalism has been stimulated by the hope of independence from non-Arab intervention, and the hope of independence has been noruished by income from oil production.

It would be completely logical for the Arab world to seek and agree on terms for mutual advantage and satisfaction at this time. Yet, the misgivings that have been voiced about the Hammarskjold mission to carry out the resolution of cooperation submitted to the U. N. General Asembly by 10 Arab states and unanimously adopted arise from fear that cooperation may be beyond the capabilities of the Arab world, particularly at a time when it has been alarmed by Gamal Nasser's Soviet-encouraged political aspirations.

The Egyptian president, himself, must be persuaded to see things Hammarskjold's way, if cooperation is to be forthcoming. Here, again, the U.N. secretary-general's personal aptitude may be the key to success.

He has had remarkable success as a persuader and mediator. He has looked at his role in the United Nations as that of "an instrument, a catalyst and interpreter." He thinks of himself as an international public servant, not as the spokesman for any bloc of nations. If he can persuade Nasser of his good faith and receive from Nasser, in turn, evidence of good faith, miracles could be performed.

The opportunity exists. The Arab world can realize its dream of emergence from centuries of frustration and oppression. Its oil resources have provided the wealth to raise living standards and provide security. All that has been lacking is the right catalyst to blend divergent views into a common purpose. Dag Hammarskjold, doctor of economics, may have the prescription.

Minor League Sellout

Frankly, we don't believe big league baseball knows what it's doing. Too many of its moves lately are making no sense.

It is floundering, which is what an enterprise looks like it is doing when it is grasping at straws in a slough of despondency while the wolf is at the door and all is not right with the world.

Moreover, it is showing unmistakable signs of being hidebound by its own conviction that it is the national game and does not need to tickle the fancy of its fans because they were born with a built-in love of baseball. This is one of the reasons it is floundering.

Big league football may flounder sometime, too, though so far it is continuing to do all right. That is, it is continuing to draw crowds to see its professionals perform.

Moreover, it is drawing crowds to see its minor league teams play; i.e., the organizations that supply the big league professional talent.

Item: A few more tickets to go and Ohio State University will have the first completely sold out football schedule in its history. After they're gone, the ticket window will close for the season and attendance at all Ohio State home games automatically will be 82,000 and a few odd hundred, the capacity of Ohio Stadium.

It's Cricket

A recent defeat of the British by Americans in a cricket match is, of course, comparable to a pickup team of Britons beating an American nine on a baseball diamond.

Although the odds are tremendously against such a blow to Uncle Sam's pride, such a national disaster is not inconceivable.

It would be prudent under the circumstances for Americans to control their cricket-gloating and be good winners.

Let's not be hard on our cousins. Give them a break, eh fellows. Cricket, you know.

Atonement

Paradoxically, it is the atheistic, royalty-hating Russian Communists who dominate the one activity dealing with symbolic kings, queens and bishops.

This activity is chess.

There may be some question about whether the United States or Russia is ahead in the space race and the cold war, but in world chess competition the Russians have been tops for years. One reason is that the Russian government makes wards of its best chess players, freeing them from the necessity of earning a living.

But this year the United States came up with a chess sensation of its own—15-year-old Bobby Fischer of Brooklyn, N.Y., who won the U.S. championship.

Young Bobby and James Sherwin, U. S. international master, have been busy with international tournaments, matching their chess knowledge against the Russians and others.

Their fellow Americans wish Bobby and Sherwin well in this cold war of wits. Who knows, in years to come, Bobby might yet wrest the world chess championship for our country and atone for Sputnik.

Rev. Gillette

It was with regret that we learned the Rev. Frederick T. Gillette will leave St. Stephen's Evangelical Church for a new position in North Dakota.

Rev. Gillette, who came here 12 years ago, time and again demonstrated his capabilities both as a minister and as one interested in the development of the community in which he served.

He will leave behind a record which many others would do well to duplicate.

The human body loses enough heat in one hour to raise a half-gallon of water to its boiling point.

Navy Beans vs. Borscht

By Frank Tripp

If I go to jail for writing this, send me a postcard. I stole it from a personal letter written to another fellow. Both are nawspaper big shots.

The brass who wrote it is editor-in-chief of the Scripps-Howard Newspapers. He wrote from Russia. A reader snapped him up for sitting pretty in a fat job and comparing the miserable plight of the average Russian with American luxury.

Let him live for once on bread, potato soup and cabbage, and never eat a steak again, advised the caustic critic.

The challenged writer ignored the advice, except to reveal his background of experience sans porterhouse in the private letter that I stole.

THE SCENE is Washington pre mink, vicuna or Goldfine. Back when Cal Coolidge didn't choose to do anything — even run. A typically American yarn about four Oklahomans crashing Washington.

Anent diets of Russian borscht and cabbage versus navy beans and home brew, Walker "Red" Stone wrote his pal:

Did I ever tell you about the time I lived on burnt beans for a week? It was in 1927. Simm and I had just come to Washington. We shared an apartment with a couple of Okies also enrolled in Geo. Washington University

None of us had a job. One day we counted up our assets. The total was $5.25. We figured the two things we needed to sustain us were home brew, rich in vitamins, and some navy beans, rich in protein.

Five dollars was enough to buy a crock and malt and hops and bottles and a capper, to put us in the home brewing operation. Twenty-five cents was enough to buy a big sack of navy beans which we could cook up in a big pot.

BEARD WILSON took the five bucks and went out to get the brewing equipment and ingredients Beard was an art student. On his way to the store he passed an antique shop which had an oil painting in the window.

He liked it and found he could buy it for five dollars, which he did, and brought it back to the apartment.

I took the two bits and bought a big sack of navy beans, came back and put them on the stove in a big pot filled with water. I took a nap. The water boiled away, and the beans burned.

Have you ever eaten nothing but burnt beans for a week? Our only supplement was milk, which we would steal at dawn off the doorsteps in the 1900 block of I Street, including the stoop of Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes, who was at least in his 70s and didn't need the milk as much as we did.

For a week we lived on those burnt beans and that milk and the aesthetic life of Beard's $5 painting.

In time some of us found work, and could buy some meat to put in our soup.

It was not even an unpleasant experience. Mr. Coolidge was not running any relief stations, and if he had been I don't think we would have applied. It was easier to live on burnt beans and milk we could steal.

Anyway, folks, this mail-pilfering chronicler never stole milk from the United States Supreme Court.

Odd Facts

Cabs were introduced in London about 1823. The word is a contraction of cabriolet, so called because of its lightness in comparison with the cumbersome vehicles then in use.

Col. "Light Horse Harry" Lee, hero of the American Revolution, was father of Gen. Robert E. Lee, of Civil War fame.

Reds Draw Blueprint For Seizing Africa

By Earl H. Voss

Communism's drive into Africa is causing rising concern in the North Atlantic community.

NATO has just taken the unusual step of circulating among its 15 members a detailed analysis of the anatomy of Red infiltration into the Dark Continent. The intention is not that NATO should take collective action to combat the Communist drive but that individual members can move against it.

Nikita Khrushchev identified the long-range target in Africa at the 20th Congress of the Soviet Communist party in February, 1956:

"The disintegration of the imperialist colonial system, now taking place, is a postwar development of world historic significance. The complete abolition of the infamous system of colonialism has been put on the agenda as one of the most acute and pressing problems."

The blueprint for action was written for the Reds' theoretical bible, the magazine Kommunist, in June, 1957, by Prof. I. Potekhin, deputy director of the Institute of Ethnography in the Soviet Academy of Sciences. Prof. Potekhin is the high priest of the African subversion movement.

His article made four points:

1. Britain's policy of leading African territories to self-government is a move to ensure the continuity of their economic and political ties with the West.

2. Support for Soviet policies should be sought among workers and trade unions rather than among the bourgeoisie.

3. Independent African nations should be associated with the current neutralist policies of Asia.

4. Peaceful coexistence is a theme under which the Soviet bloc can establish links with the newly independent African nations.

Here is the NATO country-by-country summary on Red activities in Africa:

EGYPT — During the first 10 months of 1957 the Soviet Union was Egypt's main trading partner, China was second and Czechoslovakia third.

Colonel Nasser has allowed himself to be misled into believing that he can pursue a course of accepting Communist help without falling under Communist control.

The Afro-Asian Conference (in Cairo over the year-end) has perhaps done more than any other single event to show him the dangers into which he is running.

"It seems probable," the NATO report states, "That he has recognized the real motive behind Communist offers of friendship. It may also be that he will find more from Communist tentacles than he expected."

SUDAN — Chinese and Soviet overtures for trade and economic aid, to give the Sudan a market for its cotton, have not yet been answered by the Sudanese government. Communism is illegal in the Sudan, so Red groups operate as the Anti-Imperialist Front, an organization of intellectuals centering around Khartoum University students.

The Front's president, Abdel Khalig Mahgoub, applied in August, 1957, to form a legal Communist party but was refused permission.

Sudanese Peace Partisans held their first congress in 1957; the secretary general of the Sudanese-Soviet Friendship Society visisted Moscow last October; the 8,000-member union of Sudanese women and the 27-chapter Union of Sudanese Youth are associated with world Communist federations.

GHANA — Communist propaganda stresses that Britain did not voluntarily hand over independence but that it came about after "a long and bitter struggle."

One Red economic journal put it this way: "Colonialism still has deep roots in the economy of Ghana. The richest national resources of the country are in the hands of foreign monopolies . . . economic liberation is one of the most complicated but also the most urgent tasks for the immediate future of Ghana."

Prof. Potekhin personally visited the new Ghana state and publicly expressed the Soviet government's "extraordinary interest in Ghana in particular and Africa in general."

Soviet trade missions have expressed interview in buying Ghana's cocoa and other products. But the Communist-led International Union of Students failed to win over the Ghana student element, the NATO report says.

NIGERIA — The Reds denounce Britain "for delaying the independence of Nigeria" and Moslem rulers of northern Nigeria for "the uncooperative attitude of the feudalists." Large quantities of Communist books and phamplets are being sent to Nigeria NATO reports.

FRENCH WEST AFRICA—Africans trained by the Communist-controlled Confederation Generale du Travail are prominent in key trade union positions throughout the area, says NATO. Nearly all unions of French West Africa last year joined a single General Union of Workers of Black Africa."

FRENCH CAMEROONS — L'Union des Populations du Cameroun (UPC) is a Communist-supported movement "which engages in terrorism and intimidation," NATO says. It was outlawed in July 1955 for causing armed disturbances but still operates clandestinely.

"One of the most influential Communist leaders in Africa is Jacques n'Gom, secretary general of the Cameroons Trade Union Federation," the report says.

FRENCH EQUATORIAL AFRICA — L'Union Democratique de Defense des Interests Africains is a new political grouping in which Kikhounga n'Got plays a leading role. He is a member of the World Peace Council and the General Council of the World Federation of Trade Unions. "The fact that N'Got has ostensibly abandoned his Communist connections and is working with non-Communists may be the start of united front tactics" in the region, the NATO report speculates.

MADAGASCAR — Communists were successful in municipal elections there in 1956 and in provincial elections last year. Diego Suarez, the naval base in the north of the island, has a Communist mayor.

TUNISIA — Communists are exploiting French-Tunisian differences. The Tunisian Communist party is strongest in the mining area NATO reports and there are "flourishing links" with Communist front organizations.

MOROCCO — Communism "supports" the Nationalist Istiqlal party, which is the base for the Moroccan national administration. The Communist party calls for the withdrawal of the French army and the liquidation of the five United States Air Force bases there.

LIBYA — A Soviet offer of economic aid in 1956 was refused by the Libyan government. The NATO report refers to "Soviet aid supposed to have reached Libya last November" but says "little enough is known" about it. The Tripoli port workers' union was under Red control until June 1953 and a comeback bid is anticipated.

In all these countries the Reds press the same theme, "Communism in our time," according to the NATO report.

The Cario conference of Afro-Asian delegates was told it had no need for Western aid, "all the financial and capital resources they required were within their reach." One of the Soviet delegates, M.A.A. Arzumanyan, pointed to the means:

"You have one way to accumulate capital — by taking it from the colonial profiteers in your countries. We remember the experience of Egypt in nationalization of the Suez Canal and using the profits for Egypt."

Down Through The Years

From The Review Files

THIRTY YEARS AGO—Two hundred fifty attended the second reunion of the Myers family at Minerva Park.

F. Eppling Reinartz, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Reinartz of Jackson St., returned from Camp Strong Wolfe, near Philadelphia, where he had been a councilor.

Plans for improvement of Second Presbyterian Church property were discussed at the meeting of the congregation and church officials.

TWENTY YEARS AGO—The Hancock County school board set up a minimum wage scale to correspond with the prevailing wages for the county WPA school building program.

Mrs. Helen Ikirt DuBuois, "Miss American Legion of East Liverpool", left for Columbus to compete in the Miss American Legion of Ohio contest.

TEN YEARS AGO—Ralph LaNeve, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph LaNeve of Jefferson St., Newell, was granted a scholarship to West Virginia University for his scholastic ability.

Robert Estell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arch Estell of Center St., enlisted in the Marine Corps.

Richard Tecca of W.5th St. and Charles Race of W.4th St. enrolled as freshmen in the University of Cincinnati.

The Great Seal

The easiest way to get a good look at the Great Seal of the United States — a symbol that had its beginning July 4, 1776 — is to turn over a dollar bill.

Both faces of the seal are reproduced on the back of every one of the billion and three hundred million bills in circulation. The $1 bill, in fact, is the only place where the seal's reverse face is used officially.

The seal's main or obverse face, showing a striped shield and a powerful eagle carrying an olive branch and arrows in its talons, often appears as a design.

It is used on the buttons of soldiers' uniforms, on official stationery and publications, flags and monuments, and over the entrances of American embassies, consulates and legations throughout the world.

Like the flag, the Great Seal is a revered emblem of United States dignity and sovereignty. It is older than the Constitution.

Faubus' Troubles

By James Marlow

Some People Still Don't Believe Him

WASHINGTON

Gov. Orval E. Faubus of Arkansas still has trouble getting some people in high places to believe him. What he says one time isn't necessarily what he says the next.

In the past year he has, in effect been called a liar by FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover and James C. Hagerty, President Eisenhower's press secretary.

And the U.S. Court of Appeals in St. Louis has derided his reasons for calling out the National Guard last year in the integration controversy at Little Rock Central High School.

Latest example of Faubus' troubles in the credibility department came Sunday when he said the White House had pressured him into saying the Supreme Court's order banning segregation in the public schools was the law of the land.

Last year—after he had called out guardsmen to keep Negroes from entering Central High School—Faubus flew to Newport, R.I., to confer with Eisenhower, who was vacationing there. They issued separate statements.

Part of Faubus' statement said: "I have never expressed any personal opinion regarding the Supreme Court decision of 1954 which voted integration. That is not relevant. That decision is the law of the land."

Since then Faubus has made statements saying the Supreme Court's decision is not the law of the land and that the Supreme Court has no authority to make a law.

Sunday he appeared on the CBS TV Show Face the Nation.

Reminded of the statement he issued in Rhode Island, he was asked why he has changed his mind about the high court's decision being the law of the land. Faubus said he hadn't changed his mind; that his saying so didn't make the decision law. Then he added this:

He said he had been required by the White House to make that statement as the price of negotiating with the White House. He admitted it was unusual for a governor to let himself be pressured into something like this.

Monday Hagery was asked about this Faubus statement. Hagerty said: "I think the only thing I can have is no comment. You wouldn't print my comment that I feel like giving."

But Faubus even seems to have trouble making up his mind on whether a law passed by Congress ordering integration would be a law that had to be obeyed.

He was asked on TV: "Would you accept a declaration or a law by Congress on this (integration of public schools)?"

Faubus replied: "Well, I think if Congress passed a law, then it would be the law of the land, and there would be no means of questioning its legality."

Just a few days ago he appeared to take an exactly opposite position. On Aug. 26, appearing before the Arkansas Legislature to ask authority to prevent public school integration, he said: "There is no clear-cut federal statute regarding the integration of schools. If there were it would be unconstitutional, for the authority to control public education has never been delegated by the states to the federal government."

Last year Faubus charged that FBI agents were tapping his telephone (he offered no proof) and that they were holding teen-agers incommunicado for hours in Little Rock. Hoover said both statements were false.

Also last year—after Eisenhower sent federal troops into Little Rock to make sure Negroes got into Central High — Faubus said the solders had invaded the privacy of girls' dressing rooms.

Hagerty answered for the White House: "Completely untrue and also completely vulgar."

Faubus has always argued that when he called out guardsmen to keep Negro children out of Central High—which a federal judge had ordered integrated — that he was not defying the court, but only trying to prevent mob violence.

The U.S. 8th Circuit Court of Appeals at St. Louis lashed out at this by saying that if Negro children were kept out of school to prevent mob violence, then by the same kind of reasoning: "The banks could be closed and emptied of their cash to prevent robberies, the post office locked to prevent the mails from being robbed, and the citizens kept off the streets to prevent holdups."

A Long List Of 'Ifs'

By Sam Dawson

NEW YORK

Today starts a new year for many businesses — this time in a much more than usual sense.

Summer may linger officially for awhile, but for industry and trade it's fall. The time is at hand to learn whether recovery is for sure and whether it's to be a lusty one or a milquetoast.

Confidence has been running high. Recovery signs are plentiful But the wary cite a long list of "ifs" that could hold recovery back.

As the economy turns into the home stretch — the final months that could make or break the year for many merchants, that could bring release for many manufacturers after a year of doldrums—here's how its various segments stand:

Industrial production has had a summer lull as usual — but things weren't quite as dull as usual. The actual output of factories and mines fell from their levels in late spring. But the drop was milder than in most years.

In measuring this the Federal Reserve Board takes account of these seasonal ups and downs. So it adjusts its industrial index for expected changes. Therefore the milder than usual drop this summer is translated on the adjusted index as a rise for statistical purposes, even though the actual tonnage was less than in May and June.

Industrial output should go up in the fall and the index is adjusted to that expectation. If it rises as it should from now on the recovery trend will be confirmed. If it doesn't go up as much as usual, business uncertainty could return.

Unemployment remains high and troublesome. But the work week in many factories has been lengthening.

This together with higher wage scales for many and the increased amounts this year of government and corporate unemployment benefit payments has helped keep consumer incomes high. The consumer has spent fairly freely — but for different things than a year or two back. Many businessmen believe the consumer is now ready to go back to buying hard goods with big instalment payments.

Farm incomes are higher. Even if prices weaken a bit, crops are large and the farmer's dollar take will be high. Large sections of the nation are benefitting.

Home building has come to life again, helped earlier in the year by easier money and changes in federal mortgage regulations. Chief cloud on that horizon is doubt as to the possible effect later of the official switch to tighter credit and dearer money.

Government spending has been rising at all levels. The construction industry in particular is a benefactor.

War On Forest Fires

Foresters are using everything from bombing planes to television in an up-to-date campaign against man's ancient enemy—the forest fire.

Some 500 blazes flare up in American woodlands each day. But comparatively few get very far, thanks to new techniques and equipment, the eternal vigilance of the firefighters and increasing cooperation from the public.

In 1957 the United States had 83,391 forest fires. The annual average for the decade ended in 1950 was 182,000 fires and the burning of some 21,622,000 acres — an area larger than the state of Maine. Blazes caused $92 million worth of direct damage to timber and property each year during the decade, and they took scores of human lives.

To reduce the fire toll, the Forest Service of the Department of Agriculture has used many new devices.

Surplus World War II bombers have been converted into water bombers. They can drop about 600 gallons of water on critical points during a fire. Television cameras enable a single ranger to watch vast stretches of woodland at once. Sighting a fire from two TV cameras helps to pinpoint a blaze so that crews can reach it quickly.

The Forest Service is experimenting with infrared radiation detectors that can "see" through an overcast. In theory, such detectors, scattered through a forest, could provide instant warning of any blaze. Unfortunately, the detectors are liable to give false alarms, touched off by such innocent things as sun-heated rocks.

Parachuting firefighters to the scene of a fire has become standard operating procedure in some forests. The "smokejumpers" can reach a fire quickly and put it out before it has a chance to spread.

The world's first atomic-powered ship, the 3,000-ton submarine Nautilus, was commissioned Sept. 30, 1954 at Groton, Conn., and assigned to the Atlantic Fleet. The Nautilus made the U. S. Navy the first military service to utilize nuclear energy for propulsion power.

Dag Hammarskjold, the secretary-general of the United Nations, likes to think of himself as an economic technician. He holds a doctorate in that field. His private career was in banking and state finance.

This training and interest could be the basis for a great 20th century service in his efforts to carry out the "all-Arab" solution to the problem posed by the fermenting nationalism of the Arab world. The nationalism has been stimulated by the hope of independence from non-Arab intervention, and the hope of independence has been noruished by income from oil production.

It would be completely logical for the Arab world to seek and agree on terms for mutual advantage and satisfaction at this time. Yet, the misgivings that have been voiced about the Hammarskjold mission to carry out the resolution of cooperation submitted to the U. N. General Asembly by 10 Arab states and unanimously adopted arise from fear that cooperation may be beyond the capabilities of the Arab world, particularly at a time when it has been alarmed by Gamal Nasser's Soviet-encouraged political aspirations.

The Egyptian president, himself, must be persuaded to see things Hammarskjold's way, if cooperation is to be forthcoming. Here, again, the U.N. secretary-general's personal aptitude may be the key to success.

He has had remarkable success as a persuader and mediator. He has looked at nis role in the United Nations as that of "an instrument, a catalyst and interpreter." He thinks of himself as an international public servant, not as the spokesman for any bloc of nations. If he can persuade Nasser of his good faith and receive from Nasser, in turn, evidence of good faith, miracles could be performed.

The opportunity exists. The Arab world can realize its dream of emergence from centuries of frustration and oppression. Its oil resources have provided the wealth to raise living standards and provide security. All that has been lacking is the right catalyst to blend divergent views into a common purpose. Dag Hammarskjold, doctor of economics, may have the prescription.

Minor League Sellout

Frankly, we don't believe big league baseball knows what it's doing. Too many of its moves lately are making no sense.

It is floundering, which is what an enterprise looks like it is doing when it is grasping at straws in a slough of despondency while the wolf is at the door and all is not right with the world.

Moreover, it is showing unmistakable signs of being hidebound by its own conviction that it is the national game and does not need to tickle the fancy of its fans because they were born with a built-in love of baseball. This is one of the reasons it is floundering.

Big league football may flounder sometime, too, though so far it is continuing to do all right. That is, it is continuing to draw crowds to see its professionals perform.

Moreover, it is drawing crowds to see its minor league teams play; i.e., the organizations that supply the big league professional talent.

Item: A few more tickets to go and Ohio State University will have the first completely sold out football schedule in its history. After they're gone, the ticket window will close for the season and attendance at all Ohio State home games automatically will be 82,000 and a few odd hundred, the capacity of Ohio Stadium.

It's Cricket

A recent defeat of the British by Americans in a cricket match is, of course, comparable to a pickup team of Britons beating an American nine on a baseball diamond.

Although the odds are tremendously against such a blow to Uncle Sam's pride, such a national disaster is not inconceivable.

It would be prudent under the circumstances for Americans to control their cricket-gloating and be good winners.

Let's not be hard on our cousins. Give them a break, eh fellows. Cricket, you know.

Atonement

Paradoxically, it is the atheistic, royalty-hating Russian Communists who dominate the one activity dealing with symbolic kings, queens and bishops.

This activity is chess.

There may be some question about whether the United States or Russia is ahead in the space race and the cold war, but in world chess competition the Russians have been tops for years. One reason is that the Russian government makes wards of its best chess players, freeing them from the necessity of earning a living.

But this year the United States came up with a chess sensation of its own—15-year-old Bobby Fischer of Brooklyn, N.Y., who won the U.S. championship.

Young Bobby and James Sherwin, U. S. international master, have been busy with international tournaments, matching their chess knowledge against the Russians and others.

Their fellow Americans wish Bobby and Sherwin well in this cold war of wits. Who knows, in years to come, Bobby might yet wrest the world chess championship for our country and atone for Sputnik.

Rev. Gillette

It was with regret that we learned the Rev. Frederick T. Gillette will leave St. Stephen's Evangelical Church for a new position in North Dakota.

Rev. Gillette, who came here 12 years ago, time and again demonstrated his capabilities both as a minister and as one interested in the development of the community in which he served.

He will leave behind a record which many others would do well to duplicate.

The human body loses enough heat in one hour to raise a half-gallon of water to its boiling point.

Navy Beans vs. Borscht

By Frank Tripp

If I go to jail for writing this, send me a postcard. I stole it from a personal letter written to another fellow. Both are nawspaper big shots.

The brass who wrote it is editor-in-chief of the Scripps-Howard Newspapers. He wrote from Russia. A reader snapped him up for sitting pretty in a fat job and comparing the miserable plight of the average Russian with American luxury.

Let him live for once on bread, potato soup and cabbage, and never eat a steak again, advised the caustic critic.

The challenged writer ignored the advice, except to reveal his background of experience sans porterhouse in the private letter that I stole.

THE SCENE is Washington pre mink, vicuna or Goldfine. Back when Cal Coolidge didn't choose to do anything — even run. A typically American yarn about four Oklahomans crashing Washington.

Anent diets of Russian borscht and cabbage versus navy beans and home brew, Walker "Red" Stone wrote his pal:

Did I ever tell you about the time I lived on burnt beans for a week? It was in 1927. Simm and I had just come to Washington. We shared an apartment with a couple of Okies also enrolled in Geo. Washington University

None of us had a job. One day we counted up our assets. The total was $5.25. We figured the two things we needed to sustain us were home brew, rich in vitamins, and some navy beans, rich in protein.

Five dollars was enough to buy a crock and malt and hops and bottles and a capper, to put us in the home brewing operation. Twenty-five cents was enough to buy a big sack of navy beans which we could cook up in a big pot.

BEARD WILSON took the five bucks and went out to get the brewing equipment and ingredients Beard was an art student. On his way to the store he passed an antique shop which had an oil painting in the window.

He liked it and found he could buy it for five dollars, which he did, and brought it back to the apartment.

I took the two bits and bought a big sack of navy beans, came back and put them on the stove in a big pot filled with water. I took a nap. The water boiled away, and the beans burned.

Have you ever eaten nothing but burnt beans for a week? Our only supplement was milk, which we would steal at dawn off the doorsteps in the 1900 block of I Street, including the stoop of Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes, who was at least in his 70s and didn't need the milk as much as we did.

For a week we lived on those burnt beans and that milk and the aesthetic life of Beard's $5 painting.

In time some of us found work, and could buy some meat to put in our soup.

It was not even an unpleasant experience. Mr. Coolidge was not running any relief stations, and if he had been I don't think we would have applied. It was easier to live on burnt beans and milk we could steal.

Anyway, folks, this mail-pilfering chronicler never stole milk from the United States Supreme Court.

Odd Facts

Cabs were introduced in London about 1823. The word is a contraction of cabriolet, so called because of its lightness in comparison with the cumbersome vehicles then in use.

Col. "Light Horse Harry" Lee, hero of the American Revolution, was father of Gen. Robert E. Lee, of Civil War fame.

Reds Draw Blueprint For Seizing Africa

By Earl H. Voss

Communism's drive into Africa is causing rising concern in the North Atlantic community.

NATO has just taken the unusual step of circulating among its 15 members a detailed analysis of the anatomy of Red infiltration into the Dark Continent. The intention is not that NATO should take collective action to combat the Communist drive but that individual members can move against it.

Nikita Khrushchev identified the long-range target in Africa at the 20th Congress of the Soviet Communist party in February, 1956:

"The disintegration of the imperialist colonial system, now taking place, is a postwar development of world historic significance. The complete abolition of the infamous system of colonialism has been put on the agenda as one of the most acute and pressing problems."

The blueprint for action was written for the Reds' theoretical bible, the magazine Kommunist, in June, 1957, by Prof. I. Potekhin, deputy director of the Institute of Ethnography in the Soviet Academy of Sciences. Prof. Potekhin is the high priest of the African subversion movement.

His article made four points:

1. Britain's policy of leading African territories to self-government is a move to ensure the continuity of their economic and political ties with the West.
2. Support for Soviet policies should be sought among workers and trade unions rather than among the bourgeoisie.
3. Independent African nations should be associated with the current neutralist policies of Asia.
4. Peaceful coexistence is a theme under which the Soviet bloc can establish links with the newly independent African nations.

Here is the NATO country-by-country summary on Red activities in Africa:

EGYPT — During the first 10 months of 1957 the Soviet Union was Egypt's main trading partner, China was second and Czechoslovakia third.

Colonel Nasser has allowed himself to be misled into believing that he can pursue a course of accepting Communist help without falling under Communist control.

The Afro-Asian Conference (in Cairo over the year-end) has perhaps done more than any other single event to show him the dangers into which he is running.

"It seems probable," the NATO report states, "That he has recognized the real motive behind Communist offers of friendship. It may also be that he will find more from Communist tentacles than he expected."

SUDAN — Chinese and Soviet overtures for trade and economic aid, to give the Sudan a market for its cotton, have not yet been answered by the Sudanese government. Communism is illegal in the Sudan, so Red groups operate as the Anti-Imperialist Front, an organization of intellectuals centering around Khartoum University students.

The Front's president, Abdel Khalig Mahgoub, applied in August, 1957, to form a legal Communist party but was refused permission.

Sudanese Peace Partisans held their first congress in 1957; the secretary general of the Sudanese-Soviet Friendship Society visisted Moscow last October; the 8,000-member union of Sudanese women and the 27-chapter Union of Sudanese Youth are associated with world Communist federations.

GHANA — Communist propaganda stresses that Britain did not voluntarily hand over independence but that it came about after "a long and bitter struggle."

One Red economic journal put it this way: "Colonialism still has deep roots in the economy of Ghana. The richest national resources of the country are in the hands of foreign monopolies . . . economic liberation is one of the most complicated but also the most urgent tasks for the immediate future of Ghana."

Prof. Potekhin personally visited the new Ghana state and publicly expressed the Soviet government's "extraordinary interest in Ghana in particular and Africa in general."

Soviet trade missions have expressed interview in buying Ghana's cocoa and other products. But the Communist-led International Union of Students failed to win over the Ghana student element, the NATO report says.

NIGERIA — The Reds denounce Britain "for delaying the independence of Nigeria" and Moslem rulers of northern Nigeria for "the uncooperative attitude of the feudalists." Large quantities of Communist books and phamplets are being sent to Nigeria NATO reports.

FRENCH WEST AFRICA—Africans trained by the Communist-controlled Confederation Generale du Travail are prominent in key trade union positions throughout the area, says NATO. Nearly all unions of French West Africa last year joined a single General Union of Workers of Black Africa."

FRENCH CAMEROONS — L'Union des Populations du Cameroun (UPC) is a Communist-supported movement "which engages in terrorism and intimidation," NATO says. It was outlawed in July 1955 for causing armed disturbances but still operates clandestinely.

"One of the most influential Communist leaders in Africa is Jacques n'Gom, secretary general of the Cameroons Trade Union Federation," the report says.

FRENCH EQUATORIAL AFRICA — L'Union Democratique de Defense des Interests Africains is a new political grouping in which Kikhounga n'Got plays a leading role. He is a member of the World Peace Council and the General Council of the World Federation of Trade Unions. "The fact that N'Got has ostensibly abandoned his Communist connections and is working with non-Communists may be the start of united front tactics" in the region, the NATO report speculates.

MADAGASCAR — Communists were successful in municipal elections there in 1956 and in provincial elections last year. Diego Suarez, the naval base in the north of the island, has a Communist mayor.

TUNISIA — Communists are exploiting French-Tunisian differences. The Tunisian Communist party is strongest in the mining area NATO reports and there are "flourishing links" with Communist front organizations.

MOROCCO — Communism "supports" the Nationalist Istiqlal party, which is the base for the Moroccan national administration. The Communist party calls for the withdrawal of the French army and the liquidation of the five United States Air Force bases there.

LIBYA — A Soviet offer of economic aid in 1956 was refused by the Libyan government. The NATO report refers to "Soviet aid supposed to have reached Libya last November" but says "little enough is known" about it. The Tripoli port workers' union was under Red control until June 1953 and a comeback bid is anticipated.

In all these countries the Reds press the same theme, "Communism in our time," according to the NATO report.

The Cario conference of Afro-Asian delegates was told it had no need for Western aid, "all the financial and capital resources they required were within their reach." One of the Soviet delegates, M.A.A. Arzumanyan, pointed to the means:

"You have one way to accumulate capital — by taking it from the colonial profiteers in your countries. We remember the experience of Egypt in nationalization of the Suez Canal and using the profits for Egypt."

Down Through The Years

From The Review Files

THIRTY YEARS AGO—Two hundred fifty attended the second reunion of the Myers family at Minerva Park.

F. Eppling Reinartz, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Reinartz of Jackson St., returned from Camp Strong Wolfe, near Philadelphia, where he had been a councilor.

Plans for improvement of Second Presbyterian Church property were discussed at the meeting of the congregation and church officials.

TWENTY YEARS AGO—The Hancock County school board set up a minimum wage scale to correspond with the prevailing wages for the county WPA school building program.

Mrs. Helen Ikirt DuBuois, "Miss American Legion of East Liverpool", left for Columbus to compete in the Miss American Legion of Ohio contest.

TEN YEARS AGO—Ralph LaNeve, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph LaNeve of Jefferson St., Newell, was granted a scholarship to West Virginia University for his scholastic ability.

Robert Estell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arch Estell of Center St., enlisted in the Marine Corps.

Richard Tecca of W.5th St. and Charles Race of W.4th St. enrolled as freshmen in the University of Cincinnati.

The Great Seal

The easiest way to get a good look at the Great Seal of the United States — a symbol that had its beginning July 4, 1776 — is to turn over a dollar bill.

Both faces of the seal are reproduced on the back of every one of the billion and three hundred million bills in circulation. The $1 bill, in fact, is the only place where the seal's reverse face is used officially.

The seal's main or obverse face, showing a striped shield and a powerful eagle carrying an olive branch and arrows in its talons, often appears as a design.

It is used on the buttons of soldiers' uniforms, on official stationery and publications, flags and monuments, and over the entrances of American embassies, consulates and legations throughout the world.

Like the flag, the Great Seal is a revered emblem of United States dignity and sovereignty. It is older than the Constitution.

Faubus' Troubles

By James Marlow

Some People Still Don't Believe Him

WASHINGTON

Gov. Orval E. Faubus of Arkansas still has trouble getting some people in high places to believe him. What he says one time isn't necessarily what he says the next.

In the past year he has, in effect been called a liar by FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover and James C. Hagerty, President Eisenhower's press secretary.

And the U.S. Court of Appeals in St. Louis has derided his reasons for calling out the National Guard last year in the integration controversy at Little Rock Central High School.

Latest example of Faubus' troubles in the credibility department came Sunday when he said the White House had pressured him into saying the Supreme Court's order banning segregation in the public schools was the law of the land.

Last year—after he had called out guardsmen to keep Negroes from entering Central High School—Faubus flew to Newport, R.I., to confer with Eisenhower, who was vacationing there. They issued separate statements.

Part of Faubus' statement said: "I have never expressed any personal opinion regarding the Supreme Court decision of 1954 which voted integration. That is not relevant. That decision is the law of the land."

Since then Faubus has made statements saying the Supreme Court's decision is not the law of the land and that the Supreme Court has no authority to make a law.

Sunday he appeared on the CBS TV Show Face the Nation.

Reminded of the statement he issued in Rhode Island, he was asked why he has changed his mind about the high court's decision being the law of the land. Faubus said he hadn't changed his mind; that his saying so didn't make the decision law. Then he added this:

He said he had been required by the White House to make that statement as the price of negotiating with the White House. He admitted it was unusual for a governor to let himself be pressured into something like this.

Monday Hagery was asked about this Faubus statement. Hagerty said: "I think the only thing I can have is no comment. You wouldn't print my comment that I feel like giving."

But Faubus even seems to have trouble making up his mind on whether a law passed by Congress ordering integration would be a law that had to be obeyed.

He was asked on TV: "Would you accept a declaration or a law by Congress on this (integration of public schools)?"

Faubus replied: "Well, I think if Congress passed a law, then it would be the law of the land, and there would be no means of questioning its legality."

Just a few days ago he appeared to take an exactly opposite position. On Aug. 26, appearing before the Arkansas Legislature to ask authority to prevent public school integration, he said: "There is no clear-cut federal statute regarding the integration of schools. If there were it would be unconstitutional, for the authority to control public education has never been delegated by the states to the federal government."

Last year Faubus charged that FBI agents were tapping his telephone (he offered no proof) and that they were holding teen-agers incommunicado for hours in Little Rock. Hoover said both statements were false.

Also last year—after Eisenhower sent federal troops into Little Rock to make sure Negroes got into Central High — Faubus said the solders had invaded the privacy of girls' dressing rooms.

Hagerty answered for the White House: "Completely untrue and also completely vulgar."

Faubus has always argued that when he called out guardsmen to keep Negro children out of Central High—which a federal judge had ordered integrated — that he was not defying the court, but only trying to prevent mob violence.

The U.S. 8th Circuit Court of Appeals at St. Louis lashed out at this by saying that if Negro children were kept out of school to prevent mob violence, then by the same kind of reasoning: "The banks could be closed and emptied of their cash to prevent robberies, the post office locked to prevent the mails from being robbed, and the citizens kept off the streets to prevent holdups."

A Long List Of 'Ifs'

By Sam Dawson

NEW YORK

Today starts a new year for many businesses — this time in a much more than usual sense.

Summer may linger officially for awhile, but for industry and trade it's fall. The time is at hand to learn whether recovery is for sure and whether it's to be a lusty one or a milquetoast.

Confidence has been running high. Recovery signs are plentiful But the wary cite a long list of "ifs" that could hold recovery back.

As the economy turns into the home stretch — the final months that could make or break the year for many merchants, that could bring release for many manufacturers after a year of doldrums—here's how its various segments stand:

Industrial production has had a summer lull as usual — but things weren't quite as dull as usual. The actual output of factories and mines fell from their levels in late spring. But the drop was milder than in most years.

In measuring this the Federal Reserve Board takes account of these seasonal ups and downs. So it adjusts its industrial index for expected changes. Therefore the milder than usual drop this summer is translated on the adjusted index as a rise for statistical purposes, even though the actual tonnage was less than in May and June.

Industrial output should go up in the fall and the index is adjusted to that expectation. If it rises as it should from now on the recovery trend will be confirmed. If it doesn't go up as much as usual, business uncertainty could return.

Unemployment remains high and troublesome. But the work week in many factories has been lengthening.

This together with higher wage scales for many and the increased amounts this year of government and corporate unemployment benefit payments has helped keep consumer incomes high. The consumer has spent fairly freely — but for different things than a year or two back. Many businessmen believe the consumer is now ready to go back to buying hard goods with big instalment payments.

Farm incomes are higher. Even if prices weaken a bit, crops are large and the farmer's dollar take will be high. Large sections of the nation are benefitting.

Home building has come to life again, helped earlier in the year by easier money and changes in federal mortgage regulations. Chief cloud on that horizon is doubt as to the possible effect later of the official switch to tighter credit and dearer money.

Government spending has been rising at all levels. The construction industry in particular is a benefactor.

War On Forest Fires

Foresters are using everything from bombing planes to television in an up-to-date campaign against man's ancient enemy—the forest fire.

Some 500 blazes flare up in American woodlands each day. But comparatively few get very far, thanks to new techniques and equipment, the eternal vigilance of the firefighters and increasing cooperation from the public.

In 1957 the United States had 83,391 forest fires. The annual average for the decade ended in 1950 was 182,000 fires and the burning of some 21,622,000 acres — an area larger than the state of Maine. Blazes caused $92 million worth of direct damage to timber and property each year during the decade, and they took scores of human lives.

To reduce the fire toll, the Forest Service of the Department of Agriculture has used many new devices.

Surplus World War II bombers have been converted into water bombers. They can drop about 600 gallons of water on critical points during a fire. Television cameras enable a single ranger to watch vast stretches of woodland at once. Sighting a fire from two TV cameras helps to pinpoint a blaze so that crews can reach it quickly.

The Forest Service is experimenting with infrared radiation detectors that can "see" through an overcast. In theory, such detectors, scattered through a forest, could provide instant warning of any blaze. Unfortunately, the detectors are liable to give false alarms, touched off by such innocent things as sun-heated rocks.

Parachuting firefighters to the scene of a fire has become standard operating procedure in some forests. The "smokejumpers" can reach a fire quickly and put it out before it has a chance to spread.

The world's first atomic-powered ship, the 3,000-ton submarine Nautilus, was commissioned Sept. 30, 1954 at Groton, Conn., and assigned to the Atlantic Fleet. The Nautilus made the U. S. Navy the first military service to utilize nuclear energy for propulsion power.

Vocal, Organ Program Set For Graduation Of Nurses

Mrs. R. E. Metcalfe will be guest soloist and Mrs. Donald W. Ogilvie organist at the 47th commencement exercises of the City Hospital Nurses' Training School Friday night at 8:15 in the First United Presbyterian Church.

Opening organ prelude selections will be "Prayer" (Schubert), "Cavatina" (Raff) and "Meditation" (Massenet).

The "Grand March" (Verdi) will be used for the processional, followed with the invocation by Dr. A. K. Davison, pastor of the host church.

"Hear Thou My Prayer" — 86th Psalm (Hamblem) will be the vocal number by Mrs. Metcalfe prior to the introduction of the guest speaker, Dr. W. J. Smart, and she will sing "The Twenty-Third Psalm" (Dvorak) and "Grant Me Dear Lord Deep Peace of Mind" (Stickles) following the address.

Everson Hall, a member of the Board of Trustees of the City Hospital Association and vice president of the Hall China Co. will introduce Dr. Smart, interim minister from England serving the Irondale and Hammondsville Methodist Churches.

The presentation of awards and diplomas will be made by Mrs. Francis H. Lang, chairman of the nursing school committee.

Awards will be made for scholastic standings in addition to recognition of graduates for outstanding work in all-around nursing, surgical and dietetics. They include the Albert I. McLain and the Lions Club awards and one from the Private Duty Section of the East Liverpool Nurses Alumnae Association as well as several anonymous citations.

After the presentations, graduates will repeat the Nightingale pledge and sing "I'll Walk With God."

Dr. Davison will give the benediction followed with "Triumphal March" (Grieg) for the recessional and "Extrase" (Ganne) for the postlude.

Hospital staff nurses, Mrs. Senja Vaughn, Mrs. Helen Conway, Mrs. Betty Allison, Mrs. Sally Crawford, Mrs. JoAnn Lisk, Miss Elanor Wilson and Miss Sue Kountz, will usher.

The reception in the church social rooms will be under the direction of the Women's Auxiliary of the City Hospital Association with Mrs. W. E. Dunlap chairman.

Ex-Newell Woman, Daughter To Be On TV

A former Newell resident and her daughter expect to be seen on TV shortly by way of a film made of a recent California program headed by Liberace.

Mrs. Howard Wurzel and daughter, Gloria, of Glendale, Calif., were among 150 women filmed in the program at the Cocoanut Grove of the Ambassador Hotel in Hollywood where the daughter and two other young women were guests of Freddy Martin, whose orchestra plays at the night club. The kinescope will be televised shortly over the ABC network out of New York.

Miss Wurzel was graduated from Wells High School last June. Mr. and Mrs. Wurzel and daughter, reside at 1440 E. Chevy Chase Dr., Glendale.

Palestine Netter Wins County Championship

Robert Trombold of East Palestine defeated Joel Sharp Jr. of Salem Monday at the Salem Country Club to win the Columbiana County tennis championship, 6-3, 6-4.

Gordon Scott and Don Hammell of Salem won the county doubles title by beating Trombold and Charles Reesh of East Palestine 7-5, 6-8, 8-6.

Trombold of 442 East St. will defend his East Palestine city title against Reesh of Garfield St. tonight at East Palestine City Park.

Trombold is an executive in the sales department of the Adamson Manufacturing Co.

Thief Fouls Up Legion Affair, Steals Trophy

CHICAGO (AP)—A thief fouled up ceremonies for the American Legion's annual presentation of an Americanism award at a Loop hotel Monday. He stole the trophy.

The trophy, an impressive four-foot gold plated figure astride a loving cup which in turn stood atop a 40-pound marble base, was to have been presented to the legion's Department of Pennsylvania.

But when C. A. Tesch, national Americanism Commission director, prepared to present the trophy, it was missing. The gold-plated part of the trophy was valued at about $350, Tesch said.

"Some louse swiped the trophy, screwed it right off the marble base and walked out of the hotel with it," he said. He said a similar trophy would be given the Pennsylvania department later.

GOP Women Discuss Hancock Voting Drive

Plans for a "Neighbor-to-Neighbor" drive in Hancock County by the Hancock County Republican Women's Club were outlined at a meeting Friday night at Weirton.

The house-to-house drive will be made late this month or early in October with Mrs. Walter Hindman, club secretary, as director of the campaign, part of a statewide project.

Mrs. Howard Smith of Newell was named publicity chairman for Grant and Clay Districts, and Mrs. Raymond Jones of Weirton was named publicity chairman for Butler District.

About 20 attended the session with Mrs. A. W. McConnell of Weirton, president, in charge. The next meeting will be held later this month.

Newark High To Offer Course In Russian

NEWARK, Ohio (AP) — When juniors and seniors at Newark High School return to classes Wednesday, they will have an opportunity shared by few Ohio students. They will be offered a course in Russian.

The course will be taught by Frank Spencer Jr., son of the publisher of the Newark Advocate. He is a former U.S. Army interpreter in Berlin and majored in the language at Columbia University.

Superintendent Thomas B. Southard said he believes the only other high school Russian course in Ohio is offered at Hamilton High School. The Newark course is described as intended to lay the basis for further college training.

East Fairfield

Mrs. Glenn Grimm and Mrs. Ala Coppock will be program chairmen for the meeting of the Friendly Circle of the WSCS of the Methodist Church Wednesday night at 8 at the home of Mrs. William Drasdo.

Camp Events Held By Troop

17 Girl Scouts Spend Night At Dixonville

Training for outdoor camper and adventure badges featured the overnight session Friday anl Saturday of Girl Scout Intermediate Troop 60 of the Boyce Methodist Church. Some 17 attended the event at the Bryan Recreation Center at Dixonville.

Erecting and dismantling of tents was demonstrated by Rosa Hughey and Gerry Buchanan of Senior Troop 55, who are participating in outdoor training for the 1959 Senior Roundup. They also taught other camp craft.

Fire building was handled by Patrol 2, table setting, Patrol 1, and meal planning Patrols 3 and 4. One girl from each patrol served on "K.P." and all patrols joined in cooking preparation. "Hark to the Chimes" was the singing grace at meals.

Elaine Vohar, who has graduated from the Intermediate troop to Senior Troop 55, was a guest.

Devotions included favorite Scripture verses of the girls and all repeated the Lord's Prayer.

Adult supervisors were Mrs. Mary Hughey, leader; Mrs Florence Buchanan and Mrs. Wanda Birch of the troop committee, and Miss Jean Kraft. Co-leaders of the troop are Mrs. Helen Krepps and Mrs. Thelma Surgeon.

Regular meetings are Thursday nights from 6 until 7:30 at Boyce Auditorium. Registration and insurance fees will be collected at the meeting Thursday night.

Clinton Begins Third Year Of Integration

CLINTON, Tenn. (AP)—Clinton High School begins its third year of racially mixed classes today with 10 Negroes, all girls, enrolled among about 800 whites.

Four of the Negroes were in the school last year and six freshmen registered last week.

Two years ago Clinton High first admitted Negro students under federal court orders amid violent demonstrations that brought National Guardsmen to restore order.

Educator Claimed

Airman Dies In Car Crash

Salineville Man, 31, Is Killed In Florida

SALINEVILLE — Airman 1C Francis Dean Grahek, stationed at McCoy Air Force Base, Orlando, Fla., was killed in an auto accident at Haines City, Fla., Friday at 6:25 p. m. He was 31.

Born May 2, 1927, in Carroll County, he was a veteran of the Korean War.

Prior to entering the service he was a brakeman for the Pennsylvania Railroad. He was a member of the nearby Riley's Methodist Church and the VFW and American Legion Posts of Salineville.

Besides his parents, Adolph and Wanda Grahek, of Salineville, he leaves two brothers, Joseph G. Grahek of Alliance, and DeVon G. Grahek of Salineville.

Services will be held Thursday at 2 p. m. at the Kerr Funeral Home by the Rev. William Buell of the Salineville Methodist Church. Burial will be in Woodland Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home tonight and Wednesday afternoon and night.

Toronto Child, 9, Dies After Playground Fall

TORONTO — Funeral services will be held Thursday for Thomas Hughes, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hughes, who died Monday at 12:52 a. m. in the Ohio Valley General Hospital at Wheeling of injuries sustained in a fall Tuesday at 7 p. m. at the S. C. Dennis School playground.

He was born here Aug. 28, 1949, and was a member of St. Francis Catholic Church, Cub Scout pack of Boy Scout Troop 46 and was a pupil in the fourth grade at St. Francis Parochial School.

He is also survived by a sister at home and his maternal and paternal grandparents.

Rosary will be recited at the Turel Funeral Home Wednesday at 1 p. m. and the Mass of the Angels will be sung Thursday at 10 a. m. at the church with Fr. Angelo Cappelli as celebrant. Burial will be in Island Creek Cemetery.

A NEW PAIR OF LEGS...

It takes more than new wooden legs to make a small boy like Lee Jae Ku face life with courage. He was brought to a Korean Amputee center by a nurse who found him crawling on hands and knees searching for food, in the market. His shirt and trousers were tattered and caked with mud. His emaciated legs were retracted and could not be straightened. This was a boy who once had a home and was loved by parents now dead.

He's a promising child and deserves a happier life. The OVERSEAS AID Programs of America's religious faiths are trying to help unfortunate people like him. Please support your faith's Aid Program.

Ella Whistles Into Central Part Of Cuba

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Hurricane Ella whistled up the center of Cuba today, about 350 miles south southeast of Miami. Winds of 60 miles an hour were forecast for the Florida Straits.

Flash flooding was expected in central and western Cuba as Ella extended its gale force winds outward 150 miles to the north and 50 miles to the south.

Gale warnings were in effect from Palm Beach, and Fort Myers, Fla. southward to the Florida Keys and Florida Straits.

Reports from Cuba indicated Ella broke up some while passing through the mountainous sections of eastern Cuba.

This is the region where rebel Fidel Castro and his men have been fighting the Cuban government.

The hurricane, the season's third, was moving toward the west-northeast at 16 m.p.h.

The hurricane was about 50 miles west of Camaguey, Cuba, and 300 miles southeast of Key West.

On Sept. 21, 1944, the Navy launched a heavy carrier air raid against Japanese shipping and airfields on the Island of Luzon in the Philippine Islands.

Train Misses Auto Skidding On Crossing

EAST PALESTINE — A 24-year-old city woman narrowly missed death this morning when her car skidded through a railroad crossing gate on N. Market St. and across the tracks in front of a fast moving through passenger train which roared past without hitting the auto.

Mrs. Elizabeth P. Davis, 53 Oak St. was headed south on N. Market St. about 4:15 a. m. when her car crashed through the wooden crossing gate and across the path of the westbound Pennsylvania Railroad Co. train.

The car continued onto the east tracks and struck but did not vis said the car heater was on and she did not see the crossing signals or watchman nor hear the crossing bell or train whistle.

She was charged with failure to have her car under control, and is due for a hearing tonight before Mayor Paul Merwin.

You owe it to your future to compare heating benefits and costs BEFORE you buy, build, or remodel!

THOUSANDS of your Ohio neighbors
HEAT their homes, old and new
ELECTRICALLY

Home heating of the future is here TODAY!

Compare these worth-more features:

CLEAN—Electric heat is pure heat energy with all the flame removed—sunshine clean. There's no soot, fumes or film to soil walls, draperies or furniture. Clean electric heat saves cleaning time—saves cleaning expense.

LOW COST—Electric heat is competitively priced when you consider all benefits and the BIG SAVINGS in cleaning and maintenance expense. Operating costs are reasonable, only a little more than the cost of ordinary home heating—repaid many times over in economy, comfort, satisfaction.

MODERN—Electric heat is the way to heat today...and tomorrow!...an asset to your property that won't go out of date. Electric heat will keep your home new and modern for decades.

TRULY AUTOMATIC—Electric heat systems have individual thermostats in each room—give a selection of heating comfort never before available—keep extra warmth in nursery or sick room without overheating other rooms.

SAFE—Electric heat is flameless—safe as electric light—assures complete safety for the home and family.

HEALTHFUL—Electric heat gives you exact, even temperature in each room. There are no hot blasts, no chilly drafts, no cold floors, no unhealthy overheating. Electric heat—like sunshine—is the most healthful, most uniform heating obtainable.

THREE BASIC TYPES—One type becomes a part of the baseboard, another recesses into the wall. Cable type is installed under the plaster of a new home. Baseboard and wall units are easily installed to replace your present heating system.

When an invading germ or virus attacks your body a war begins. If your body senses that it is losing, it asks for help. You may become unusually tired, have persistent pains or other troublesome symptoms.

Any delay can make the battle hard to win. Home remedies, that only treat symptoms, may mask the real cause and permit the illness to gain a strong hold. The best way to win your war against sickness is to go to your physician at the first sign of trouble. Let him diagnose the cause and prescribe the proper treatment.

Ella Whistles Into Central Part Of Cuba

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Hurricane Ella whistled up the center of Cuba today, about 350 miles south southeast of Miami. Winds of 60 miles an hour were forecast for the Florida Straits.

Flash flooding was expected in central and western Cuba as Ella extended its gale force winds outward 150 miles to the north and 50 miles to the south.

Gale warnings were in effect from Palm Beach, and Fort Myers, Fla. southward to the Florida Keys and Florida Straits.

Reports from Cuba indicated Ella broke up some while passing through the mountainous sections of eastern Cuba.

This is the region where rebel Fidel Castro and his men have been fighting the Cuban government.

The hurricane, the season's third, was moving toward the west-northeast at 16 m.p.h.

The hurricane was about 50 miles west of Camaguey, Cuba, and 300 miles southeast of Key West.

On Sept. 21, 1944, the Navy launched a heavy carrier air raid against Japanese shipping and airfields on the Island of Luzon in the Philippine Islands.

Train Misses Auto Skidding On Crossing

EAST PALESTINE — A 24-year-old city woman narrowly missed death this morning when her car skidded through a railroad crossing gate on N. Market St. and across the tracks in front of a fast moving through passenger train which roared past without hitting the auto.

Mrs. Elizabeth P. Davis, 53 Oak St. was headed south on N. Market St. about 4:15 a. m. when her break the southside gate. Mrs. Davis said the car heater was on car crashed through the wooden crossing gate and across the path of the westbound Pennsylvania Railroad Co. train.

The car continued onto the east tracks and struck but did not and she did not see the crossing signals or watchman nor hear the crossing bell or train whistle.

She was charged with failure to have her car under control, and is due for a hearing tonight before Mayor Paul Merwin.

You owe it to your future to compare heating benefits and costs BEFORE you buy, build, or remodel!

THOUSANDS of your Ohio neighbors
HEAT their homes, old and new
ELECTRICALLY

Home heating of the future is here TODAY!

Compare these worth-more features:

CLEAN—Electric heat is pure heat energy with all the flame removed—sunshine clean. There's no soot, fumes or film to soil walls, draperies or furniture. Clean electric heat saves cleaning time—saves cleaning expense.

LOW COST—Electric heat is competitively priced when you consider all benefits and the BIG SAVINGS in cleaning and maintenance expense. Operating costs are reasonable, only a little more than the cost of ordinary home heating—repaid many times over in economy, comfort, satisfaction.

MODERN—Electric heat is the way to heat today...and tomorrow!...an asset to your property that won't go out of date. Electric heat will keep your home new and modern for decades.

TRULY AUTOMATIC—Electric heat systems have individual thermostats in each room—give a selection of heating comfort never before available—keep extra warmth in nursery or sick room without overheating other rooms.

SAFE—Electric heat is flameless—safe as electric light—assures complete safety for the home and family.

HEALTHFUL—Electric heat gives you exact, even temperature in each room. There are no hot blasts, no chilly drafts, no cold floors, no unhealthy overheating. Electric heat—like sunshine—is the most healthful, most uniform heating obtainable.

THREE BASIC TYPES—One type becomes a part of the baseboard, another recesses into the wall. Cable type is installed under the plaster of a new home. Baseboard and wall units are easily installed to replace your present heating system.

Success Seen In War On Sleeping Sickness

TOKYO (AP) — An American Army disease expert today predicted the war against sleeping sickness now raging in Korean and affecting Japan and Formosa would soon be successful.

Nearly 4,000 cases of the disease—encephalitis—have been reported with 950 deaths. Nine Americans have been stricken, one fatally.

"We should have the mosquito carrier of encephalitis curbed within the next two weeks," said Col. Arthur H. Lahlum of Columbia, Tenn.

Sisters At Chester Become Brides In Double Ceremony

Misses Esther and Margaret Cline, daughters of Lawrence Cline of California Ave., Chester, and the late Mrs. Cline, became brides in a double ceremony Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the First Christian Church at Chester.

Esther was wed to Harold Smallwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Smallwood of Bunker Hill, W. Va., and Margaret exchanged vows with Clifford Comm, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Comm of Virginia Ave., Chester.

The Rev. A. F. Hanes performed the ceremony before an altar decorated with ferns and bouquets of white roses.

Mrs. Harry Shaw, church organist played "This Is My Beloved" and "Wedding Prayer" and other traditional music. She gave a 15-minute recital before the service.

Esther, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a pale blue lace gown over net and taffeta, styled with a fitted bodice and full skirt with nylon pleated inserts in front, long sleeves and round neckline. She wore a fingertip veil and carried a bridal bouquet of white roses.

Margaret was escorted to the altar by her eldest brother, Lawrence Cline, of Cleveland and wore a white gown fashioned with a full skirt of net over satin with a front lace panel and fitted bodice of lace over satin and long lace sleeves. The high lace neckline was styled with a small collar. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a pearl crown tiara. She carried a bridal arrangement identical to her sister's bouquet.

For traveling, Esther was attired in a brown dress with white accessories and Margaret wore a summer suit with white accessories.

Miss Loretta Duffy was maid of honor for Esther and wore a coral waltz-length dress of rayon-cotton with matching accessories.

Miss Judith Linger was maid of honor for Margaret and was attired in a blue taffeta waltz-length dress trimmed in a darker shade of blue velvet.

Both attendants carried bouquets of carnations.

Ronald Gibbs was best man for Smallwood and Harry Comm served as best man for his brother, Clifford. Ushers were Kenneth Ibbs, brother-in-law of the brides, and Dave Shaw.

A reception followed in the church basement and hostesses were the brides' sisters, Miss Juanita Cline and Mrs. Rosemary Ibbs. Two three-tier cakes centered the bridal table.

Both couples will return to their apartments in Morgantown in time to register for fall classes at West Virginia University.

The sisters will be juniors while Comm will be a senior in the School of Pharmacy and Smallwood a sophomore in the school of electrical engineering.

Friday night, a rehearsal party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Comm. Twenty-two attended.

The color scheme was pink and white and the tables for the buffet lunch were centered with pink rosebuds and pink tapers.

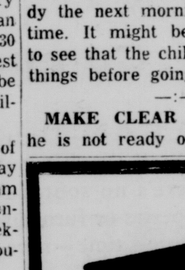
Aides were Mrs. Kenneth Ibbs and Misses Juanita Cline, Loretta Duffy and Judy Linger.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Training Slowpoke To Get To School Early

In thousands and thousands of homes, the same tragic scenes are repeated on school mornings in getting the children off on time.



By Garry Meyers

It's usually worse when the child takes a bus or rides with his father on his way to work. Usually the child discovers that, if he misses the bus, one of his parents will drive him to school or that Dad will wait, in spite of his anger at having to do so.

—:—

IF YOUR child is never ready to get to school on time, you could let him take the consequences of being late. But as the school is already overburdened, you hardly would wish to impose this extra problem.

If he usually goes by bus, or with his father, and the distance is not excessive, you could let him walk. But you hardly would have the fortitude to do so.

Sometimes this problem can be corrected by having the family rise 15 to 20 minutes earlier.

In the evening, ascertain, with the child's help, just when he will need to be ready for school, whether he walks, goes by bus or with Dad.

Tell him that he must be ready the next morning to leave on time. It might be well for Dad to see that the child assembles his things before going to bed.

—:—

MAKE CLEAR to him that if he is not ready on time, he will remain home that day and have to sit in a chair unamused, doing nothing, where you can see him, while school is in session, for 30 minute periods, each followed by a 10 minute recess period. Don't make this announcement unless you have the fortitude to enforce it.

In the morning, be sure no one tells him to hurry. It might be better to let this child collect a nickel from any person who does say "Hurry."

If you do enforce such a plan, one day's treatment may suffice. But even if it takes two or three mornings to effect a permanent "cure," it would be far more humane than the usual family orgy of anger on a school morning. Besides, the child will have learned a very useful lesson in responsibility.

In writing the child's excuse for absence, state the facts. The teacher will applaud your good sense.

IT'S TRUE!

A year has passed and we still feel the same as we did one year ago when we went into business. Both the DIXIE DINER and the people of East Liverpool are still wonderful. We have operated the DIXIE DINER successfully the past year, being blessed with a wonderful crew and fortunate in having the generous advice and support of "Pete" Kaiser and Mabel Kaiser.

I have kept my word - - - Having good food, reasonably priced, quickly served in attractive surroundings. We are making the same mistakes as "Pete" Kaiser and have even added a few of our own. We are still chopping out toothpicks out of the same tree "Pete" used, but as I promised last year, We have not stooped to using his old jokes; however, in honor of our anniversary, "Pete" Kaiser will be behind the counter, cracking the same old aged jokes and trading insults with the customers.

Sincerely Carl and Rosella Rosenberg

(Reprint from Ad of Sept. 17, 1957)

EAST LIVERPOOL
PEOPLE ARE WONDERFUL!

I wish to take this opportunity of thanking the many fine friends I have made in the past two weeks for their very warm welcome and encouragement for my future success at the Dixie Diner.

I assure you that I will continue to operate the Dixie Diner in exactly the same manner as "Pete" Kaiser, not even changing the brand of toothpicks — and, if he made any mistakes, I plan to deliberately make the same ones, because all of his were so very successful. The only thing I refuse to do is use "Pete's" stale old jokes.

If your warm reception is any indication of my future, I am looking forward to many happy years of serving you to the best of my ability in East Liverpool.

Sincerely,
Carl K. Rosenberg

Success Seen In War On Sleeping Sickness

TOKYO (AP) — An American Army disease expert today predicted the war against sleeping sickness now raging in Korean and affecting Japan and Formosa would soon be successful.

Nearly 4,000 cases of the disease—encephalitis—have been reported with 950 deaths. Nine Americans have been stricken, one fatally.

"We should have the mosquito carrier of encephalitis curbed within the next two weeks," said Col. Arthur H. Lahlum of Columbia, Tenn.

Sisters At Chester Become Brides In Double Ceremony

Misses Esther and Margaret Cline, daughters of Lawrence Cline of California Ave., Chester, and the late Mrs. Cline, became brides in a double ceremony Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the First Christian Church at Chester.

Esther was wed to Harold Smallwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Smallwood of Bunker Hill, W. Va., and Margaret exchanged vows with Clifford Comm, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Comm of Virginia Ave., Chester.

The Rev. A. F. Hanes performed the ceremony before an altar decorated with ferns and bouquets of white roses.

Mrs. Harry Shaw, church organist played "This Is My Beloved" and "Wedding Prayer" and other traditional music. She gave a 15-minute recital before the service.

Esther, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a pale blue lace gown over net and taffeta, styled with a fitted bodice and full skirt with nylon pleated inserts in front, long sleeves and round neckline. She wore a fingertip veil and carried a bridal bouquet of white roses.

Margaret was escorted to the altar by her eldest brother, Lawrence Cline, of Cleveland and wore a white gown fashioned with a full skirt of net over satin with a front lace panel and fitted bodice of lace over satin and long lace sleeves. The high lace neckline was styled with a small collar. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a pearl crown tiara. She carried a bridal arrangement identical to her sister's bouquet.

For traveling, Esther was attired in a brown dress with white accessories and Margaret wore a summer suit with white accessories.

Miss Loretta Duffy was maid of honor for Esther and wore a coral waltz-length dress of rayon-cotton with matching accessories.

Miss Judith Linger was maid of honor for Margaret and was attired in a blue taffeta waltz-length dress trimmed in a darker shade of blue velvet.

Both attendants carried bouquets of carnations.

Ronald Gibbs was best man for Smallwood and Harry Comm served as best man for his brother, Clifford. Ushers were Kenneth Ibbs, brother-in-law of the brides, and Dave Shaw.

A reception followed in the church basement and hostesses were the brides' sisters, Miss Juanita Cline and Mrs. Rosemary Ibbs. Two three-tier cakes centered the bridal table.

Both couples will return to their apartments in Morgantown in time to register for fall classes at West Virginia University.

The sisters will be juniors while Comm will be a senior in the School of Pharmacy and Smallwood a sophomore in the school of electrical engineering.

Friday night, a rehearsal party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Comm. Twenty-two attended.

The color scheme was pink and white and the tables for the buffet lunch were centered with pink rosebuds and pink tapers.

Aides were Mrs. Kenneth Ibbs and Misses Juanita Cline, Loretta Duffy and Judy Linger.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Training Slowpoke To Get To School Early

In thousands and thousands of homes, the same tragic scenes are repeated on school mornings in getting the children off on time.

By Garry Meyers

It's usually worse when the child takes a bus or rides with his father on his way to work. Usually the child discovers that, if he misses the bus, one of his parents will drive him to school or that Dad will wait, in spite of his anger at having to do so.

—:—

IF YOUR child is never ready to get to school on time, you could let him take the consequences of being late. But as the school is already overburdened, you hardly would wish to impose this extra problem.

If he usually goes by bus, or with his father, and the distance is not excessive, you could let him walk. But you hardly would have the fortitude to do so.

Sometimes this problem can be corrected by having the family rise 15 to 20 minutes earlier.

In the evening, ascertain, with the child's help, just when he will need to be ready for school, whether he walks, goes by bus or with Dad.

Tell him that he must be ready the next morning to leave on time. It might be well for Dad to see that the child assembles his things before going to bed.

MAKE CLEAR to him that if he is not ready on time, he will remain home that day and have to sit in a chair unamused, doing nothing, where you can see him, while school is in session, for 30 minute periods, each followed by a 10 minute recess period. Don't make this announcement unless you have the fortitude to enforce it.

In the morning, be sure no one tells him to hurry. It might be better to let this child collect a nickel from any person who does say "Hurry."

If you do enforce such a plan, one day's treatment may suffice. But even if it takes two or three mornings to effect a permanent "cure," it would be far more humane than the usual family orgy of anger on a school morning. Besides, the child will have learned a very useful lesson in responsibility.

In writing the child's excuse for absence, state the facts. The teacher will applaud your good sense.

IT'S TRUE!

A year has passed and we still feel the same as we did one year ago when we went into business. Both the DIXIE DINER and the people of East Liverpool are still wonderful. We have operated the DIXIE DINER successfully the past year, being blessed with a wonderful crew and fortunate in having the generous advice and support of "Pete" Kaiser and Mabel Kaiser.

I have kept my word - - - Having good food, reasonably priced, quickly served in attractive surroundings. We are making the same mistakes as "Pete" Kaiser and have even added a few of our own. We are still chopping out toothpicks out of the same tree "Pete" used, but as I promised last year, We have not stooped to using his old jokes; however, in honor of our anniversary, "Pete" Kaiser will be behind the counter, cracking the same old aged jokes and trading insults with the customers.

Sincerely Carl and Rosella Rosenberg

(Reprint from Ad of Sept. 17, 1957)

PEOPLE ARE WONDERFUL!

I wish to take this opportunity of thanking the many fine friends I have made in the past two weeks for their very warm welcome and encouragement for my future success at the Dixie Diner.

I assure you that I will continue to operate the Dixie Diner in exactly the same manner as "Pete" Kaiser, not even changing the brand of toothpicks — and, if he made any mistakes, I plan to deliberately make the same ones, because all of his were so very successful. The only thing I refuse to do is use "Pete's" stale old jokes.

If your warm reception is any indication of my future, I am looking forward to many happy years of serving you to the best of my ability in East Liverpool.

Sincerely,
Carl K. Rosenberg

President Plays Golf Wearing Cut-Rate Cap

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — President Eisenhower played golf wearing a cut-rate golfing cap.

He decided after a round Monday that he had to have a Newport Country Club cap. He picked out a blue one and insisted on paying for it.

The cap sells for $2.95 but Mildred Pickett, who runs the pro shop, got so flustered at dealing with the President that she mistated the price and he had to fork over only $2.00.

President Plays Golf Wearing Cut-Rate Cap

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — President Eisenhower played golf wearing a cut-rate golfing cap.

He decided after a round Monday that he had to have a Newport Country Club cap. He picked out a blue one and insisted on paying for it.

The cap sells for $2.95 but Mildred Pickett, who runs the pro shop, got so flustered at dealing with the President that she mistated the price and he had to fork over only $2.00.

Out Of The Air

By MARIE TORRE

News, Views And Boos

To date, the "Dotto" intrigue has occasioned more national headlines than the death of 99 people on the KLM airliner.

Marie Torre

The facts and quasi-facts about "Dotto" also have encouraged every crackpot, every past and present TV contestant with a gripe, legitimate or illegitimate, to air complaints publicly under the comparative safety of anonymity.

On the same iniquitous note, the news about "Dotto" has cast suspicion on too many good men of television who are now under surveillance because one of their kind made the kettle seem black.

Being a game-quiz-giveaway producer isn't a choice goal of every red-blooded breadwinner in TV today. The headaches are paramount. And those of Dan Enright, who packages such quiz shows as "Twenty-One" and "Tic Tac Dough" in partnership with Jack Barry, are typical.

During the past couple of weeks, blind items in newspaper columns about underhanded activities behind the TV quiz scene have bedevilled his office and home hours.

"The other day," Enright said, "there was a column item about a female contestant, a big-money winner, who shared half of her prize with the quiz producer as a sort of payment for giving her answers.

"Well, the allusion obviously was to someone like Elfrida von Nardroff. And that's horrible. If there are facts to be told about any of our contestants, I'd like to know them. Lift the mystery and establish the facts. But don't condemn us all in wholesale fashion."

THE "DOTTO" incident unquestionably has put the word "threaten" on the lips of contestants and would-be contestants, and Enright faced one just the other day.

"I received a letter from a man," he said, "who has greatly disturbed because after we saw the results of his written test, we decided not to use him. He threatened to take all kinds of action. He took issue with our testing procedures.

"Well I asked the man to meet with me at my office. During our chat, we were able to trace his anger to a misunderstanding with a member of the staff here. He was satisfied when he left my office."

We asked Enright if he'd have gone out of his way to appease the complainant in pre-"Dotto" days.

"I've done that sort of thing many times in the past," he responded, "with contestants who missed questions on the show as well as applicants who didn't make the grade. It only takes five minutes to meet with people and have an understanding! There's nothing as cold as a letter of rejection."

Although Enright isn't a man of natural optimism, he doesn't believe the "Dotto" fiasco augurs doom for all quiz-giveaways.

"I don't think this means the end of quiz-giveaways because the money-prize aspect, no matter how great it is, is secondary to the element of entertainment.

"No doubt the skeptics are pleased with all the dirt that's being slung, but in the long run I think the people will see through the lies and liars."

-:-

A SIZABLE SALARY increase has prompted Peter Lawford to decide in favor of staying with "The Thin Man." His new deal calls for a guarantee of 13 shows, with an option for 23 more.

From his hospital recovery room last week, Roy Campanella filled a segment of "Today" with heartwarming simplicity. Interviewer Cliff Evans asked Campanella if he would ever walk again, and the baseball hero replied: "I think I will. Even if I don't, in my mind I will walk again."

The latest Pulse report tells the same old story: "Gunsmoke," Ed Sullivan and "Have Gun, Will Travel" are in the top three positions.

ETHEL MERMAN'S 16-year-old daughter has show business aspirations. Currently residing in Colorado with her mother and stepfather (Robert Six), young Ethel will spend the fall and winter in New York for dance and ballet training.

"Klondike Lou," a fitting title for a Mae West series (which is what it is), is being readied by Steve Cochran and his Robert Alexander Productions

The BBC has lost interest in Groucho Marx, of all people, after negotiations had been underway to run his "You Bet Your Life" series in England. The British station, it's said, cooled on the prospects when Marx arrived in England and rejected a BBC request to be interviewed on TV without pay. His manager told BBC: "When Groucho gives an interview it's a performance for him, like Bob Hope wisecracking or Harry Belafonte singing. He expects to get paid."

Policeman Kills Youth In Attempted Escape

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—A policeman shot and killed 16-year-old Richard Lee Martin Monday when the youth tried to escape after arrest.

Patrolman Earl Elliott said he surprised the boy and a 15-year-old companion trying to break into the rear of an auto store.

They ran, Elliott said, but he caught them and lined them up against a store wall and started for a police phone on the corner to call a cruiser.

They again tried to run away, Elliott said, and he fired one shot at Martin, hitting him in the neck.

Korea Vets Cautioned

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Some 20,000 Ohio veterans of the Korean conflict have until Dec. 31 to file for bonuses, Director C. W. Goble of the Korean Conflict Compensation Fund, announced Monday. He said 230,000 of the estimated 250,000 claims have been filed.

Hearing Set On Sheppard's Petition Bid

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard, convicted of slaying his wife in one of the most widely publicized trials of recent years, begins another round today in his three year legal fight for freedom.

Chief Justice Carl V. Weygandt of the Ohio Supreme Court will hold a hearing at 11 a.m. today on Dr. Sam's habeus corpus petition. The petition asks that Sheppard, serving a life term for his second-degree murder conviction, be released from custody.

Attorneys for Sheppard asserted in the petition filed Aug. 14 that authorities suppressed evidence favorable to the former osteopath and that scientific findings after his conviction would establish his innocence.

Sheppard's lawyers would not reveal the nature of their claims prior to today's hearing. The Cuyahoga County prosecutor's office has denied withholding any evidence at Sheppard's 1954 trial. Sheppard entered the penitentiary in 1955.

Sheppard's pregnant wife, Marilyn, was bludgeoned to death in their Bay Village home west of Cleveland on the morning of July 4, 1954. Sheppard, then 32, has maintained that she was killed by an intruder.

135 Measures Awaits Action By President

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — President Eisenhower goes back to work part time today after a relaxing Labor Day weekend of golf, fishing and relatively little official business.

A White House aide, special counsel Gerald Morgan, was flying in from Washington with a sheaf of bills passed by Congress shortly before it adjourned Aug. 24. There are 135 measures still awaiting action by Eisenhower, and he was expected to approve or reject several of them by nightfall.

Among those with a midnight deadline for decision is a measure to ease excise taxes in a limited field. Others include a bill to hike the national debt ceiling to 288 billion dollars for the time being.

The President arrived in this New England resort area last Friday for a vacation of indefinite duration. He apparently hopes to stay most of this month, but it will depend on whether any international or domestic crises develop.

Warren To Open Bids On Sewage Project

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—The city of Warren, pressed by state and federal authorities to end stream pollution here, is getting an 8½ million dollar sewer system project underway with a second advertisement for bids on Thursday. The bids are to be opened Sept. 25.

Money collected in sewer rental fees, plus a quarter of a million dollars grant recently approved by the U.S. Public Health Service, will give the city more than $800,000 as a down payment for the project. An issue of revenue bonds would finance the balance. The city has purchased a 111-acre site for the sewage treatment plant which it is estimated will cost $3,875,000.

Gibbons Due To Tell About Climb To Job

WASHINGTON (AP) — Harold J. Gibbons gets a chance today to tell how he climbed to the top echelon of the Teamsters Union and became boss of the union's affairs in the St. Louis area.

Gibbons, 47-year-old right-hand man to Teamster President James R. Hoffa, was called by the Senate Rackets Committee, which has been investigating alleged Teamster tieups with hoodlums and charges of Teamster violence in labor disputes.

Previous witnesses have testified that Gibbons, top vice president of the giant truck union, bought one local union outright, directed violence in strikes, and rigged his election as president of the joint council ruling a score of Teamster locals in the St. Louis area.

St. Louis Detective Capt. Thomas L. Moran described Gibbons to the committee last week as a cop-hating associate of underworld characters.

Moran told of beatings, arson and bombings in Gibbons-connected strikes in St. Louis.

6-Day Wildcat Strike At GM Body Plant Ends

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—A six-day wildcat strike ended Monday night when United Auto Workers employes reported for the 10 p.m. shift at General Motors' Fisher Body plant here.

The union said the walkout last Wednesday was mainly over unauthorized men working certain jobs.

The men voted last week to go back to work, but stipulated that the company negotiators meet tonight with union officials to iron out the grievances.

Out Of The Air

By MARIE TORRE

News, Views And Boos

To date, the "Dotto" intrigue has occasioned more national headlines than the death of 99 people on the KLM airliner.

Marie Torre

The facts and quasi-facts about "Dotto" also have encouraged every crackpot, every past and present TV contestant with a gripe, legitimate or illegitimate, to air complaints publicly under the comparative safety of anonymity.

On the same iniquitous note, the news about "Dotto" has cast suspicion on too many good men of television who are now under surveillance because one of their kind made the kettle seem black.

Being a game-quiz-giveaway producer isn't a choice goal of every red-blooded breadwinner in TV today. The headaches are paramount. And those of Dan Enright, who packages such quiz shows as "Twenty-One" and "Tic Tac Dough" in partnership with Jack Barry, are typical.

During the past couple of weeks, blind items in newspaper columns about underhanded activities behind the TV quiz scene have bedevilled his office and home hours.

"The other day," Enright said, "there was a column item about a female contestant, a big-money winner, who shared half of her prize with the quiz producer as a sort of payment for giving her answers.

"Well, the allusion obviously was to someone like Elfrida von Nardroff. And that's horrible. If there are facts to be told about any of our contestants, I'd like to know them. Lift the mystery and establish the facts. But don't condemn us all in wholesale fashion."

THE "DOTTO" incident unquestionably has put the word "threaten" on the lips of contestants and would-be contestants, and Enright faced one just the other day.

"I received a letter from a man," he said, "who has greatly disturbed because after we saw the results of his written test, we decided not to use him. He threatened to take all kinds of action. He took issue with our testing procedures.

"Well I asked the man to meet with me at my office. During our chat, we were able to trace his anger to a misunderstanding with a member of the staff here. He was satisfied when he left my office."

We asked Enright if he'd have gone out of his way to appease the complainant in pre-"Dotto" days.

"I've done that sort of thing many times in the past," he responded, "with contestants who missed questions on the show as well as applicants who didn't make the grade. It only takes five minutes to meet with people and have an understanding! There's nothing as cold as a letter of rejection."

Although Enright isn't a man of natural optimism, he doesn't believe the "Dotto" fiasco augurs doom for all quiz-giveaways.

"I don't think this means the end of quiz-giveaways because the money-prize aspect, no matter how great it is, is secondary to the element of entertainment.

"No doubt the skeptics are pleased with all the dirt that's being slung, but in the long run I think the people will see through the lies and liars."

-:-

A SIZABLE SALARY increase has prompted Peter Lawford to decide in favor of staying with "The Thin Man." His new deal calls for a guarantee of 13 shows, with an option for 23 more.

From his hospital recovery room last week, Roy Campanella filled a segment of "Today" with heartwarming simplicity. Interviewer Cliff Evans asked Campanella if he would ever walk again, and the baseball hero replied: "I think I will. Even if I don't, in my mind I will walk again."

The latest Pulse report tells the same old story: "Gunsmoke," Ed Sullivan and "Have Gun, Will Travel" are in the top three positions.

ETHEL MERMAN'S 16-year-old daughter has show business aspirations. Currently residing in Colorado with her mother and stepfather (Robert Six), young Ethel will spend the fall and winter in New York for dance and ballet training.

"Klondike Lou," a fitting title for a Mae West series (which is what it is), is being readied by Steve Cochran and his Robert Alexander Productions

The BBC has lost interest in Groucho Marx, of all people, after negotiations had been underway to run his "You Bet Your Life" series in England. The British station, it's said, cooled on the prospects when Marx arrived in England and rejected a BBC request to be interviewed on TV without pay. His manager told BBC: "When Groucho gives an interview it's a performance for him, like Bob Hope wisecracking or Harry Belafonte singing. He expects to get paid."

Policeman Kills Youth In Attempted Escape

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—A policeman shot and killed 16-year-old Richard Lee Martin Monday when the youth tried to escape after arrest.

Patrolman Earl Elliott said he surprised the boy and a 15-year-old companion trying to break into the rear of an auto store.

They ran, Elliott said, but he caught them and lined them up against a store wall and started for a police phone on the corner to call a cruiser.

They again tried to run away, Elliott said, and he fired one shot at Martin, hitting him in the neck.

Korea Vets Cautioned

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Some 20,000 Ohio veterans of the Korean conflict have until Dec. 31 to file for bonuses, Director C. W. Goble of the Korean Conflict Compensation Fund, announced Monday. He said 230,000 of the estimated 250,000 claims have been filed.

Hearing Set On Sheppard's Petition Bid

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard, convicted of slaying his wife in one of the most widely publicized trials of recent years, begins another round today in his three year legal fight for freedom.

Chief Justice Carl V. Weygandt of the Ohio Supreme Court will hold a hearing at 11 a.m. today on Dr. Sam's habeus corpus petition. The petition asks that Sheppard, serving a life term for his second-degree murder conviction, be released from custody.

Attorneys for Sheppard asserted in the petition filed Aug. 14 that authorities suppressed evidence favorable to the former osteopath and that scientific findings after his conviction would establish his innocence.

Sheppard's lawyers would not reveal the nature of their claims prior to today's hearing. The Cuyahoga County prosecutor's office has denied withholding any evidence at Sheppard's 1954 trial. Sheppard entered the penitentiary in 1955.

Sheppard's pregnant wife, Marilyn, was bludgeoned to death in their Bay Village home west of Cleveland on the morning of July 4, 1954. Sheppard, then 32, has maintained that she was killed by an intruder.

135 Measures Awaits Action By President

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — President Eisenhower goes back to work part time today after a relaxing Labor Day weekend of golf, fishing and relatively little official business.

A White House aide, special counsel Gerald Morgan, was flying in from Washington with a sheaf of bills passed by Congress shortly before it adjourned Aug. 24. There are 135 measures still awaiting action by Eisenhower, and he was expected to approve or reject several of them by nightfall.

Among those with a midnight deadline for decision is a measure to ease excise taxes in a limited field. Others include a bill to hike the national debt ceiling to 288 billion dollars for the time being.

The President arrived in this New England resort area last Friday for a vacation of indefinite duration. He apparently hopes to stay most of this month, but it will depend on whether any international or domestic crises develop.

Warren To Open Bids On Sewage Project

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—The city of Warren, pressed by state and federal authorities to end stream pollution here, is getting an 8½ million dollar sewer system project underway with a second advertisement for bids on Thursday. The bids are to be opened Sept. 25.

Money collected in sewer rental fees, plus a quarter of a million dollars grant recently approved by the U.S. Public Health Service, will give the city more than $800,000 as a down payment for the project. An issue of revenue bonds would finance the balance. The city has purchased a 111-acre site for the sewage treatment plant which it is estimated will cost $3,675,000.

Manslaughter is the unlawful killing of a human being without malice.

Battle For House Control

Marginal Congressional Districts 'Promised Land'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Forty-seven marginal congressional districts in 15 Midwest and Western states are beginning to look like the promised land to major party strategists battling for control of the House.

In the 15 states, stretching from Ohio to the Pacific Coast, there are 26 House seats Republicans won by a whisker in 1956 and 21 in which Democrats nosed out their opponents by less than 5 per cent of the votes.

While neither party is going to ignore similar situations in Eastern states like Pennsylvania and New Jersey, the suspicion is mounting in both camps that the people who live west of the Ohio River are going to have a major voice in saying who runs the House for the next two years.

When Congress went home to campaign, Democrats held a comfortable House margin of 35 seats. The lineup was 232 Democrats, 197 Republicans and 6 vacancies.

Rep. Michael J. Kirwan of Ohio, chairman of the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee, has predicted his party's edge will be increased by 30 in the November elections.

Rep. Richard M. Simpson of Pennsylvania, head of the GOP Congressional Campaign Committee, has not been as optimistic. But he has joined Republican National Chairman Meade Alcorn in contending there has been a recent upturn in their party's prospects.

The Midwestern states of Illinois, Missouri and Kansas seem likely to furnish the hottest battleground in the marginal districts.

In 1956, Illinois and Missouri each had six areas where the margin between opposing candidates was less than 5 per cent.

Democrats are taking aim at Kansas too, where they regard four of the five GOP-held seats as marginal. They plan strenuous efforts to capture these four GOP seats as well as to save the one marginal seat they hold in Kansas.

In other Midwestern areas, there are four marginal seats each in Iowa and Indiana, three in Michigan, two in Nebraska, and one each in Ohio, Wisconsin and South Dakota.

Farther west, Colorado has two and Arizona one in the doubtful class.

On the Pacific Coast, California offers the big prize with five doubtful seats. Off their showing in the June primaries, Democrats are hopeful of making some inroads into three marginal Republican areas and holding on to two they narrowly won in 1956.

In the Pacific Northwest, Oregon and Washington each have three marginal districts in an area where the Democrats have shown more confidence of victory than in almost any other section of the country.

Legionnaires End Parading

National Convention Tackles Business

CHICAGO (AP)—After a weekend of parading and merrymaking, the American Legion, moves into the serious aspects of its 40th annual national convention today.

Some 3,000 delegates, in three days of business sessions in the Chicago Stadium, are to pass on some 600 resolutions ranging from child welfare to "Americanism."

Secretary of Defense Neil H. McElroy speaks tonight at the annual National Commander's Dinner.

An all-day parade along Michigan Avenue by some 50,000 marchers, units of all military services and their massed colors, decorative floats and about 8,000 musicians featured the Labor Day activities.

In one prepared resolution, the Legion will be asked to reject a proposal for a general pension for all World War I veterans in favor of an increase in present nonservice disability pension rates and relaxation of outside income restriction governing such pension.

In a prepared address, Ross L. Malone, president of the American Bar Assn., asked for Legion backing for the bar's "campaign to increase the effectiveness of our courts by removing the selection of the judges of state courts from the arena of partisan politics."

Malone told the convention judicial reform plans have been adopted in Missouri, California and Alaska and are in various stages of consideration in Illinois, Kansas, Ohio, Oregon, West Virginia and Iowa.

Civilian And Military Merger Of Long-Range Radar Bared

WASHINGTON (AP) — A large-scale merger of civilian and military long-range radar equipment to scan the skyways was announced by the government today.

Joint use of the electronic eyes for civil air traffic control and for air defense is expected to save many millions of dollars and allow smoother performance of both types of operations.

Civil Aeronautics Administrator James T. Pyle and Lt. Gen. J. H. Atkinson, chief of the Air Defense Command, announced the program scheduled to go into effect some time this fall.

Initial plans call for joint use of 31 high-power radar facilities with aircraft spotting capability reported at 135 to 200 miles. More radar sets are planned for the joint service later.

The CAA intends to employ the radar for its air traffic control tasks. The Air Force, Army and National Guard will use it for air defense. The heavy radar equipment stretches across the country from Seattle to Miami.

Besides allowing lower equipment and operating costs, the joint use cuts down on radar interference and coordination problems.

The CAA estimated that of the 100 radar sets planned for the air traffic control system more than half will be for joint use by the military.

Drowning Victim, Little Brenda, 2½, Independent Tot

LOUDONVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Blonde, blue-eyed Brenda Leatherman was only 2½, but she was an independent tot who liked to do things for herself, relatives said. Otherwise, she might be alive today.

Alone she went to an outdoor public latrine in Mohican State Park near where her family was camping, tumbled 10 feet through a foot-wide opening and drowned.

Her body was found only about 100 feet from where she last was seen, but it took a search of more than 15 hours.

Almost 1,500 volunteers participated, including prisoners from Ashland County Jail. Bloodhounds were used, too. And early Monday morning a helicopter and two airplanes joined in the hunt. Most of the 4,500-acre park, including densely forested hills and ravines, were covered.

The child was reported missing shortly after 5 p.m. Sunday. Her body was identified by her hysterical parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard D. Leatherman of Wadsworth, at about 8:30 a.m. Monday. She was their only child.

Ex-Contestant On '21' Accused In Blackmail Bid

NEW YORK (AP)—The coproducers of the TV quiz show Twenty-One have accused former contestant Herbert Stempel of trying to blackmail them.

Last week Stempel told newsmen he was given answers in advance of appearing on the program and that he was instructed to miss other questions.

The producers, Jack Barry and Dan Enright, said Monday night they had evidence in which "Stempel confesses that these same charges were baseless and untrue, and were part of a blackmail scheme Stempel had concoted in order to extort a large sum of money from the firm of Barry & Enright."

Stempel denied the blackmail accusation when asked about the Barry-Enright statement.

The producers said they had turned over the evidence to Manhattan Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan.

Hogan declined to confirm that material given him by Barry & Enright contained a confession from Stempel. Stempel was questioned by investigators from Hogan's office last week.

OSU's Trustees Transact Several Items Of Business

PUT-IN-BAY, Ohio (AP)— Approval of building projects, appointments and budgets were among the work covered Monday by the board of trustees of Ohio State University during their meeting.

The trustees approved contracts for a $2,300,000 addition to McPherson chemical laboratory, announced that a U.S. Health Service grant will finance construction of a $800,000 University Hospital research facility and approved plans for a $740,000 addition to the service building.

Dr. Jackson W. Riddle was promoted to the post of assistant to Vice President Frederic W. Heimberger. He will continue to teach in the departments of bacteriology and preventive medicine.

The trustees also approved the 1958-59 operating budget of $122,979 for the university's development fund. Last year $110,734 was budgeted.

Firefighters Forget To Turn Out Own Fire

CINCINNATI (AP)—"The firehouse is on fire," an excited caller told the fire tower operator Monday. It was no joke.

The situation, enough to make a firefighter blush fire-engine red, was this:

Early Monday afternoon, the 10 members of Pumper Co. 32 and Ladder Co. 12 dashed out to answer an alarm that turned out to be no fire — just smoke from a fumigation job.

But when they came back, the firefighters were embarrassed to find Pumper Co. 39 dousing a fire in their kitchen.

In haste to leave, the cook had forgotten to turn off the gas under a pot of grease heating for french fried potatoes. A neighbor turned in the alarm.

Actress Gets Treatment For Overdose Of Pills

NEW YORK (AP) — Actress Suzy Parker was detained at a hospital for several hours Monday night suffering from what police said was an overdose of a sedative.

Miss Parker entered the Hospital for Special Surgery under the name of Cecilia Ford.

Her condition was not regarded as serious and she left early today with her husband for their East Side apartment.

Paul O'Dwyer, the actress' lawyer, said she must have taken the pills by mistake. Her medicine cabinet, he explained, is stocked with assorted pills as a result of her recent accident.

When Henry Ford assembled his two - cylinder car in a shed near Detroit in 1896, he found it was too big to go through the door. Ford picked up an ax and enlarged the door.

County WSCS Will Stage Fall Meeting Sept. 15 At Lisbon

The annual fall meeting of the WSCS of Methodist Churches in Columbiana County is scheduled Sept. 15 at the First church in Lisbon.

Miss Olive Givins, a missionary from Mexico home on furlough, will be honored at a tea at 2:15 p. m. She is currently residing in Cadiz.

The sessions are scheduled for 3 p. m. with women from the six local churches, First, Calvary, Orchard Grove Community, Anderson, Pennsylvania Ave. and Boyce attending, as well as those from Wellsville and other county communities.

Mrs. Homer Hansen, North-East Ohio Conference secretary of Christian social relations, will be speaker.

Workshops will be held for officers from 4:45 to 5:45 and a dinner will follow at 6. Miss Eva Armstrong, 117 East Pine St., Lisbon, is in charge of reservations.

Following the dinner, the Rev. Paul Ward, superintendent of the denomination for the Steubenville District, will conduct workshops stressing commissions on education, finance, membership and evangelism and missions Members of the women's society will attend the church meetings. All the county meetings in the district will be coordinated with the WSCS holding afternoon events and remaining for the evening sessions.

Other county meetings for the Steubenville District will be held Sept. 16 at Carrollton, Sept. 17 at Wintersville and Sept. 18 at Cadiz.

Mrs. Willard Cope of Salem R. D. 3 is country president, and Mrs. W. B. McClave of Carrollton, district president.

District officers from here are Mrs. H. T. Williams of the First church, secretary of supply, and Mrs. Howard Tice of Boyce church, vice president.

Gunman Kidnaped Officer, Gives Up Meekly At 'Block'

GLADEWATER, Tex. (AP)—A snarling gunman kidnaped a policeman and forced him to drive a hundred miles at top speed today while he blazed away at pursuing officers.

But he tossed his two pistols meekly into the kidnaped officers's lap and begged "Don't let them kill me," when cornered at a roadblock just east of here.

"I'm so nervous I can hardly talk," Sgt. Harvey Derrick of the Irving, Tex., police department said shortly after the capture. Derrick, 41, is the father of seven.

Officers identified the kidnaper as Lee Rowe, 24 of Irving.

Derrick said he investigated a disturbance in Irving late Monday night. He said he left his squad car to call to a man walking down the street.

"He threw a gun on me and got the drop on me. He took my gun and told me to get in the car. 'We're going for a ride,' he said. He said he'd kill me if I didn't do what he told me."

Derrick radioed headquarters saying he was being held at gunpoint and that his captor ordered all other police cars to stay clear.

The car was spotted on U.S. 80 headed east.

"They (the state highway patrol) tried to stop me near Terrell. He started shooting and I tried to wave them off. He shot the glass out of their patrol car. He said he'd shoot me if I didn't wave them off," Derrick said.

Police set up a roadblock with big trucks just east of this east Texas city.

"We came screeching to a halt," Derrick said. "I told him he might just as well give up. He threw the guns into my lap and said, 'Don't let them kill me.' "

How Can I? ? ?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I induce sleep?

A. Try eating a thin slice of bread and butter with a little cayenne pepper sprinkled on it. Have plenty of fresh air in the room, and make a genuine effort to relax every muscle of the body.

Q. How can I prevent milk from curdling in tomatoes?

A. This can be avoided by putting a pinch of bicarbonate of soda in with the tomatoes before adding the milk.

Q. How can I clean some pretty candles that have become soiled?

A. Wipe them with a piece of absorbent cotton dipped in alcohol.

Bacteria are the smallest living creatures known to man.

Firefighters Forget To Turn Out Own Fire

CINCINNATI (AP)—"The firehouse is on fire," an excited caller told the fire tower operator Monday. It was no joke.

The situation, enough to make a firefighter blush fire-engine red, was this:

Early Monday afternoon, the 10 members of Pumper Co. 32 and Ladder Co. 12 dashed out to answer an alarm that turned out to be no fire — just smoke from a fumigation job.

But when they came back, the firefighters were embarrassed to find Pumper Co. 39 dousing a fire in their kitchen.

In haste to leave, the cook had forgotten to turn off the gas under a pot of grease heating for french fried potatoes. A neighbor turned in the alarm.

Drowning Victim, Little Brenda, 2½, Independent Tot

LOUDONVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Blonde, blue-eyed Brenda Leatherman was only 2½, but she was an independent tot who liked to do things for herself, relatives said. Otherwise, she might be alive today.

Alone she went to an outdoor public latrine in Mohican State Park near where her family was camping, tumbled 10 feet through a foot-wide opening and drowned.

Her body was found only about 100 feet from where she last was seen, but it took a search of more than 15 hours.

Almost 1,500 volunteers participated, including prisoners from Ashland County Jail. Bloodhounds were used, too. And early Monday morning a helicopter and two airplanes joined in the hunt. Most of the 4,500-acre park, including densely forested hills and ravines, were covered.

The child was reported missing shortly after 5 p.m. Sunday. Her body was identified by her hysterical parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard D. Leatherman of Wadsworth, at about 8:30 a.m. Monday. She was their only child.

OSU's Trustees Transact Several Items Of Business

PUT-IN-BAY, Ohio (AP)— Approval of building projects, appointments and budgets were among the work covered Monday by the board of trustees of Ohio State University during their meeting.

The trustees approved contracts for a $2,300,000 addition to McPherson chemical laboratory, announced that a U.S. Health Service grant will finance construction of a $800,000 University Hospital research facility and approved plans for a $740,000 addition to the service building.

Dr. Jackson W. Riddle was promoted to the post of assistant to Vice President Frederic W. Heimberger. He will continue to teach in the departments of bacteriology and preventive medicine.

The trustees also approved the 1958-59 operating budget of $122,979 for the university's development fund. Last year $110,734 was budgeted.

Actress Gets Treatment For Overdose Of Pills

NEW YORK (AP) — Actress Suzy Parker was detained at a hospital for several hours Monday night suffering from what police said was an overdose of a sedative.

Miss Parker entered the Hospital for Special Surgery under the name of Cecilia Ford.

Her condition was not regarded as serious and she left early today with her husband for their East Side apartment.

Paul O'Dwyer, the actress' lawyer, said she must have taken the pills by mistake. Her medicine cabinet, he explained, is stocked with assorted pills as a result of her recent accident.

When Henry Ford assembled his two - cylinder car in a shed near Detroit in 1896, he found it was too big to go through the door. Ford picked up an ax and enlarged the door.

County WSCS Will Stage Fall Meeting Sept. 15 At Lisbon

The annual fall meeting of the WSCS of Methodist Churches in Columbiana County is scheduled Sept. 15 at the First church in Lisbon.

Miss Olive Givins, a missionary from Mexico home on furlough, will be honored at a tea at 2:15 p. m. She is currently residing in Cadiz.

The sessions are scheduled for 3 p. m. with women from the six local churches, First, Calvary, Orchard Grove Community, Anderson, Pennsylvania Ave. and Boyce attending, as well as those from Wellsville and other county communities.

Mrs. Homer Hansen, North-East Ohio Conference secretary of Christian social relations, will be speaker.

Workshops will be held for officers from 4:45 to 5:45 and a dinner will follow at 6. Miss Eva Armstrong, 117 East Pine St., Lisbon, is in charge of reservations.

Following the dinner, the Rev. Paul Ward, superintendent of the denomination for the Steubenville District, will conduct workshops stressing commissions on education, finance, membership and evangelism and missions. Members of the women's society will attend the church meetings. All the county meetings in the district will be coordinated with the WSCS holding afternoon events and remaining for the evening sessions.

Other county meetings for the Steubenville District will be held Sept. 16 at Carrollton, Sept. 17 at Wintersville and Sept. 18 at Cadiz.

Mrs. Willard Cope of Salem R. D. 3 is country president, and Mrs. W. B. McClave of Carrollton, district president.

District officers from here are Mrs. H. T. Williams of the First church, secretary of supply, and Mrs. Howard Tice of Boyce church, vice president.

Gunman Kidnaped Officer, Gives Up Meekly At 'Block'

GLADEWATER, Tex. (AP)—A snarling gunman kidnaped a policeman and forced him to drive a hundred miles at top speed today while he blazed away at pursuing officers.

But he tossed his two pistols meekly into the kidnaped officers's lap and begged "Don't let them kill me," when cornered at a roadblock just east of here.

"I'm so nervous I can hardly talk," Sgt. Harvey Derrick of the Irving, Tex., police department said shortly after the capture. Derrick, 41, is the father of seven.

Officers identified the kidnaper as Lee Rowe, 24 of Irving.

Derrick said he investigated a disturbance in Irving late Monday night. He said he left his squad car to call to a man walking down the street.

"He threw a gun on me and got the drop on me. He took my gun and told me to get in the car. 'We're going for a ride,' he said. He said he'd kill me if I didn't do what he told me."

Derrick radioed headquarters saying he was being held at gunpoint and that his captor ordered all other police cars to stay clear.

The car was spotted on U.S. 80 headed east.

"They (the state highway patrol) tried to stop me near Terrell. He started shooting and I tried to wave them off. He shot the glass out of their patrol car. He said he'd shoot me if I didn't wave them off," Derrick said.

Police set up a roadblock with big trucks just east of this east Texas city.

"We came screeching to a halt," Derrick said. "I told him he might just as well give up. He threw the guns into my lap and said, 'Don't let them kill me.' "

How Can I? ? ?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I induce sleep?

A. Try eating a thin slice of bread and butter with a little cayenne pepper sprinkled on it. Have plenty of fresh air in the room, and make a genuine effort to relax every muscle of the body.

Q. How can I prevent milk from curdling in tomatoes?

A. This can be avoided by putting a pinch of bicarbonate of soda in with the tomatoes before adding the milk.

Q. How can I clean some pretty candles that have become soiled?

A. Wipe them with a piece of absorbent cotton dipped in alcohol.

Bacteria are the smallest living creatures known to man.

Wood Begins Rebuilding In His First Year At Wellsville

4 Lettermen Return From Last Season

By CHUCK CRONIN

Youthful Ken Woods, who applied the winning touch to the football picture during his three years at Fairfield - Waterford, faces a prodigious task in his first year at Wellsville.

As successor to Bill Radd, who moved on to Sebring after only one year with the Tigers, Woods finds himself in the midst of a major rebuilding job. Graduation struck the 1957 team heavily, leaving only four lettermen, plus an array of inexperienced juniors and sophomores from a losing ball club.

—:—

GRADUATION claimed 13 members of Radd's 1957 club which won three and lost six. Wellsville defeated only Chester, Cadiz and Bridgeport. And one of its defeats was a 68-0 trouncing by Lisbon in the final game of the season.

Gone is the leading touchdown producer of last year, speedy fullback Chub Carter, plus the other three backfield regulars — quarterback Andy Holowaty and halfbacks Bill Thompson and John Dalonzo.

Carter, who also kicked Wellsville's first field goal in several years and added a host of extra points, is said to be heading for Michigan State University this year.

Also missing are linemen Francis Cannadate, Bob Plate, Larry Bowers, Andy Lynn, Lon Bemis and Tom Siudak and halfback Jim Luckino.

HOWEVER, two of the returning veterans will give the Tigers plenty of heft on the forward wall, the brightest outlook in the Tiger camp.

Back to lead Wellsville this year are end Bob Brown, 170 pounds, halfback Jim Stevens, 165, and linemen Leonard Cuti, 205, and Ralph Wagner, 245.

Brown, only a junior, was a defensive sparkplug last year and probably will get the starting call at one end slot when Wellsville clashes with the East Liverpool Potters in the grid preview of the Blue and White Nonpareil Club Friday night at Patterson Field.

Stevens is fast developing into a good halfback and will be depended on to supply much of the Tiger offensive punch.

Cuti will go at right tackle, while Wagner, the squad's heaviest candidate, will get the call at defensive guard.

"We'll have a young team lacking experience," Woods said, adding that he was "well pleased" with the team's hustle and spirit thus far.

WHILE THE lack of overall experience and depth will be chief problems, the performances of several freshmen and sophomores have brightened things somewhat, Woods observed.

Woods singled out John Euill, 140-pound freshman backfield candidate, as "very promising." Pat Creaturo, a 120-pound junior, has been performing well as halfback and is making a strong bid for the starting eleven.

Other halfback candidates are Leonard Johnson, a junior who is a newcomer to Wellsville, and Bob Byers, also a junior.

Sophomore Bob Kiggans is being groomed for the all - important quarterback post, though being pushed for the job by Doug Thomas, a southpaw passer. Kiggans scales about 150. Ed Bauer, a junior, is also a quarterback candidate.

The Tigers will use the straight T and the split T, Woods said, with Kiggans set to do most of the passing.

At fullback, Bob Delposen, 180-pound junior, probably will get the starting call, with Dick Brown, 140-pound sophomore, ready for duty when needed.

—:—

TEAMING with the hefty Cuti and Wagner and the rugged Brown on the line will be guard Eddie Stone, a 200-pounder, who saw action last year, and Phillip Vernon, an 180-pound guard, who has been turning in some rugged performances in practice.

Other guard candidates are Dick Kountz, 160, Bob Nightingale, 150, and Robert Walker, 145, all lacking experience.

Phil Baldwin, up from last year's reserves, is the leading candidate for center. Jerry Heffner, 140-pound sophomore, is also listed for the pivot post.

Woods also commended Martin Stempler, a 140-pound senior end, for good work in recent drills. Stempler is also inexperienced but may see some action this fall, he indicated.

The 40 candidates include only three seniors, nine juniors, 18 sophomores and 10 freshmen, reflecting Woods' problem of overall inexperience.

THE INJURY problem with the Tigers hasn't been too serious thus far, with only a few of the second-stringers missing drills. Jim White, sophomore guard, is out with a broken nose and Frank Luckino, a freshman halfback, suffered a broken arm early in the practice session.

Woods, who received his master's degree from the University of Pittsburgh after graduating from Cedarville College, is hoping to whip up fresh enthusiasm among the Wellsville fans.

Pictures of individual players will be placed in business establishments soon, he said, and movies of each game will be taken and later screened at a public gathering.

The Tigers open Sept. 12 with Austintown Fitch, the first of four straight home games. The others are against Toronto, Chester and Bellaire St. John's.

The squad will travel to Cadiz Oct. 10 and then play away games with Salem, Jefferson Union and Mingo before the finale with Lisbon Nov. 14 at Nicholson Stadium.

TIGER COACHING STAFF. Three of four Wellsville High School football coaches are shown discussing prospects for the approaching season during drills at Nicholson Stadium. Ken Woods, right, succeeds Bill Radd as the head Tiger mentor. Woods comes to Wellsville from Fairfield-Waterford where his teams showed an overall grid record of 19 wins and five losses. Kneeling are Jack McDevitt, left, and Carl Firm, who are assisting Woods in workouts. McDevitt is head basketball coach. Royd Hodge, former East Liverpool coach now with Wellsville, was not present when the picture was taken.

Reds' Deal For Kellner Seen One Of Shrewdest

St. LOUIS (AP)— The Cincinnati Redlegs picked up at midseason what looked like just another washed - up pitcher with enough stuff left to go a few relief rounds. His name is Alex Kellner.

The deal looks now like one of the shrewdest of the year.

Kellner took over in the first inning Monday and held St. Louis' Cardinals scoreless while his teammates pounded out a 9-3 nightcap victory.

Two errors helped St. Louis score the run in a 1-0 triumph that cut off the Reds' streak at six games in the doubleheader's first game.

Kellner, a husky southpaw, gave up only five hits. And he contributed one run and batted in three with two hits.

He has picked up five victories against three early defeats since joining the Reds, and has three complete games.

Two hits off starter Brooks Lawrence and an error put the Reds three runs behind in the first inning of the nightcap.

But the rest of the scoring was all by Redlegs — four runs in the third inning, three in the fifth and two in the seventh.

The four-run uprising started with walks to Roy McMillan and Kellner. After Johnny Temple's sacrifice, Jerry Lynch singled in the first run. Frankie Robinson came through with a run-producing double. Burgess walked to fill the bases. George Crowe lashed a two-run single.

Robinson's 27th homer of the season led off the fifth inning. Singles by Crowe and Burgess plus a walk to Alex Grammas filled the bases, setting up Kellner's two-run single to center.

In the seventh, two more insurance markers came on straight singles by Grammas, Eddie Miksis, Kellner and Temple.

The opener was a tight pitching duel between Cardinal Wilmer Mizell and Redleg southpaw Joe Nuxhall.

Neither side could get more than four hits, but the Reds couldn't capitalize on Mizell's wobbly pitching. He gave up nine walks and five Redlegs stole bases on him.

The unearned run came in the second inning. Boyer was safe on Grammas' bobble and reached third when Temple missed Gene Green's easy roller. Moon singled him home.

The last game against the Cards here this season comes tonight with Bob Purkey pitching against rookie Bob Mabe.

Blue And White Club To Meet Tonight At 8

Movies of a recent scrimmage game between East Liverpool and Youngstown East will be screened by football coach Lou Venditti when the Blue and White Nonpariel Club meets tonight at 8 in the YMCA. A colored film, "Meet The Potters", also will be shown. Hap Tullis, president, will conduct business.

On Wildcats' Squad

Indians Beat White Sox 2, Return Home

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Indians were back today for their last long home stand of the season, sporting a four-game winning string and only a game and a half away from the lower rung of the American League's first division.

Wednesday night they open with the Kansas City Athletics.

Next weekend three games are scheduled with the second - place Chicago White Sox whom the Indians humbled 6-5 and 7-1 before 17-326 fans in Comiskey Park Monday.

Herb Score made his first appearance since July 15 by pitching 2-3's of an inning in relief in the opener. Sidelined by a sore arm, he rejoined the club only three days ago.

The Indians had a 6-2 lead when Score relieved Don Ferrarese with one out and bases loaded in the ninth. He got the first batter on a pop. Then covering first base on a grounder, Score muffed a throw from Vic Power and threw wild to the plate to let three runs across. But he fanned the next batter, Jim Landis, to save Ferrarese's second victory against four losses.

Minnie Minoso's 21st home run after a single by Bob Avila and a double by Vic Power got Cleveland off to a first-inning 3-0 lead in the opener against Billy Pierce, who took his ninth loss against 15 won. In the third inning the Tribe added three unearned runs — two when Al Smith dropped a fly and another when Billy Goodman booted a grounder.

Gary Bell rationed eight Chicago hits in the nightcap, with Goodman getting a double and two singles and Don Mueller three singles. A sacrifice fly by Jim Rivera after singles by Earl Torgeson and Mueller in the fourth ruined Bell's shutout, but he evened his pitching record at 8-8.

Vic Power's 12th home run followed a walk and Mickey Vernon's single in the third inning of the nightcap and sent starter Bob Shaw to defeat.

Memphis Beats Dayton To Win NABF Crown

FLINT, MICH. (AP)—Memphis was the owner of the National Amateur Baseball Federation championship today for the first time in the 45 years of the double elimination tournament.

The Tennessee city won the crown Monday by defeating Dayton, Ohio, in the finals 5-2.

The earth revolves at the rate of about 1,000 miles an hour at the Equator.

Giants Win 2, Pirates Split

Buhl Shackles Cubs, 2-1, In First Start Since May

By The Associated Press

Bob Buhl, the missing 18-game winner who was hardly missed, is back with the Milwaukee Braves. And right in form too.

Pitching for the first time since May 13, when he dropped out with a bum shoulder, Buhl won the opener of the Braves' Labor Day double-header with Chicago, beating the Cubs 2-1 with an eight-hitter. He walked only one, struck out three and blanked the Cubs after the first inning.

The Braves lost the nightcap 9-3. Their National League lead is now 7½ games.

San Francisco broke a tie with Pittsburgh for second place by beating Los Angeles 8-6 and 6-5. The second game went 16 innings, longest in the majors this year. The Pirates, 8½ games back, lost 9-0 to Philadelphia after a 5-2 victory.

Cincinnati held fourth place, beating St. Louis 9-3 after a 1-0 defeat.

In the American League, the New York Yankees split a pair of 4-2 decisions with Boston. Chicago's second-place White Sox lost two to Cleveland 6-5 and 7-1. Baltimore swept Washington 2-0 and 10-1. Detroit beat Kansas City twice, 7-4 and 5-1.

The Cubs got their run off Buhl (5-2) on Al Dark's double and Ernie Banks' single in the first. Milwaukee put it away in the fourth, scoring two on an error and singles by Ed Mathews and Hank Aaron, who split six of the Braves' nine hits off Bob Anderson (1-1).

A four-run third, capped by Bobby Thomson's two-run single, won the nightcap for the Cubs against ex-mate Bob Rush (7-6). Glen Hobbie (10-6) took his third from the Braves.

Long-slumping Willie Mays was 6 for 9, including his 26th and 27th home runs, in the double-header for the Giants. They tied the nightcap 4-all on Bob Schmidt's two-out, two-run homer in the ninth, then won it with two in the 16th on Whitey Lockman's homer, Ray Jablonski's single and two Dodger errors. Mike McCormick (11-7), who gave up a run in the Dodgers' 16th, was the winner with Johnny Podres (12-11) the loser, both in relief.

Schmidt's two-run double put the opener away as the Giants scored three in the seventh.

A six-hitter by Vern Law (11-11) did the job for the Pirates in the first game. He had a shutout until Henry Anderson's home run in the ninth. Jack Sanford (8-12) lost it. Lefty Curt Simmons (7-13) blanked the Pirates on four hits in the nightcap while Ted Kazanski, who had three doubles, and Wally Post each drove in three runs for the Phils. Bob Porterfield (2-6) lost it.

An unearned run in the second inning won the opener for the Cards as Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell (9-10) beat Joe Nuxhall (11-10) in a duel of four hitters. George Crowe capped a four-run third with a two-run single in the nightcap for the Reds, and they counted three more in the fifth, when Frank Robinson hit a 450-foot-plus homer, his 27th. Alex Kellner blanked the Cards on five hits after releiving Brooks Lawrence in the first inning. Jim Brosnan (9-8) lost it.

Great Pitching So-So Now

How Good Are Yankees?

By The Associated Press

Just how good are these New York Yankees who lead the American League by 11½ games?

A month ago today they led by 17 games. They've won 14 of 31 games since—a scrawny .452 percentage that's only sixth best in the AL for that span.

With a month to go before their expected return match in the World Series with the champion Milwaukee Braves, the Yankees' great pitching has become so-so. Bob Turley is a 20-game winner, but Whitey Ford and Don Larsen are nursing sore arms. And after those three come Art Ditmar, Bobby Shantz, Johnny Kucks and Duke Maas. Hardly a fearsome foursome. Ryne Duren, the tight-pitch terror of the bullpen, hasn't been the same since he was injured.

Only two regulars — Elston Howard (.329) and Norm Siebern (.303) — are hitting over .300. Mickey Mantle is at .300.

Shantz and Maas came through with complete games in the Labor Day double-header, but the Yankees came off with only a split against Boston, getting only eight hits in a pair of 4-2 decisions. Young Ted Bowsfield (3-0) won the opener with a four-hitter. Maas then matched the four-hit pitching of Ike Delock for the nightcap victory.

Still, the Yankees added a game to their lead. Chicago's second-place White Sox lost a pair to Cleveland 6-5 and 7-1. Baltimore swept Washington 2-0 and 10-1. Detroit took two at Kansas City 7-4 and 5-1.

In the National League, Milwaukee split with the Chicago Cubs, winning 2-1, then losing 9-3. San Francisco took second, beating Los Angeles 8-6 and then 6-5 in 16 innings. Pittsburgh split with Philadelphia, losing 9-0 after a 5-2 victory. St. Louis defeated Cincinnati 1-0, then lost 9-3.

Dick Gernert's two-run triple broke a 1-1 tie in the sixth inning of the opener for Boston and Bowsfield sailed. The Yankees scored two in the nightcap first without a hit against Delock (12-5), then put it away on a pair of RBI singles by Bill Skowron in the third and fifth innings. Gene Stephens, still subbing for ailing Ted Williams, had two of Boston's hits.

Herb Score, Cleveland's jinxed southpaw, made his first appearance since July 15 and saved the opener for Don Ferrarese (2-4) with ninth-inning relief. Billy Pierce (15-9) lost it, beaten by a pair of Sox errors in a three-run third inning and Minnie Minoso's 21st home run, with two on, in the first. Rookie Gary Bell (8-8) won the nightcap with an eight-hitter while the Tribe banged a dozen hits, one Vic Power's three-run homer, off loser Bob Shaw (5-4) and three relievers.

Jack Harshman (11-11) nailed his third shutout for Baltimore in a four-hit duel with loser Camilo Pascual (7-8) and Dick Hyde in the opener. Bob Nieman drove in both Bird runs, with a sacrifice fly and a single. Billy O'Dell (13-10) won the second game, giving up 11 hits but not walking a man. Gus Triandos and Dick Williams, who drove in four runs, homered for the Orioles. Jim Constable (1-2) lost it as the Nats became the first to be eliminated in the race.

Frank Bolling counted, the clincher with a two-run single as the Tigers scored five in the fifth inning of the opener. Then he hit a pair of home runs that backed up the four-hit pitching of Paul Foytack (11-11) in the second game.

Stockholder Will Fight Any Bid To Move Nats

WASHINGTON (AP) — Minority stockholder H. Gabriel Murphy said today that any move by the Washington Senators toward Minneapolis would be fought in court.

"And how!" Murphy replied when asked if he intended to take legal steps against any effort to transfer the capital's American League baseball team.

It developed that Club President Calvin Griffith could—if he chose—seek league permission for a shift without further action by his board of directors.

The directors made something of a surprise omission Friday when they met for almost two hours and did not take up the question of a move to Minneapolis.

Unrecalled at the time, however, was the fact they previously had empowered Griffith to ask approval of a transfer if the club ever decided it wanted to leave Washington.

This authority was conferred by a resolution adopted in June. Griffith carried it to a league meeting at the All-Star Game in Baltimore, but he was advised to suppress any thought of deserting Washington.

Other club owners suggested baseball needed representation in the capital. They also suggested the timing was bad, with Congress studying antitrust legislation affecting baseball.

Unless the resolution were rescinded, Griffith could attend a league meeting scheduled for Chicago next Monday with the same authority to request a shift.

The most recent U. S. president, under whom the national debt was less when he retired from office than when he was elected, was Calvin Coolidge.

Wood Begins Rebuilding In His First Year At Wellsville

4 Lettermen Return From Last Season

By CHUCK CRONIN

Youthful Ken Woods, who applied the winning touch to the football picture during his three years at Fairfield - Waterford, faces a prodigious task in his first year at Wellsville.

As successor to Bill Radd, who moved on to Sebring after only one year with the Tigers, Woods finds himself in the midst of a major rebuilding job. Graduation struck the 1957 team heavily, leaving only four lettermen, plus an array of inexperienced juniors and sophomores from a losing ball club.

—:—

GRADUATION claimed 13 members of Radd's 1957 club which won three and lost six. Wellsville defeated only Chester, Cadiz and Bridgeport. And one of its defeats was a 68-0 trouncing by Lisbon in the final game of the season.

Gone is the leading touchdown producer of last year, speedy fullback Chub Carter, plus the other three backfield regulars — quarterback Andy Holowaty and halfbacks Bill Thompson and John Dalonzo.

Carter, who also kicked Wellsville's first field goal in several years and added a host of extra points, is said to be heading for Michigan State University this year.

Also missing are linemen Francis Cannadate, Bob Plate, Larry Bowers, Andy Lynn, Lon Bemis and Tom Siudak and halfback Jim Luckino.

HOWEVER, two of the returning veterans will give the Tigers plenty of heft on the forward wall, the brightest outlook in the Tiger camp.

Back to lead Wellsville this year are end Bob Brown, 170 pounds, halfback Jim Stevens, 165, and linemen Leonard Cuti, 205, and Ralph Wagner, 245.

Brown, only a junior, was a defensive sparkplug last year and probably will get the starting call at one end slot when Wellsville clashes with the East Liverpool Potters in the grid preview of the Blue and White Nonpareil Club Friday night at Patterson Field.

Stevens is fast developing into a good halfback and will be dependend on to supply much of the Tiger offensive punch.

Cuti will go at right tackle, while Wagner, the squad's heaviest candidate, will get the call at defensive guard.

"We'll have a young team lacking experience," Woods said, adding that he was "well pleased" with the team's hustle and spirit thus far.

WHILE THE lack of overall experience and depth will be chief problems, the performances of several freshmen and sophomores have brightened things somewhat, Woods observed.

Woods singled out John Euill, 140-pound freshman backfield candidate, as "very promising." Pat Creaturo, a 120-pound junior, has been performing well as halfback and is making a strong bid for the starting eleven.

Other halfback candidates are Leonard Johnson, a junior who is a newcomer to Wellsville, and Bob Byers, also a junior.

Sophomore Bob Kiggans is being groomed for the all - important quarterback post, though being pushed for the job by Doug Thomas, a southpaw passer. Kiggans scales about 150. Ed Bauer, a junior, is also a quarterback candidate.

The Tigers will use the straight T and the split T, Woods said, with Kiggans set to do most of the passing.

At fullback, Bob Delposen, 180-pound junior, probably will get the starting call, with Dick Brown, 140-pound sophomore, ready for duty when needed.

—:—

TEAMING with the hefty Cuti and Wagner and the rugged Brown on the line will be guard Eddie Stone, a 200-pounder, who saw action last year, and Phillip Vernon, an 180-pound guard, who has been turning in some rugged performances in practice.

Other guard candidates are Dick Kountz, 160, Bob Nightingale, 150, and Robert Walker, 145, all lacking experience.

Phil Baldwin, up from last year's reserves, is the leading candidate for center. Jerry Heffner, 140-pound sophomore, is also listed for the pivot post.

Woods also commended Martin Stempler, a 140-pound senior end, for good work in recent drills. Stempler is also inexperienced but may see some action this fall, he indicated.

The 40 candidates include only three seniors, nine juniors, 18 sophomores and 10 freshmen, reflecting Woods' problem of overall inexperience.

—:—

THE INJURY problem with the Tigers hasn't been too serious thus far, with only a few of the second-stringers missing drills. Jim White, sophomore guard, is out with a broken nose and Frank Luckino, a freshman halfback, suffered a broken arm early in the practice session.

Woods, who received his master's degree from the University of Pittsburgh after graduating from Cedarville College, is hoping to whip up fresh enthusiasm among the Wellsville fans.

Pictures of individual players will be placed in business establishments soon, he said, and movies of each game will be taken and later screened at a public gathering.

The Tigers open Sept. 12 with Austintown Fitch, the first of four straight home games. The others are against Toronto, Chester and Bellaire St. John's.

The squad will travel to Cadiz Oct. 10 and then play away games with Salem, Jefferson Union and Mingo before the finale with Lisbon Nov. 14 at Nicholson Stadium.

TIGER COACHING STAFF. Three of four Wellsville High School football coaches are shown discussing prospects for the approaching season during drills at Nicholson Stadium. Ken Woods, right, succeeds Bill Radd as the head Tiger mentor. Woods comes to Wellsville from Fairfield-Waterford where his teams showed an overall grid record of 19 wins and five losses. Kneeling are Jack McDevitt, left, and Carl Firm, who are assisting Woods in workouts. McDevitt is head basketball coach. Royd Hodge, former East Liverpool coach now with Wellsville, was not present when the picture was taken.

Reds' Deal For Kellner Seen One Of Shrewdest

St. LOUIS (AP)— The Cincinnati Redlegs picked up at midseason what looked like just another washed - up pitcher with enough stuff left to go a few relief rounds. His name is Alex Kellner.

The deal looks now like one of the shrewdest of the year.

Kellner took over in the first inning Monday and held St. Louis' Cardinals scoreless while his teammates pounded out a 9-3 nightcap victory.

Two errors helped St. Louis score the run in a 1-0 triumph that cut off the Reds' streak at six games in the doubleheader's first game.

Kellner, a husky southpaw, gave up only five hits. And he contributed one run and batted in three with two hits.

He has picked up five victories against three early defeats since joining the Reds, and has three complete games.

Two hits off starter Brooks Lawrence and an error put the Reds three runs behind in the first inning of the nightcap.

But the rest of the scoring was all by Redlegs — four runs in the third inning, three in the fifth and two in the seventh.

The four-run uprising started with walks to Roy McMillan and Kellner. After Johnny Temple's sacrifice, Jerry Lynch singled in the first run. Frankie Robinson came through with a run-producing double. Burgess walked to fill the bases. George Crowe lashed a two-run single.

Robinson's 27th homer of the season led off the fifth inning. Singles by Crowe and Burgess plus a walk to Alex Grammas filled the bases, setting up Kellner's two-run single to center.

In the seventh, two more insurance markers came on straight singles by Grammas, Eddie Miksis, Kellner and Temple.

The opener was a tight pitching duel between Cardinal Wilmer Mizell and Redleg southpaw Joe Nuxhall.

Neither side could get more than four hits, but the Reds couldn't capitalize on Mizell's wobbly pitching. He gave up nine walks and five Redlegs stole bases on him.

The unearned run came in the second inning. Boyer was safe on Grammas' bobble and reached third when Temple missed Gene Green's easy roller. Moon singled him home.

The last game against the Cards here this season comes tonight with Bob Purkey pitching against rookie Bob Mabe.

The earth revolves at the rate of about 1,000 miles an hour at the Equator.

Blue And White Club To Meet Tonight At 8

Movies of a recent scrimmage game between East Liverpool and Youngstown East will be screened by football coach Lou Venditti when the Blue and White Nonpariel Club meets tonight at 8 in the YMCA. A colored film, "Meet The Potters", also will be shown. Hap Tullis, president, will conduct business.

On Wildcats' Squad

Indians Beat White Sox 2, Return Home

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Indians were back today for their last long home stand of the season, sporting a four-game winning string and only a game and a half away from the lower rung of the American League's first division.

Wednesday night they open with the Kansas City Athletics.

Next weekend three games are scheduled with the second - place Chicago White Sox whom the Indians humbled 6-5 and 7-1 before 17-326 fans in Comiskey Park Monday.

Herb Score made his first appearance since July 15 by pitching 2-3 of an inning in relief in the opener. Sidelined by a sore arm, he rejoined the club only three days ago.

The Indians had a 6-2 lead when Score relieved Don Ferrarese with one out and bases loaded in the ninth. He got the first batter on a pop. Then covering first base on a grounder, Score muffed a throw from Vic Power and threw wild to the plate to let three runs across. But he fanned the next batter, Jim Landis, to save Ferrarese's second victory against four losses.

Minnie Minoso's 21st home run after a single by Bob Avila and a double by Vic Power got Cleveland off to a first-inning 3-0 lead in the opener against Billy Pierce, who took his ninth loss against 15 won. In the third inning the Tribe added three unearned runs — two when Al Smith dropped a fly and another when Billy Goodman booted a grounder.

Gary Bell rationed eight Chicago hits in the nightcap, with Goodman getting a double and two singles and Don Mueller three singles. A sacrifice fly by Jim Rivera after singles by Earl Torgeson and Mueller in the fourth ruined Bell's shutout, but he evened his pitching record at 8-8.

Vic Power's 12th home run followed a walk and Mickey Vernon's single in the third inning of the nightcap and sent starter Bob Shaw to defeat.

Memphis Beats Dayton To Win NABF Crown

FLINT, MICH. (AP)—Memphis was the owner of the National Amateur Baseball Federation championship today for the first time in the 45 years of the double elimination tournament.

The Tennessee city won the crown Monday by defeating Dayton, Ohio, in the finals 5-2.

Giants Win 2, Pirates Split

Buhl Shackles Cubs, 2-1, In First Start Since May

By The Associated Press

Bob Buhl, the missing 18-game winner who was hardly missed, is back with the Milwaukee Braves. And right in form too.

Pitching for the first time since May 13, when he dropped out with a bum shoulder, Buhl won the opener of the Braves' Labor Day double-header with Chicago, beating the Cubs 2-1 with an eight-hitter. He walked only one, struck out three and blanked the Cubs after the first inning.

The Braves lost the nightcap 9-3. Their National League lead is now 7½ games.

San Francisco broke a tie with Pittsburgh for second place by beating Los Angeles 8-6 and 6-5. The second game went 16 innings, longest in the majors this year. The Pirates, 8½ games back, lost 9-0 to Philadelphia after a 5-2 victory.

Cincinnati held fourth place, beating St. Louis 9-3 after a 1-0 defeat.

In the American League, the New York Yankees split a pair of 4-2 decisions with Boston. Chicago's second-place White Sox lost two to Cleveland 6-5 and 7-1. Baltimore swept Washington 2-0 and 10-1. Detroit beat Kansas City twice, 7-4 and 5-1.

The Cubs got their run off Buhl (5-2) on Al Dark's double and Ernie Banks' single in the first. Milwaukee put it away in the fourth, scoring two on an error and singles by Ed Mathews and Hank Aaron, who split six of the Braves' nine hits off Bob Anderson (1-1).

A four-run third, capped by Bobby Thomson's two-run single, won the nightcap for the Cubs against ex-mate Bob Rush (7-6). Glen Hobbie (10-6) took his third from the Braves.

Long-slumping Willie Mays was 6 for 9, including his 26th and 27th home runs, in the double-header for the Giants. They tied the nightcap 4-all on Bob Schmidt's two-out, two-run homer in the ninth, then won it with two in the 16th on Whitey Lockman's homer, Ray Jablonski's single and two Dodger errors. Mike McCormick (11-7), who gave up a run in the Dodgers' 16th, was the winner with Johnny Podres (12-11) the loser, both in relief.

Schmidt's two-run double put the opener away as the Giants scored three in the seventh.

A six-hitter by Vern Law (11-11) did the job for the Pirates in the first game. He had a shutout until Henry Anderson's home run in the ninth. Jack Sanford (8-12) lost it. Lefty Curt Simmons (7-13) blanked the Pirates on four hits in the nightcap while Ted Kazanski, who had three doubles, and Wally Post each drove in three runs for the Phils. Bob Porterfield (2-6) lost it.

An unearned run in the second inning won the opener for the Cards as Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell (9-10) beat Joe Nuxhall (11-10) in a duel of four hitters. George Crowe capped a four-run third with a two-run single in the nightcap for the Reds, and they counted three more in the fifth, when Frank Robinson hit a 450-foot-plus homer, his 27th. Alex Kellner blanked the Cards on five hits after releiving Brooks Lawrence in the first inning. Jim Brosnan (9-8) lost it.

Great Pitching So-So Now

How Good Are Yankees?

By The Associated Press

Just how good are these New York Yankees who lead the American League by 11½ games?

A month ago today they led by 17 games. They've won 14 of 31 games since—a scrawny .452 percentage that's only sixth best in the AL for that span.

With a month to go before their expected return match in the World Series with the champion Milwaukee Braves, the Yankees' great pitching has become so-so. Bob Turley is a 20-game winner, but Whitey Ford and Don Larsen are nursing sore arms. And after those three come Art Ditmar, Bobby Shantz, Johnny Kucks and Duke Maas. Hardly a fearsome foursome. Ryne Duren, the tight-pitch terror of the bullpen, hasn't been the same since he was injured.

Only two regulars — Elston Howard (.329) and Norm Siebern (.303) — are hitting over .300. Mickey Mantle is at .300.

Shantz and Maas came through with complete games in the Labor Day double-header, but the Yankees came off with only a split against Boston, getting only eight hits in a pair of 4-2 decisions. Young Ted Bowsfield (3-0) won the opener with a four-hitter. Maas then matched the four-hit pitching of Ike Delock for the nightcap victory.

Still, the Yankees added a game to their lead. Chicago's second-place White Sox lost a pair to Cleveland 6-5 and 7-1. Baltimore swept Washington 2-0 and 10-1. Detroit took two at Kansas City 7-4 and 5-1.

In the National League, Milwaukee split with the Chicago Cubs, winning 2-1, then losing 9-3. San Francisco took second, beating Los Angeles 8-6 and then 6-5 in 16 innings. Pittsburgh split with Philadelphia, losing 9-0 after a 5-2 victory. St. Louis defeated Cincinnati 1-0, then lost 9-3.

Dick Gernert's two-run triple broke a 1-1 tie in the sixth inning of the opener for Boston and Bowsfield sailed. The Yankees scored two in the nightcap first without a hit against Delock (12-5), then put it away on a pair of RBI singles by Bill Skowron in the third and fifth innings. Gene Stephens, still subbing for ailing Ted Williams, had two of Boston's hits.

Herb Score, Cleveland's jinxed southpaw, made his first appearance since July 15 and saved the opener for Don Ferrarese (2-4) with ninth-inning relief. Billy Pierce (15-9) lost it, beaten by a pair of Sox errors in a three-run third inning and Minnie Minoso's 21st home run, with two on, in the first. Rookie Gary Bell (8-8) won the nightcap with an eight-hitter while the Tribe banged a dozen hits, one Vic Power's three-run homer, off loser Bob Shaw (5-4) and three relievers.

Jack Harshman (11-11) nailed his third shutout for Baltimore in a four-hit duel with loser Camilo Pascual (7-8) and Dick Hyde in the opener. Bob Nieman drove in both Bird runs, with a sacrifice fly and a single. Billy O'Dell (13-10) won the second game, giving up 11 hits but not walking a man. Gus Triandos and Dick Williams, who drove in four runs, homered for the Orioles. Jim Constable (1-2) lost it as the Nats became the first to be eliminated in the race.

Frank Bolling counted, the clincher with a two-run single as the Tigers scored five in the fifth inning of the opener. Then he hit a pair of home runs that backed up the four-hit pitching of Paul Foytack (11-11) in the second game.

Stockholder Will Fight Any Bid To Move Nats

WASHINGTON (AP) — Minority stockholder H. Gabriel Murphy said today that any move by the Washington Senators toward Minneapolis would be fought in court.

"And how!" Murphy replied when asked if he intended to take legal steps against any effort to transfer the capital's American League baseball team.

It developed that Club President Calvin Griffith could—if he chose—seek league permission for a shift without further action by his board of directors.

The directors made something of a surprise omission Friday when they met for almost two hours and did not take up the question of a move to Minneapolis.

Unrecalled at the time, however, was the fact they previously had empowered Griffith to ask approval of a transfer if the club ever decided it wanted to leave Washington.

This authority was conferred by a resolution adopted in June. Griffith carried it to a league meeting at the All-Star Game in Baltimore, but he was advised to suppress any thought of deserting Washington.

Other club owners suggested baseball needed representation in the capital. They also suggested the timing was bad, with Congress studying antitrust legislation affecting baseball.

Unless the resolution were rescinded, Griffith could attend a league meeting scheduled for Chicago next Monday with the same authority to request a shift.

The most recent U. S. president, under whom the national debt was less when he retired from office than when he was elected, was Calvin Coolidge.

College Grid Theme Song's 'Work, Work'

By The Associated Press

The theme song is the same on all college football practice fields today — work, work, work.

The tuning up began Monday as the official opening of fall practice got under way — in some places in mid-season form.

Opening day activity varied from the usual picture taking sequences and equipment and textbook disbursement to full fledged scrimmages and pre-dawn and post-sunset workouts.

In many cases coaches oriented their players on the rule changes affecting blocking and substitution and then went through a brief dummy drill and calesthentics workout.

At Ohio State, Coach Woody Hayes didn't bother to look at the calendar. He put the defending Big Ten Conference and Rose Bowl titlists throug a scrimmage that saw two guards emerge with a broken nose and smashed finger, respectively, and center Dan Fronk get five stitches to close a cut on his temple.

Virginia Military Institute, 1957 Southern Conference champ, had its 46 man squad out for a predawn workout under Coach John McManus.

Up in Cambridge, Mass., Coach John Yovicsin had 63 Harvard candidates, including 19 lettermen, going through conditioning and dummy drills that wound up under the lights.

UCLA, whose luck turned bad before practice started with the sudden death of Henry "Red" Sanders, began its last fall practice as a member of the doomed Pacific Coast Conference without new Coach George Dickerson. Dickerson is in UCLA Hospital with a nervous condition that will sideline him most of the week. Top aide Bill Barnes is in charge.

Elsewhere, Notre Dame began its 70th football season with 25 lettermen among 87 candidates answering Coach Terry Brennan's summons. Pitt spent two sessions on fundamentals while Rutgers Coach John Stiegman put his 50 players through a hard contact drill.

In the conferences Michigan State Coach Duffy Daugherty had 77 out for practice, including 24 lettermen on a team expected to give Ohio State a battle for the Big Ten title.

Milt Bruhn had his largest turnout of lettermen in three years at Wisconsin as 27 reported for practice. Ray Eliot began his 17th season at Illinois with a first team of lettermen and eight-non lettermen on his second team.

Southwest Conference champion Rice had 63 out for the first day while Baylor Coach Sam Boyd described his 55 candidates as "lean and hungry." Texas Christian Coach Abe Martin was displeased with the physical shape of the top-rated team in the Southwest as was Texas Coach Darrell Royal with his 67 aspirants.

William & Mary had 70 out for the first day, largest turnout in the school's history while West Virginia began "lard trimming" sessions for most of its 57 players, picked as a likely Southern Conference champ.

Atlantic Coach Conference champion North Carolina State went through a heavy workout in 90-degree heat while Wake Forest Coach Paul Amen went to work with a full scrimmage. North Carolina did a bit of scrimmaging, as did neighbor South Carolina.

Yesterday's STARS

Pitching — Curt Simmons, Phillies, blanked the Pirates on four hits, two of them in eighth inning, while striking out seven and not walking a man for 9-0 victory after Phils had lost opener 5-2.

Hitting — Willie Mays, Giants, had six hits in nine at bats in 8-6 and 6-5 sweep over the Dodgers, hitting a home run and driving in two runs in each game.

Round Table Fails In Top Money Effort

By The Associated Press

Round Table headed for Atlantic City and the Sept. 13 running of the $100,000 added United Nations Handicap today still needing $48,452 to supplant Nashua as the leading money winning horse.

The 4-year-old son of Princequillo failed in a bid for a money winning record Monday when he was soundly whipped by Mrs. Adele L. Rand's Clem in the $139,650 Washington Park Handicap at Arlington Park.

Instead of the winner's share of $94,175, Travis M. Kerr's millionaire had to be content with $25,000 second money. This boosted Round Table's earnings to $1,240,114 compared to Nashua's record $1,288,565.

Record Race Crowd

CLEVELAND (AP)— A record attendance for the racing season in Ohio, 13,021 who bet $820,535, watched Wet Back win the $15,500 Youthful Stakes Monday at Randall Park. Jockey John Rotz, who had four winners in the nine race program, was astride Wet Back which paid $11, $5 and $3.80. Winning time was 1:12 2-5.

American League 'Sick' With Yankee Domination

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK (AP) —The American League is not dead, just sick.

That's what a lot of people in the rival National League think. They can't understand why the seven other clubs in the junior circuit hate the Yankees. Without the championship New York team to fight its battles virtually year after year, the American League would really be dead.

As soon as the Yankees wrap up the 1958 flag, they will have won 10 pennants in the last 12 years. If you accept wartime baseball as normal (1944-45) the Yankees have won 17 of the last 21 races.

Since the Yankees started clamping a hammerlock on the World Series in 1947, only the Cleveland Indians have been able to break into the monotomous string of triumphs. They won it in 1948 and again in 1954. Since then they have fallen from eminence.

Today, despite the denials of top officials and club owners, the American League is in a disorganized state.

The Washington Senators' Calvin Griffith, disgusted with the way his perennial second division clubs have been drawing, wants to move to Minneapolis. His colleagues, fearful that the National League might leap into the nation's capital won't let him.

With Cleveland a certainty to dip to a new 13 - year low in attendance this season, William Daley, the Indians' board chairman, also wants to move to Minneapolis.

Latest attendance figures show that the National League is outdrawing the American by more than 2,300,000. Every club in the junior circuit shows a decrease in attendance from last year. Even the Yankees.

It is no secret why. All semblance of a pennant race disappeared as far back as last May. The biggest sufferers have been Chicago, Boston and Cleveland.

Their deficit would have been much worse had it not been for the Yankees, the only attraction left. New York will soon represent one third of all the road attendance in the league. This means that six-sevenths of the time, the other clubs aren't drawing much more than enough to make expenses.

Whose fault is it? The Yankees who are dominating their league so completely as to kill off all interest? The other seven clubs, who appear to have the deep-seated conviction that the Yankees simply cannot be beaten?

Wherever the fault lies, the situation today appears worse than ever. The current Yankee team, which Manager Casey Stengel admits is not as good as any of his previous pennant winners, is winning easier than any of his eight previous champions.

Lisbon Starts Sale Of Football Tickets

LISBON — Reserved season football tickets went on sale today at Morgan's and Hamilton's drugstores for the five home games of Lisbon High School, according to George M. Nace Jr., facuity manager. The season tickets sale will close Sept. 14, he said.

Lisbon will play Salem in a 16-minute preview Friday night at East Liverpool.

Ohio Teams Win

CLEVELAND (AP)— Three of the four teams that reached championship finals in the Amateur Softball Assn.'s slow pitch tournament Monday were Ohio teams. The Cincinnati Turbine Jets successfully defended its industrial division title by defeating the Cincinnati Firefighters 12-5. Among the 32 entrants in the open division, Detroit won six without a loss, besting Cleveland Sheffield Bronze 8-5 to succeed Newport, Ky. as champion.

367,592 Fans Wager $22 Million At Tracks

By The Associated Press

A total of 367,592 fans wagered $22,958,787 at 17 running tracks and nine trotting and pacing ovals on Labor Day.

The 17 tracks at which the thoroughbreds performed attracted 291,284 as compared to 275,141 at 11 tracks on Labor Day 1957. They sent $18,706,015 through the parimutuel machines as against $16,645,048 a year ago.

The trotters and pacers drew 76,308, mostly at night, with the handle reaching $4,252,772.

Wins Rifle Title

CAMP PERRY, Ohio (AP) — With 493 out of a possible 500, Marine T. Sgt. V D Mitchell of Cardiff, Calif. won the National Service Rifle Championship here Monday. Second among 1,800 marksmen competing over four days was Army Sgt. 1C Marvin Fitzpatrick of Columbus, Ga., who also had 493 but had only 45 shots in the inner circle of the bullseye, against 47 for Mitchell.

Pro In Two Sports

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Dick Judd, tennis professional at the Cottonwood Club here, is a versatile athlete. He advanced to Class AAA baseball in the New York Yankee farm system, was an amateur hockey player for three years and a pro for four years. He has been a tennis pro for three years, coming here from the California Racket Club. He started playing tennis to strengthen an arm injured as a youth.

On Sept. 20, 1814 after the national capitol had been destroyed by the British, Congress moved into Blodgett's Hotel under guard of U.S Marines.

Charleston's Senators Win 1st AA Flag

CHARLESTON (AP) — Labor Day 1952 was a red-letter day for the Charleston Senators and their fans in this smallest city in Triple-A ball.

That was the day the Senators won their first American Association pennant. The club, which finished in seventh place last year, took the flag in championship style —with a two-game sweep over the Louisville Colonels.

Tight pitching which has characterized this club all year was the dominant factor in last night's sweep before more than 5,000 of the faithful at Watt Powell Park.

Young Jerry Davie handcuffed the Colonels with three singles in the nine-inning opener as the Senators won a 7-1 decision with Ron Samford and Bobo Osborne hitting homers.

The veteran Art Houtteman twirled a five-hitter in the nightcap as the Senators came off with a 5-1 decision. Stan Palys struck a double in the fifth to break a 1-1 tie and send the Senators out in front for good.

The Senators wind up the season schedule this week with five home games. They play Louisville in single games tonight and tomorrow night and then Indianapolis comes to town for a three-game series.

Patterson Named Fighter Of Month; NBA Cites Liston

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The National Boxing Assn. today chose heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson as its boxer-of-the-month for August and took notice of a newcomer among boxing's big boys.

Patterson won the nod for stopping Roy Harris of Cut And Shoot, Tex., in the 12th round of their heavyweight title bout at Los Angeles Aug. 18.

The newcomer to the heavyweight ratings is 26-year-old Sonny Liston, a St. Louis boy now fighting out of Philadelphia.

Liston has a 19-1 record. His only loss was to Marty Marshall in a four-round decision. He has kayoed Julio Mederos and Wayne Bethea.

Liston was ranked ninth among logical contenders to Patterson's crown. Harris was demoted to fifth.

Two other newcomers also made this month's rating—middleweight Jimmy Beecham of Miami, Fla. and welterweight Rudell Stitch of Louisville, Ky. Both were ranked 10th.

Flag-Bound Royals Drop Pair To Bisons

By The Associated Press

It might have been safer for the Montreal Royals to hit the road over the Labor Day weekend than stay at home.

Monday the Royals played host to the Buffalo Bisons with hope of reducing the magic number for clinching the pennant to one.

But the Bisons whipped the Royals twice, 5-3 and 5-1.

The Toronto Maple Leafs won two from the Rochester Red Wings 2-1 and 4-3. The Havana Sugar Kings swept two from the Richmond Virginians 2-1 and 2-1 and the Miami Marlins defeated the Columbus Jets 8-1 after losing 2-0.

Cincinnati U.'s Gridders Radiate Optimism For '58

CINCINNATI (AP) — The University of Cincinnati football training camp is one of the few in this area that radiates confidence and optimism.

Cincinnati opened its fall drills Monday, along with Xavier and Miami in southwest Ohio.

The 52-man squad has until Sept. 20 to prep for the first game, but dawn-to-dark instruction started right off.

Coach Harry Connolly of Xavier has only two weeks before the first game with St. Joseph College.

And of his 48 candidates, only 11 are veterans, including Capt. Art Delconte of Philadelphia, regular tackle for two seasons.

The biggest question mark for Coach Johnny Pont of Miami is Nick Mourouzis, No. 1 quarterback last year who broke his leg in the Xavier game.

Sophomore Tackle And Plebe Back Please WVU's Mentor

JACKSON'S MILL, W. Va (AP) — The performances of a sophomore tackle Blaine Staats and freshman quarterback Dick Dailey brought pleased smiles to West Virginia Coach Art Lewis during the opening drills of the Mountaineers' football training camp here.

Staats, one of the biggest of the candidates at 250 pounds, proved to be the fastest of the 10 varsity tackles in wind sprints. The Mason City lad, tabbed to be one of the outstanding linemen in WVU history, was the only varsity tackle to report in at playing weight, Lewis said.

Dailey, 185-pound southpaw from Martinsburg, shone in a brief scrimmage session held among the 34-man freshman squad. The Martinsburg lad, who made the second all-State Class AA team last year, excelled on his lefthanded ball handling and passing. Dailey is one of four frosh quarterbacks here.

Lewis put the varsity and frosh through stiff training sessions designed to trim some of the fat off of the candidates. The Mountaineer mentor noted that the varsity tackles especially needed to trim down. He ordered extra duty for them.

The weather was ideal for the opening day of practice yesterday with the temperature in the 70s and a bit of a breeze blowing. The squad was divided into groups for individual instructions by the various coaches.

One newcomer reporting was a transfer from Texas A & M. He is Harry Truax, 210 pound, 6-3 guard of Montgomery, Tex. He attended A & M last year for a while and will not be eligible to play for WVU this season. Truax is a native of Benwood and has relatives there.

The varsity roster was cut to 57 with the failure of sophomore halfback George Ruth of Keyport, N.J. to report.

College Grid Theme Song's 'Work, Work'

By The Associated Press

The theme song is the same on all college football practice fields today — work, work, work.

The tuning up began Monday as the official opening of fall practice got under way — in some places in mid-season form.

Opening day activity varied from the usual picture taking sequences and equipment and textbook disbursement to full fledged scrimmages and pre-dawn and post-sunset workouts.

In many cases coaches oriented their players on the rule changes affecting blocking and substitution and then went through a brief dummy drill and calesthentics workout.

At Ohio State, Coach Woody Hayes didn't bother to look at the calendar. He put the defending Big Ten Conference and Rose Bowl titlists throug a scrimmage that saw two guards emerge with a broken nose and smashed finger, respectively, and center Dan Fronk get five stitches to close a cut on his temple.

Virginia Military Institute, 1957 Southern Conference champ, had its 46 man squad out for a pre-dawn workout under Coach John McManus.

Up in Cambridge, Mass., Coach John Yovicsin had 63 Harvard candidates, including 19 lettermen, going through conditioning and dummy drills that wound up under the lights.

UCLA, whose luck turned bad before practice started with the sudden death of Henry "Red" Sanders, began its last fall practice as a member of the doomed Pacific Coast Conference without new Coach George Dickerson. Dickerson is in UCLA Hospital with a nervous condition that will sideline him most of the week. Top aide Bill Barnes is in charge.

Elsewhere, Notre Dame began its 70th football season with 25 lettermen among 87 candidates answering Coach Terry Brennan's summons. Pitt spent two sessions on fundamentals while Rutgers Coach John Stiegman put his 50 players through a hard contact drill.

In the conferences Michigan State Coach Duffy Daugherty had 77 out for practice, including 24 lettermen on a team expected to give Ohio State a battle for the Big Ten title.

Milt Bruhn had his largest turnout of lettermen in three years at Wisconsin as 27 reported for practice. Ray Eliot began his 17th season at Illinois with a first team of lettermen and eight-non lettermen on his second team.

Southwest Conference champion Rice had 63 out for the first day while Baylor Coach Sam Boyd described his 55 candidates as "lean and hungry." Texas Christian Coach Abe Martin was displeased with the physical shape of the top-rated team in the Southwest as was Texas Coach Darrell Royal with his 67 aspirants.

William & Mary had 70 out for the first day, largest turnout in the school's history while West Virginia began "lard trimming" sessions for most of its 57 players, picked as a likely Southern Conference champ.

Atlantic Coach Conference champion North Carolina State went through a heavy workout in 90-degree heat while Wake Forest Coach Paul Amen went to work with a full scrimmage. North Carolina did a bit of scrimmaging, as did neighbor South Carolina.

Yesterday's STARS

Pitching — Curt Simmons, Pillies, blanked the Pirates on four hits, two of them in eighth inning, while striking out seven and not walking a man for 9-0 victory after Phils had lost opener 5-2.

Hitting — Willie Mays, Giants, had six hits in nine at bats in 8-6 and 6-5 sweep over the Dodgers, hitting a home run and driving in two runs in each game.

Round Table Fails In Top Money Effort

By The Associated Press

Round Table headed for Atlantic City and the Sept. 13 running of the $100,000 added United Nations Handicap today still needing $48,452 to supplant Nashua as the leading money winning horse.

The 4-year-old son of Princequillo failed in a bid for a money winning record Monday when he was soundly whipped by Mrs. Adele L. Rand's Clem in the $139,650 Washington Park Handicap at Arlington Park.

Instead of the winner's share of $94,175, Travis M. Kerr's millionaire had to be content with $25,000 second money. This boosted Round Table's earnings to $1,240,114 compared to Nashua's record $1,288,565.

Record Race Crowd

CLEVELAND (AP)— A record attendance for the racing season in Ohio, 13,021 who bet $820,535, watched Wet Back win the $15,500 Youthful Stakes Monday at Randall Park. Jockey John Rotz, who had four winners in the nine race program, was astride Wet Back which paid $11, $5 and $3.80. Winning time was 1:12 2-5.

VFW LITTLE LEAGUE CHAMPS. Wellsville's Little League champs of the past baseball season are shown with two trophies they received Monday from the Junior Chamber of Commerce. The presentation was made by Wayne Rose, president. The team was sponsored by Veterans of Foreign Wars. First row, left to right, are Robert Morehead, John Dicello, Jerry Medley, Scott MacLean, Paul LaScola, Richard Murray and Fred Wilson. Standing, left to right, are Albert O'Rourke, VFW commander, Donald Rawlings, Jeff MacLean, Tom Kountz, David Ewing, Bob Stevens, Steve Baldwin and Bill MacLean, manager. The Little Leaguers also received lapel pins from the Jaycees. The largest trophy is a traveling award. It must be won three straight times for permanent possession.

American League 'Sick' With Yankee Domination

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK (AP) —The American League is not dead, just sick.

That's what a lot of people in the rival National League think. They can't understand why the seven other clubs in the junior circuit hate the Yankees. Without the championship New York team to fight its battles virtually year after year, the American League would really be dead.

As soon as the Yankees wrap up the 1958 flag, they will have won 10 pennants in the last 12 years. If you accept wartime baseball as normal (1944-45) the Yankees have won 17 of the last 21 races.

Since the Yankees started clamping a hammerlock on the World Series in 1947, only the Cleveland Indians have been able to break into the monotomous string of triumphs. They won it in 1948 and again in 1954. Since then they have fallen from eminence.

Today, despite the denials of top officials and club owners, the American League is in a disorganized state.

The Washington Senators' Calvin Griffith, disgusted with the way his perennial second division clubs have been drawing, wants to move to Minneapolis. His colleagues, fearful that the National League might leap into the nation's capital won't let him.

With Cleveland a certainty to dip to a new 13 - year low in attendance this season, William Daley, the Indians' board chairman, also wants to move to Minneapolis.

Latest attendance figures show that the National League is outdrawing the American by more than 2,300,000. Every club in the junior circuit shows a decrease in attendance from last year. Even the Yankees.

It is no secret why. All semblance of a pennant race disappeared as far back as last May. The biggest sufferers have been Chicago, Boston and Cleveland.

Their deficit would have been much worse had it not been for the Yankees, the only attraction left. New York will soon represent one third of all the road attendance in the league. This means that six-sevenths of the time, the other clubs aren't drawing much more than enough to make expenses.

Whose fault is it? The Yankees who are dominating their league so completely as to kill off all interest? The other seven clubs, who appear to have the deep-seated conviction that the Yankees simply cannot be beaten?

Wherever the fault lies, the situation today appears worse than ever. The current Yankee team, which Manager Casey Stengel admits is not as good as any of his previous pennant winners, is winning easier than any of his eight previous champions.

Lisbon Starts Sale Of Football Tickets

LISBON — Reserved season football tickets went on sale today at Morgan's and Hamilton's drugstores for the five home games of Lisbon High School, according to George M. Nace Jr., facuity manager. The season tickets sale will close Sept. 14, he said.

Lisbon will play Salem in a 16-minute preview Friday night at East Liverpool.

Ohio Teams Win

CLEVELAND (AP)— Three of the four teams that reached championship finals in the Amateur Softball Assn.'s slow pitch tournament Monday were Ohio teams. The Cincinnati Turbine Jets successfully defended its industrial division title by defeating the Cincinnati Firefighters 12-5. Among the 32 entrants in the open division, Detroit won six without a loss, besting Cleveland Sheffield Bronze 8-5 to succeed Newport, Ky. as champion.

367,592 Fans Wager $22 Million At Tracks

By The Associated Press

A total of 367,592 fans wagered $22,958,787 at 17 running tracks and nine trotting and pacing ovals on Labor Day.

The 17 tracks at which the thoroughbreds performed attracted 291,284 as compared to 275,141 at 11 tracks on Labor Day 1957. They sent $18,706,015 through the parimutuel machines as against $16,645,048 a year ago.

The trotters and pacers drew 76,308, mostly at night, with the handle reaching $4,252,772.

Wins Rifle Title

CAMP PERRY, Ohio (AP) — With 493 out of a possible 500, Marine T. Sgt. V. D. Mitchell of Cardiff, Calif. won the National Service Rifle Championship here Monday. Second among 1,800 marksmen competing over four days was Army Sgt. 1C Marvin Fitzpatrick of Columbus, Ga., who also had 493 but had only 45 shots in the inner circle of the bullseye, against 47 for Mitchell.

Pro In Two Sports

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Dick Judd, tennis professional at the Cottonwood Club here, is a versatile athlete. He advanced to Class AAA baseball in the New York Yankee farm system, was an amateur hockey player for three years and a pro for four years. He has been a tennis pro for three years, coming here from the California Racket Club. He started playing tennis to strengthen an arm injured as a youth.

On Sept. 20, 1814, after the national capitol had been destroyed by the British, Congress moved into Blodgett's Hotel under guard of U.S. Marines.

Charleston's Senators Win 1st AA Flag

CHARLESTON (AP) — Labor Day 1952 was a red-letter day for the Charleston Senators and their fans in this smallest city in Triple-A ball.

That was the day the Senators won their first American Association pennant. The club, which finished in seventh place last year, took the flag in championship style —with a two-game sweep over the Louisville Colonels.

Tight pitching which has characterized this club all year was the dominant factor in last night's sweep before more than 5,000 of the faithful at Watt Powell Park.

Young Jerry Davie handcuffed the Colonels with three singles in the nine-inning opener as the Senators won a 7-1 decision with Ron Samford and Bobo Osborne hitting homers.

The veteran Art Houtteman twirled a five-hitter in the nightcap as the Senators came off with a 5-1 decision. Stan Palys struck a double in the fifth to break a 1-1 tie and send the Senators out in front for good.

The Senators wind up the season schedule this week with five home games. They play Louisville in single games tonight and tomorrow night and then Indianapolis comes to town for a three-game series.

Patterson Named Fighter Of Month; NBA Cites Liston

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The National Boxing Assn. today chose heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson as its boxer-of-the-month for August and took notice of a newcomer among boxing's big boys.

Patterson won the nod for stopping Roy Harris of Cut And Shoot, Tex., in the 12th round of their heavyweight title bout at Los Angeles Aug. 18.

The newcomer to the heavyweight ratings is 26-year-old Sonny Liston, a St. Louis boy now fighting out of Philadelphia.

Liston has a 19-1 record. His only loss was to Marty Marshall in a four-round decision. He has kayoed Julio Mederos and Wayne Bethea.

Liston was ranked ninth among logical contenders to Patterson's crown. Harris was demoted to fifth.

Two other newcomers also made this month's rating—middleweight Jimmy Beecham of Miami, Fla. and welterweight Rudell Stitch of Louisville, Ky. Both were ranked 10th.

Flag-Bound Royals Drop Pair To Bisons

By The Associated Press

It might have been safer for the Montreal Royals to hit the road over the Labor Day weekend than stay at home.

Monday the Royals played host to the Buffalo Bisons with hope of reducing the magic number for clinching the pennant to one.

But the Bisons whipped the Royals twice, 5-3 and 5-1.

The Toronto Maple Leafs won two from the Rochester Red Wings 2-1 and 4-3. The Havana Sugar Kings swept two from the Richmond Virginians 2-1 and 2-1 and the Miami Marlins defeated the Columbus Jets 8-1 after losing 2-0.

Sophomore Tackle And Plebe Back Please WVU's Mentor

Staats, one of the biggest of the candidates at 250 pounds, proved to be the fastest of the 10 varsity tackles in wind sprints. The Mason City lad, tabbed to be one of the outstanding linemen in WVU history, was the only varsity tackle to report in at playing weight, Lewis said.

Dailey, 185-pound southpaw from Martinsburg, shone in a brief scrimmage session held among the 34-man freshman squad. The Martinsburg lad, who made the second all-State Class AA team last year, excelled on his lefthanded ball handling and passing. Dailey is one of four frosh quarterbacks here.

Lewis put the varsity and frosh through stiff training sessions designed to trim some of the fat off of the candidates. The Mountaineer mentor noted that the varsity tackles especially needed to trim down. He ordered extra duty for them.

The weather was ideal for the opening day of practice yesterday with the temperature in the 70s and a bit of a breeze blowing. The squad was divided into groups for individual instructions by the various coaches.

One newcomer reporting was a transfer from Texas A & M. He is Harry Truax, 210 pound, 6-3 guard of Montgomery, Tex. He attended A & M last year for a while and will not be eligible to play for WVU this season. Truax is a native of Benwood and has relatives there.

The varsity roster was cut to 57 with the failure of sophomore halfback George Ruth of Keyport, N.J. to report.

Cincinnati U.'s Gridders Radiate Optimism For '58

CINCINNATI (AP) — The University of Cincinnati football training camp is one of the few in this area that radiates confidence and optimism.

Cincinnati opened its fall drills Monday, along with Xavier and Miami in southwest Ohio.

The 52-man squad has until Sept. 20 to prep for the first game, but dawn-to-dark instruction started right off.

Coach Harry Connolly of Xavier has only two weeks before the first game with St. Joseph College.

And of his 48 candidates, only 11 are veterans, including Capt. Art Delconte of Philadelphia, regular tackle for two seasons.

The biggest question mark for Coach Johnny Pont of Miami is Nick Mourouzis, No. 1 quarterback last year who broke his leg in the Xavier game.

3 Others Claimed In Varied Accidents Over Long Weekend

By The Associated Press

Accidents claimed at least eight lives in West Virginia over the long Labor Day weekend. Five persons died on state highways, one drowned, one was asphyxiated and another fatally injured in a tractor mishap.

The drowning victim was Basil Roysden, 43, of Whitesville. His bruised and cut body was found in the Coal River near Whitesville's city limits yesterday shortly after he was reported running through the main street shouting "God has come!" He apparently fell from a bridge.

A coroner's inquest ruled accidental death by drowning.

Ronald Brackett, 18, of Ransom, Jefferson County, died yesterday from injuries suffered the day before when his tractor upset.

The body of John M. Riffle, 73-year-old semi-invalid, was found Sunday at his Crawford, Lewis County home which had been damaged by fire. Mortuary attendants said the victim was alone when fire broke out and he asphyxiated. He tried to crawl to safety.

The blaze caused little damage to the home which was converted from a school.

The traffic deaths reported between 6 p. m. Friday and midnight Monday included these victims:

George W. Jackson, 53, of Weirton, early Saturday when his car crashed into the rear of a halted tractor trailer on U. S. 22 at Weirton.

James H. Harper, 21, of Walker, Wood County, Saturday night in a car which ran off U. S. 50 east of Parkersburg.

Meredith R. Dixon, 13, and Jimmie Lee Campbell, 15, both of Belle, Kanawha County, both early Sunday morning when they were struck by a car on U. S. 60 as they reportedly were walking home from an all-night movie.

Frank Miller, 68, of Dixie, Nicholas County, fatally injured Sunday when he was struck by a pickup truck on W. Va. 16 at Dixie.

State Police at South Charleston said early today there were no reports of highway deaths in West Virginia on Labor Day.

Segregationist New South Africa Premier

CAPETOWN, South Africa (AP) — Hendrik Frensch Verwoerd, chief architect and executive of South Africa's policy of white supremacy and segregation, became the nation's prime minister today.

He succeeded Johannes G. Strijdom who died Aug. 24.

Verwoerd was chosen by a parliamentary caucus of the National party after two ballots.

The decision of the National party to turn the reins of government over to an uncompromising advocate of apartheid — segregation—apparently means that the party is determined to pursue its rigid policy of racial segregation.

Akron Driver Cracks National Hotrod Record

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Art Arfons took his "Green Monster" home to Akron, Ohio, today after the powerful dragster added another three miles to his national speed record.

Twice Monday Arfons blasted the aircraft engine-powered dragliner across a quartermile strip at 155.25 miles an hour in the National Hotrod Assn. championships.

Although he failed to exceed the official timing of 161.87 m.p.h. he posted Saturday, Arfons topped the national standard of 152.54 m.p.h. which he set here last year.

Small Triumphs Boost Will To Reduce

The start of a new season is an excellent time to take a fresh approach to slimming.

What does it take to stay with the right pattern of eating? You are probably convinced that the most important single ingredient is will power. Friends, you can't force will power, not for long any way, for the will is partly subconscious and for this reason not wholly controllable by conscious effort. Through strong desire and quickened interest, the will is released for purposeful action.

Ida Jean Kain

There it is dieters — the real secret of successful slimming is interest. Find ways to enliven your interest and you can stay enthusiastically on the course. The challenge from other overweights is invigorating since it puts you on your mettle. Competition adds zest. So let's see how other dieters are faring.

—:—

ONE HOMEMAKER who accepted the challenge to reduce from 170 to 145 pounds writes:

"This was the day I had planned to report a 10 pound loss. Alas, it is only 5 pounds. I had just about decided not to write, but your column using my letter made me realize that I am no longer alone in this fight and that to quit now would be unforgivable.

"Since snacks in the evening are largely responsible for the shape I'm in today, I'm going to commit the following quotation to memory and say it every time I'm tempted. Here it is from Hamlet, Act III, Scene IV.

". . .Refrain tonight;
And that shall lend a kind of easiness
To the next abstinence; and the next more easy;
For use almost can change the stamp of nature,
And master ev'n the devil or throw him out
With wondrous potency'."

That's the winning spirit! Will power has been described as "A long, strong cable braided from the fibers of many minor triumphs."

Mull that over dieters, for it puts a finger on the weak spot in the thinking of overweights who feel that 'just this once' can't possibly make any real difference.

DON'T UNDERESTIMATE the power of a single "No thank you." Each small victory makes it easier for you to deal with temptation the next time with "wonderous potency." Ere long you will get the triumphant feeling that you are in firm control. This in turn helps you to picture yourself shapely weight.

What you picture in your mind tends to actualize itself in fact for it gets into the subconscious mind. Add imaging or picturing to will power and you've got the winning technique.

For help with menus, send a long, stamped, self - addressed envelope for "Hunger Control Diet." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain in care of this newspaper. Post card requests cannot be answered.

Skin Diver Hooks Shark, Lucky To Escape With Life

NEW YORK (AP) — A 20-year-old skin diver went looking for small fish and found more than he bargained for. He was lucky to escape with his life.

John Leszczak was fishing underwater with a harpoon off Staten Island Monday. On one dive from his rowboat, he fired his harpoon into a six-foot shark. The shark headed for deeper water, entangling Leszczak in the harpoon line and dragging him behind. Leszczak struggled for freedom as the compressed air in his diving lung ran low. Finally, he untangled himself and surfaced gasping.

His cries were heard by William Gaylord, 36, and his son, William Jr., 12, of Swarthmore, Pa., who were in a boat.

They took the diver to a pier, where he was revived with oxygen and removed to a hospital.

While recuperating Monday night, Leszczak shook his head and said:

"It was the biggest fish I've ever seen."

Buddhist Leader Dies

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Bishop Enryo Shigefuji, 72, spiritual leader of more than 100,000 Buddhist followers in the United States and Canada, died Sunday of a stroke. Bishop Shigefuji was superintendent and titular head of Buddhist churches of America since 1948. He was born in Saga Prefecture, Japan.

Hospital Also Treats 2 Children, 2 Adults

A Pleasant Heights boy hurt in a fall from a horse was admitted Monday to City Hospital where two youngsters and two adults were treated following separate mishaps.

Bobby Campbell, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Campbell of Wyoming Ave., is in "fairly good" condition with a fractured right arm and laceration of the head received in a fall from a horse at the YMCA camp.

Phillip Netti Jr., 2, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Netti of Commerce St., Wellsville, was treated for a cut of the scalp received in a fall at home.

Mrs. Wanda Lowe of Shadyside Ave. suffered an injury of the right ankle in a fall down cellar steps.

James Reed, 21, of Indiana Ave., Chester, received a laceration of the forehead when a jack slipped while working under a car.

Donald Hollyer, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hollyer of Summitville, was treated yesterday for a possible fracture of the collarbone received while playing in a Salineville-Chester football scrimmage at Chester Saturday.

French Minesweeper Carries Body To Goal

AUCKLAND, New Zealand (AP) —A French minesweeper today carried the body of scientist-adventurer Eric de Bisschop to Tahiti, his goal on a 6½-month raft trip from South America.

The balsa wood raft was wrecked on a reef Sunday night at Rakahanga in the northern Cook Islands, the French Navy Ministry said. De Bisschop was killed, but his four crew members survived and were en route to Tahiti with the body.

'Wonderful Place'

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — A drunk, explaining how he happened to get that way, described for police a wonderful place where he "just drove in and filled up from a spigot." The officers found the spot near here. They smashed a 500-gallon all-copper moonshine still.

11 Children, 16 Adults Injured At Fireworks Show

DETROIT (AP) — Eleven children and 16 adults were injured Monday night when a defective aerial bomb exploded at a fireworks display in suburban River Rouge.

The bomb exploded near the top of a crowded grandstand. It was designed to explode in the air twice but instead went off only once and then plunged into the grandstand where it blew up again. An estimated 8,000 persons were watching the show.

All but two of those injured were given first aid and released. Hospitalized with burns and lacerations of the face, arms and legs were Mrs. Lillian Keith, 33, and Dorothy Beckner, 19, both of suburban Lincoln Park.

Officials of the 10th annual Rouge Days held at the Great Lakes Athletic Field were unable to explain what caused the bomb to misfunction. One witness said it went off with "a sound like a big stick of dynamite."
